

Payday Super – what you need to know

If you haven't had time to read up on Payday Super yet, watch our video.

Last updated 10 February 2026

The super system is changing. From 1 July 2026, Payday Super starts.

Watch our video featuring Deputy Commissioner, Emma Rosenzweig. In it, she explains what small businesses can expect under Payday Super, and most importantly, how to get ready.

Media: Payday Super – What small businesses need to know
<https://tv.ato.gov.au/ato-tv/media?v=bi9or7orz9pjfh> (Duration: 3:08)

You can find Payday Super fact sheets, checklists and videos on our new Payday Super resources page.

Keep up to date

We have tailored communication channels just for small businesses – so you'll always be up to date with the latest information and changes relevant to you.

Explore more articles in our Small business newsroom.

Subscribe to our free:

- monthly Small business email newsletter
- email notifications about new and updated information on our website – just select the Business and organisations category to get updates relevant to you, including more articles like this one.

Our commitment to you

We are committed to providing you with accurate, consistent and clear information to help you understand your rights and entitlements and meet your obligations.

If you follow our information and it turns out to be incorrect, or it is misleading and you make a mistake as a result, we will take that into account when determining what action, if any, we should take.

Some of the information on this website applies to a specific financial year. This is clearly marked. Make sure you have the information for the right year before making decisions based on that information.

If you feel that our information does not fully cover your circumstances, or you are unsure how it applies to you, contact us or seek professional advice.

Copyright notice

© Australian Taxation Office for the Commonwealth of Australia

You are free to copy, adapt, modify, transmit and distribute this material as you wish (but not in any way that suggests the ATO or the Commonwealth endorses you or any of your services or products).