

Make the March third quarter the last time you use the SBSCH

Download your records and transition out of using the SBSCH before it closes permanently.

Published 2 April 2026

If you're still using the Small Business Superannuation Clearing House (SBSCH), make the payment for the January to March quarter (Q3) the last time you use it to pay super.

Don't wait until the last minute, act now by:

- choosing an alternative provider  to the SBSCH
- downloading all your employee payment transaction records and employee details before 30 June 2026
- transitioning after making your Q3 payments, which are due by 28 April
- speaking with your tax professional if you're unsure about timing or which service suits your business.

You won't be able to access the SBSCH, including all records, after 11:59 pm AEST on 30 June 2026. User logins will be disabled, and you won't be able to retrieve any information.

You can check out our checklist for a step by step guide on how to transition from the SBSCH.
