GST food and beverage search tool

Use the GST food and beverage search tool to determine if food and beverage products are taxable or GST-free.

Last updated 19 August 2024

The GST food and beverage search tool allows you to search food and beverage products to find out if they're taxable or GST-free. It lists food and beverage products that have already been classified by us and published in the Detailed food list (DFL).

Don't use the search tool if the food or beverage item is supplied as a dine-in or hot takeaway as these items are taxable. Dine-in includes food or beverage items for consumption on the premises from which it is supplied.

Refer to our Detailed food list Public Ruling to find out more about GST and food and beverage classifications and how they apply to you.
