Item A3 Government super contributions calculator

This tool will help you calculate the correct amounts for the A3 labels on the individual tax return.

Last updated 1 July 2016

The Item A3 super contributions calculator will help you calculate the correct amounts for the A3 labels on your individual tax return. This will ensure you receive the correct amount of government super co-contribution.

The A3 calculation is based on information you provide about individual income and deductions.

If you change or add any details relating to an income year for which you've already lodged a tax return, you may need to amend that return.

This calculator should only be used where you need to answer A3 Government super contributions.

To use the calculator you'll need income and expense details from your individual income tax return. This calculator will take 5 minutes to complete and the estimate will be based on the information you provide.
