

Application for refund of franking credits: NFP endorsed entities 2018–19

Sample application form (not for lodgment) for 1 July 2018 to 30 June 2019 (NAT 4131).

Last updated 24 June 2024

In the last week of June, a personalised refund application form is sent to endorsed organisations that applied for and received a refund of franking credits for the 2017–18 year. This includes the following organisations:

- registered charities that are endorsed by us as exempt from income tax
- income tax exempt entities endorsed by us as deductible gift recipients in their own right
- income tax exempt entities that are deductible gift recipients listed by name in the tax law
- income tax exempt relief funds declared by the Treasurer to be developing country relief funds
- entities that are prescribed as exempt institutions and eligible for a refund under the regulations
- an exempt institution eligible for a refund under an Australian Government law other than the income tax law.

Complete the application in full and follow the instructions to avoid delays in processing your organisation's application.
