

Departing Australia superannuation payment (DASP) online application – agreement for intermediaries

Use the DASP online intermediary application system to submit electronic DASP claims of temporary resident clients.

Last updated 13 November 2024

To become a departing Australia superannuation payment (DASP) intermediary you must complete, and agree to comply with the terms and conditions of the DASP online application – Agreement for intermediaries.

This form can be downloaded in Portable Document Format (PDF):

- Departing Australia superannuation payment \(DASP\) online application - Agreement for intermediaries \(NAT 15478, PDF, 231KB\)

To use the DASP online intermediary application system you will need to enter your client's:

- name, date of birth and other personal details
- email address and telephone number
- passport country
- passport number
- TFN (optional however, supplying it assists in locating their account and processing the request)

- super account details, including their super fund provider's Australian business number (ABN).

You are able to scan and email the completed form to DASPMail@ato.gov.au.

Note: Email is an unsecure channel and may take up to 28 days for you to receive a response.

DASP intermediaries can use the DASP online intermediary application system to find and claim fund-held and ATO-held super on behalf on their temporary resident clients.

This agreement is only available to either:

- tax agents (with full registrations with the Tax Practitioner Board (TPB))
- individuals/organisations with conditional TPB tax agent registrations for DASP purposes.

You will also require a Digital ID, such as myID and be linked to an ABN in Relationship Authorisation Manager to access the DASP online intermediary application system.

See also

- Accessing online services with Digital ID and RAM
- Privacy notice – Departing Australia superannuation payment(s)

QC 18934

Our commitment to you

We are committed to providing you with accurate, consistent and clear information to help you understand your rights and entitlements and meet your obligations.

If you follow our information and it turns out to be incorrect, or it is misleading and you make a mistake as a result, we will take that into account when determining what action, if any, we should take.

Some of the information on this website applies to a specific financial year. This is clearly marked. Make sure you have the information for the right year before making decisions based on that information.

If you feel that our information does not fully cover your circumstances, or you are unsure how it applies to you, contact us or seek professional advice.

Copyright notice

© Australian Taxation Office for the Commonwealth of Australia

You are free to copy, adapt, modify, transmit and distribute this material as you wish (but not in any way that suggests the ATO or the Commonwealth endorses you or any of your services or products).