

The Small Business Superannuation Clearing House is closing

The ATO's clearing house is closing to new users on 1 October 2025.

Published 13 August 2025

As part of the Payday Super reform, the Small Business Superannuation Clearing House (SBSCH) will close on 1 July 2026.

To support small businesses to transition to alternative services prior to this time, new users will be unable to register to use the service from 1 October 2025.

Existing users are encouraged to take steps now to transition to alternative options. These include reviewing your existing software and payroll packages, which may already include super functions, or looking at options offered by super funds, commercial clearing houses, or other payroll software or providers.

For more information visit ato.gov.au/howtopaysuper or speak with your registered tax professional.

Keep up to date

We have tailored communication channels just for small businesses – so you'll always be up to date with the latest information and changes relevant to you.

Explore more articles in our Small business newsroom.

Subscribe to our free:

- monthly Small business email newsletter

- email notifications about new and updated information on our website – just select the Business and organisations category to get updates relevant to you, including more articles like this one.

QC 105379

Our commitment to you

We are committed to providing you with accurate, consistent and clear information to help you understand your rights and entitlements and meet your obligations.

If you follow our information and it turns out to be incorrect, or it is misleading and you make a mistake as a result, we will take that into account when determining what action, if any, we should take.

Some of the information on this website applies to a specific financial year. This is clearly marked. Make sure you have the information for the right year before making decisions based on that information.

If you feel that our information does not fully cover your circumstances, or you are unsure how it applies to you, contact us or seek professional advice.

Copyright notice

© Australian Taxation Office for the Commonwealth of Australia

You are free to copy, adapt, modify, transmit and distribute this material as you wish (but not in any way that suggests the ATO or the Commonwealth endorses you or any of your services or products).