Key criteria

We will consider expressions of interest with a focus on diversity across the group. Elements we will consider include an applicant's:

- ability to actively contribute to discussions, constructively challenge, and provide insights and suggestions that assist the ATO to improve the tax system
- awareness of current and emerging issues impacting taxpayers
- strategic thinking, including an ability to see the big picture and take the long-term view
- ability to represent and consider the views, experiences and interests of the broader profession and industry, beyond those of their own practice, organisation or client base
- personal professionalism, integrity, and ongoing commitment to best practice
- ability to find innovative and practical solutions, be open to ideas and engage with risk
- strong communication skills, particularly skills that foster discussion within a group that supports innovation and problem solving.
