

Notification of provisional head company no longer eligible

A multiple entry consolidated (MEC) group is a group of Australian entities that is wholly foreign-owned and does not have a common Australian resident head company.

— Do not use this form to notify us:

- if you are an income tax consolidated group. You must use Notification of head company no longer eligible: income tax consolidated group ceases to exist (NAT 6783)
- of the formation of the original MEC group. You must use Notification of formation of a multiple entry consolidated (MEC) group (NAT 7024)
- of eligible tier-1 companies who have joined the group after its formation. You must use Notification of a new eligible tier-1 company of a multiple entry consolidated (MEC) group (NAT 73442).

Who completes this form

The public officer, agent, trustee or registered tax agent of the provisional head company completes this form.

Section E: Declaration

Privacy statement

We are authorised to request TFNs by the Taxation Administration Act 1953. We use them to identify you in our records. It is not an offence not to provide TFNs. However, this may cause delays in processing your form.

Taxation law authorises us to collect information and disclose it to other government agencies. This includes personal information of the person authorised to complete the form and sign the declaration. See more about your privacy at ato.gov.au/privacy.

Before you sign this form

Make sure you have answered all the relevant questions correctly and read the privacy statement above before you sign and date this page. An incomplete form may delay processing. Check your records of any earlier forms submitted, and ensure that:

- the ATO has been fully notified of all entities which were current members of the MEC group when the provisional head company became no longer eligible
- all new members listed meet the membership requirements, and
- all subsidiary members of the MEC group who are leaving the group with the provisional head company have been listed.

Penalties may be imposed for giving false or misleading information.

Place X at the appropriate statement:

I certify that I am the public officer, agent or trustee of the former provisional head company reported in section A; all membership requirements have been met; the information given on this notification and on any applicable supplementary documents is true and correct; and that I consent to the collection of this information.

I am the registered tax agent authorised by the former provisional head company to give this document to the Commissioner of Taxation. This document has been prepared in accordance with the information supplied by the former provisional head company and I have received a declaration from the former provisional head company stating that the information provided to me is true and correct.
