

Notification of members joining and/or leaving a multiple entry consolidated (MEC) group

A MEC group is a group of Australian entities that is wholly foreign-owned and does not have a common Australian resident head company.

This form should be used to advise the ATO of members who have joined and/or left the MEC group since the last membership notice was given to the ATO.

Do not use this form to notify us:

- of changes to an income tax consolidated group. You must use Notification of members joining and/or leaving an income tax consolidated group (NAT 6782)
- if the provisional head company has become ineligible. You must use Notification of provisional head company no longer eligible (NAT 7053)
- of a company becoming an eligible tier-1 company of a MEC group. You must use Notification of a new eligible tier-1 company of a multiple entry consolidated (MEC) group (NAT 73442).

If a member of the MEC group has petroleum resource rent tax (PRRT) obligations (for onshore petroleum project interests), you can choose to consolidate for PRRT purposes, if the group is not already consolidated for those purposes.

For more information on consolidated groups and petroleum resource rent tax obligations, you can visit our website at:
