Section B: Australian business number

7 Is your organisation's Australian business number (ABN) still current?

An ABN is a single business identifier used for dealings with government departments and agencies. Your organisation must have a current ABN to be entitled to be endorsed for income tax exemption.

If your organisation's ABN has been cancelled, you will have received written notification.

You can check your organisation's ABN by:

- searching the Australian Business Register (ABR) website at abn.business.gov.au
- phoning us on 1300 130 248.

➤ For more information about ABNs, refer to Australian business number.

No Your organisation is no longer entitled to endorsement as an income tax exempt charity. We will have notified you that your endorsement has been revoked. Revocation of your endorsement may mean your organisation is taxable and needs to lodge tax returns.

Yes

Notes

Section C: Registered charity

8 Is your organisation a registered charity?

Your organisation must be a registered charity to be entitled to be endorsed for income tax exemption.

A registered charity is an organisation that is registered with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission (ACNC) as a charity.

Organisations can cease to be a registered charity. You must check if your organisation is still a registered charity.

➤ For more information about charity registration and to check if your organisation is a registered charity, refer to the ACNC website at acnc.gov.au

No Your organisation is no longer entitled to endorsement as an income tax exempt charity. You must tell us in writing that your organisation is no longer entitled to endorsement and give the date it ceased to be a registered charity.

Yes

Notes

Section D: Three tests

9 Does your registered charity meet at least one of the three tests:

- in Australia test
- deductible gift recipient (DGR) test
- prescribed by law test?

Your charity must meet at least one of these tests:

In Australia test

Your charity has a physical presence in Australia, and to the extent of its Australian presence, it pursues its objectives and incurs its expenses principally in Australia.

DGR test

Your charity is endorsed as a DGR.

Prescribed by law test

Your charity is prescribed by name in the income tax regulations and one of the following applies:

- It is located outside Australia and is income tax exempt in its country of residence.
- It has a physical presence in Australia but incurs its expenditure and pursues its objectives principally outside Australia.

➤ For more information about the three tests, see Income tax exemption.

No Your charity is no longer entitled to endorsement as an income tax exempt charity. You must tell us in writing that your charity is no longer entitled to endorsement and give the date it ceased to be entitled.

Yes

Notes

Section E: Two conditions

10 Does your registered charity meet both of the following conditions:

- governing rules condition
- income and assets condition?

Your charity must meet both of these conditions:

Governing rules condition

Your charity must comply with all the substantive requirements in its governing rules.

Income and assets condition

Your charity must apply its income and assets solely for the purpose for which it is established.

➤ For more information about the two conditions, see Income tax exemption.

No Your charity is no longer entitled to endorsement as an income tax exempt charity. You must tell us in writing that your charity is no longer entitled to endorsement and give the date it ceased to be entitled.
