

Voluntary disclosure form – if you're under a review or audit

When to use this form

Use this form if you're under a review or audit and you want to tell us about any mistakes you have made or anything you have left out of your return/s and statement/s.

What you need to do

- Complete the required fields in the form.
- Keep a copy of this form with any attachments and supporting documents for your own records.
- For questions 10 and 11 include as much detail as you can so we can assess your disclosure in a timely manner without having to ask for more detailed information.
- The voluntary disclosure must be full and complete to the best of your knowledge or ability.

How to lodge this form

Give this form with any attachments and supporting documents to the tax officer(s) conducting the review or audit. The tax officer will let you know how you can send this form to them.

What you need to know

If someone else helps you to complete this form, you are still legally responsible for the accuracy of the information.

Under tax law, we're allowed to ask for your tax file number. You don't have to give us your tax file number. If you choose not to, it may take us longer to identify your tax records and process your voluntary disclosure.

- ! The information we collect can be shared with other government agencies. For more information about your privacy go to ato.gov.au/privacy
