 - (ii) in any other case—the consideration receivable, less any expenses payable, by the person in relation to the sale; and

(2) In this section:

non-arm's length transaction means a transaction where the Commissioner, having regard to any connection between the parties to the transaction or to any other relevant circumstances, is satisfied that the parties to the transaction are not dealing with each other at arm's length in relation to the transaction.

6 Section 26

If the Designated Authority considers that sufficient information has been provided, the Designated Authority must issue the applicant with a notice to that effect specifying the last date on which information was provided.

- (4) The issuing of a notice under subsection (3) does not prevent the Designated Authority from later requiring further information under subsection (2). However, the later request does not affect the notice under subsection (3).

Examples: An application may be finalised because it is withdrawn or because it is refused.

Operative provisions

115-280 Deduction for certain dividends

- (1) You can deduct an amount for a *dividend paid to you by a company (the payment company) if:
 - (a) you are:
 - (i) an individual, a *complying superannuation entity, a trust or a partnership; or
 - (ii) a *life insurance company where the dividend is in respect of *shares that are *virtual PST assets; and
 - (b) you are an Australian resident when the dividend is paid; and
 - (c) all or some part of the dividend is reasonably attributable to a *LIC capital gain made by a *listed investment company; and
 - (d) in a case where the LIC capital gain was made by a company other than the payment company—the payment company was a listed investment company when it received a dividend part of which is attributable to the LIC capital gain.

Note: The concession is available for LIC capital gains made directly by a listed investment company, and for LIC capital gains that company receives as a dividend through one or more other listed investment companies.

- (2) The amount you can deduct is:
 - (a) 50% of your share of the amount (the attributable part) worked out under subsection (3) if you are an individual, a trust (except a trust that is a *complying superannuation entity) or a partnership; or
 - (b) 33¹/₃% of your share of the attributable part if you are a complying superannuation entity or a *life insurance company.

Note 1: The listed investment company will advise you of your share of the attributable part.

Note 2: If a shareholder in a listed investment company is a trust or partnership, a beneficiary of the trust or a partner in the partnership has no share of the attributable part.

- (3) The attributable part is worked out using this formula:

$$\text{After tax gain} + \frac{\text{After tax gain} \times \text{General company tax rate (at the time of the *CGT event)}}{1 - \text{General company tax rate (at that time)}}$$ where:

after tax gain is the after tax *LIC capital gain.

Example: A listed investment company disposes of a CGT asset for $30,000. The asset had a cost base of $10,000. The capital gain is therefore $20,000. The company applies a capital loss of $10,000 against the gain. Its net capital gain is $10,000.

The net capital gain is subject to tax at 30%. The after tax gain is therefore $7,000.

The company pays a fully franked dividend to Daryl, one of its shareholders. It advises Daryl that his share of the attributable part of the dividend is:

$$$7 + \frac{$7}{0.7} \times 0.3 = \frac{$10}{1 - 0.3} = $10$$

Daryl, being an individual, can deduct 50% of $10, which is $5.

- (4) An amount is included in your assessable income if:
- (a) a deduction is allowed under subsection (1) to a trust or a partnership; and
 - (b) you are a beneficiary of the trust or a partner in the partnership and you are not an individual; and
 - (c) the income of the trust or partnership is reduced by an amount because of that deduction; and
 - (d) a part of the deduction (the reduction amount) is reflected in your share of the net income of the trust or partnership.
- (5) The amount included is:
- (a) the reduction amount if you are a company, a trust (except a trust that is a *complying superannuation entity) or a partnership; or
 - (b) one-third of the reduction amount if you are a complying superannuation entity or a *life insurance company.

Example: The Burnett Partnership received a dividend from a listed investment company. The dividend statement advised that the dividend included a $100 attributable part. The partnership deducted $50 under this section in calculating its net income.

The partnership has 2 equal partners, Amy Burnett and Burnett Consulting Pty Ltd.

Burnett Consulting's assessable income includes its share of the net income of the partnership plus $25 (being that part of the $50 deduction allowed to the partnership that is reflected in the company's share of the partnership net income).

Subsections (4) and (5) do not apply to Amy because she is an individual.

115-285 Meaning of LIC capital gain

- (1) A LIC capital gain is a *capital gain:
- (a) from a *CGT event that happens on or after 1 July 2001; and
 - (b) that is made by a company that is a *listed investment company from a *CGT asset that is an investment to which paragraph 115-290(1)(c) applies; and
 - (c) that meets the requirements of sections 115-20 and 115-25; and
 - (d) that is not a capital gain that could not be a *discount capital gain had it been made by an individual because of section 115-40 or 115-45; and
 - (e) that is included in the *net capital gain of the company; and
 - (f) that is reflected in the taxable income of the company for the income year in which the company had the net capital gain.

Note 1: The listed investment company must be able to demonstrate that at least some part of the LIC capital gain, whether made by the company itself or by another listed investment company, remains after claiming deductions and losses against that income for the income year.

Note 2: Section 115-30 may affect the date of acquisition of a CGT asset for the purposes of sections 115-25, 115-40 and 115-45.

- (2) However, a *capital gain made by a company is not a LIC capital gain if the company:
- (a) became a *listed investment company after 1 July 2001; and
 - (b) *acquired the *CGT asset concerned before the day on which it became a listed investment company.
- (3) In applying subsection (2), a *CGT asset is treated as if it had been *acquired by the company before it became a *listed investment company if the asset would otherwise be treated as being acquired after that time because of one of these provisions:
- (a) section 70-110 (about trading stock);

- (b) Subdivision 124-E or 124-F (replacement asset roll-overs for exchange of *shares, units, rights or options);
- (c) Subdivision 126-B (same-asset roll-over for transfers within a wholly-owned group).

115-290 Meaning of listed investment company

- (1) A listed investment company is a company:
 - (a) that is an Australian resident; and
 - (b) *shares in which are listed for quotation on the official list of the Australian Stock Exchange Limited or of a body corporate that is approved as a stock exchange under section 769 of the Corporations Act 2001; and
 - (c) at least 90% of the *market value of whose *CGT assets consists of investments permitted by subsection (4).
- (2) A company is also a listed investment company if:
 - (a) it is a 100% subsidiary of a company that is a *listed investment company because of subsection (1); and
 - (b) the subsidiary would be a listed investment company because of subsection (1) if it were able to comply with paragraph (1)(b).
- (3) This Subdivision applies to a company that does not comply with paragraph (1)(c) as if it did comply if the failure:
 - (a) was of a temporary nature only; and
 - (b) was caused by circumstances outside its control.
- (4) The permitted investments are:
 - (a) *shares, units, options, rights or similar interests to the extent permitted by subsections (5), (6), (7) and (8); or
 - (b) financial instruments (such as loans, debts, debentures, bonds, promissory notes, futures contracts, forward contracts, currency swap contracts and a right or option in respect of a share, security, loan or contract); or
 - (c) an asset whose main use by the company in the course of carrying on its *business is to derive interest, an annuity, rent, royalties or foreign exchange gains unless:
 - (i) the asset is an intangible asset and has been substantially developed, altered or improved by the

- company so that its market value has been substantially enhanced; or
- (ii) its main use for deriving rent was only temporary; or
- (d) goodwill.
- (5) The company can own a *100% subsidiary if the subsidiary is a listed investment company because of subsection (2).
- (6) The company can own (directly or indirectly) any percentage of another *listed investment company that is not the company's *100% subsidiary.
- (7) Otherwise, the company cannot own (directly or indirectly) more than 10% of another company or trust.
- (8) In working out whether a company indirectly owns any part of another company or trust:
- (a) disregard any ownership it has indirectly through a *listed public company or a *publicly traded unit trust; and
- (b) if the company owns not more than 50% of another *listed investment company—disregard any ownership it has indirectly through the other company.

115-295 Maintaining records

A *listed investment company must maintain records showing the balance of its *LIC capital gains available for distribution.

11 At the end of subsection 320-205(3)

Add:

- ; and (f) amounts included in the company's assessable income for the income year under subsection 115-280(4).

12 At the end of subsection 320-205(4)

Add:

- ; and (f) the proportion of the amount that the company can deduct for the income year under subsection 115-280(1) that is attributable to a *dividend paid to the company by a *listed investment company in respect of virtual PST assets that are *shares in the listed investment company.

- (e) the agent does not provide any services to the customers, on the principal's behalf, using premises:

 - (a) the agent gains or produces during the income year; and

87-1 What this Division is about

Divisions 85 and 86 do not apply to personal services income that is income from conducting a personal services business.

It is not intended that the Divisions apply to independent contractors.

A personal services business exists if there is a personal services business determination or if one or more of 4 tests for what is a personal services business are met.

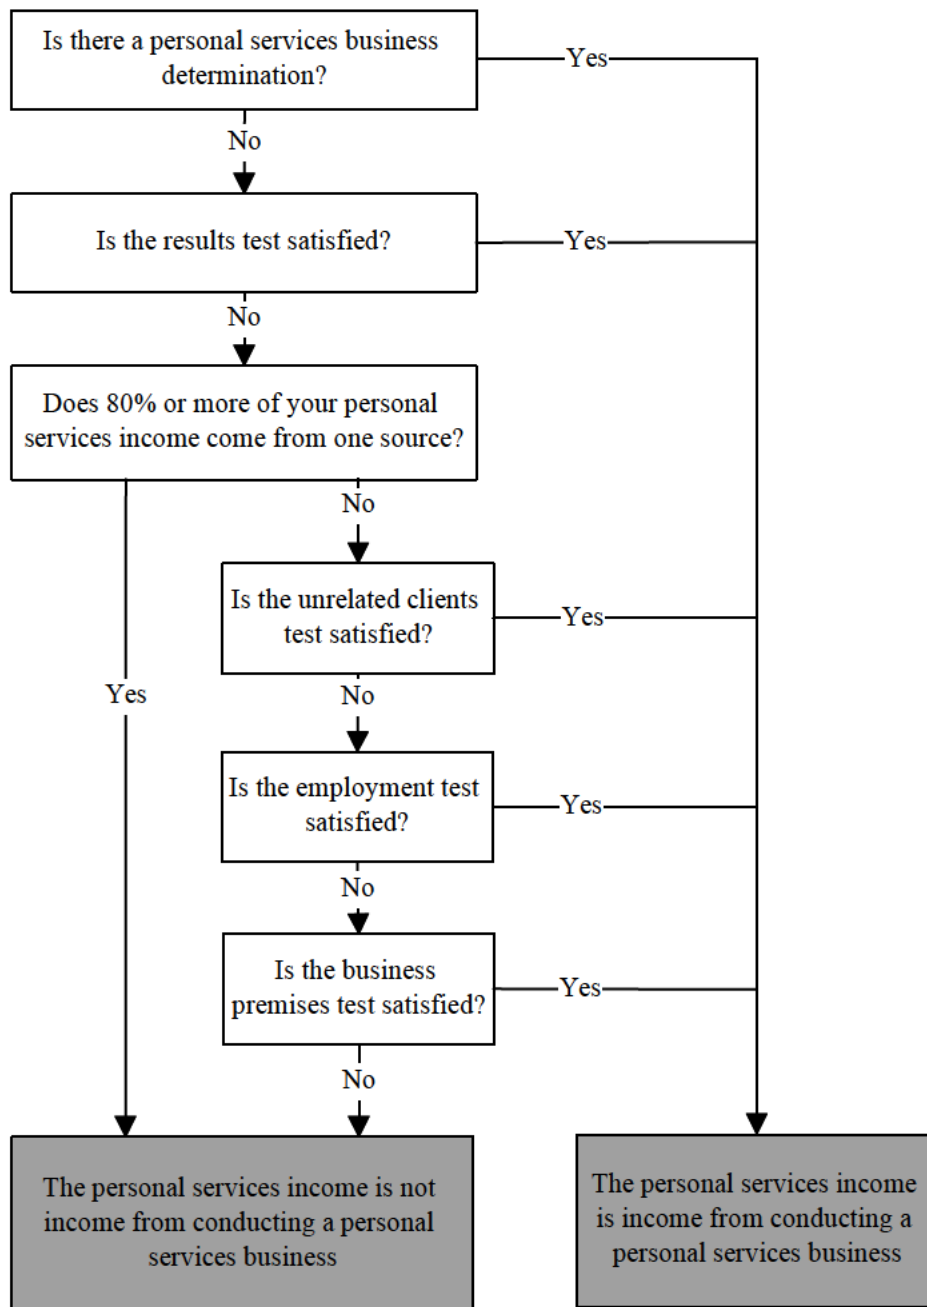

Regardless of how much of your personal services income is paid from one source, you can self-assess against the results test to determine whether you are an independent contractor. The results test is based on the traditional tests for determining independent contractors and it is intended that it apply accordingly.

However, you cannot “self-assess” whether you meet any of the other 3 tests if 80% or more of your personal services income is from one source. In these cases, you need a personal services business determination in order to be treated as conducting a personal services business.

87-5 Diagram showing the operation of this Division

This diagram shows how this Division operates to ascertain whether personal services income is income from conducting a personal services business.
