Part 1—Main amendments

Income Tax Assessment Act 1997

1 At the end of Division 768

Add:

Subdivision 768-R—Temporary residents

Guide to Subdivision 768-R

768-900 What this Subdivision is about

This Subdivision modifies the general tax rules for people in Australia who are temporary residents, whether Australian residents or foreign residents.

Generally foreign income derived by temporary residents is non-assessable non-exempt income and capital gains and losses they make are also disregarded for CGT purposes. There are some exceptions for employment-related income and capital gains on shares and rights acquired under employee share schemes.

Temporary residents are also partly relieved of record-keeping obligations in relation to the controlled foreign company and foreign investment fund rules.

Interest paid by temporary residents is not subject to withholding tax and may be non-assessable non-exempt income for a foreign resident.

Operative provisions

768-905 Objects

The objects of this Subdivision are to:

- (a) provide *temporary residents with tax relief on most foreign source income and capital gains; and
- (b) relieve the burdens associated with complying with certain record-keeping obligations and interest withholding tax obligations.

768-910 Income derived by temporary resident

- (1) The following are *non-assessable non-exempt income:
 - (a) the *ordinary income you *derive directly or indirectly from a source other than an *Australian source if you are a *temporary resident when you derive it;
 - (b) your *statutory income (other than a *net capital gain) from a source other than an Australian source if you are a temporary resident when you derive it.

This subsection has effect subject to subsections (3) and (5).

Note: A capital gain or loss you make may be disregarded under section 768-915.

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b):
- (a) if you have statutory income because a particular circumstance occurs, you derive the statutory income at the time when the circumstance occurs; and
 - (b) if you have statutory income because a number of circumstances occur, you derive the statutory income at the time when the last of those circumstances occurs.

Exception to subsection (1)

- (3) However, the following are not *non-assessable non-exempt income under subsection (1):
- (a) the *ordinary income you *derive directly or indirectly from a source other than an *Australian source to the extent that it is remuneration, for employment undertaken, or services provided, while you are a *temporary resident;
 - (b) your *statutory income (other than a *net capital gain) from a source other than an Australian source to the extent that it relates to employment undertaken, or services provided, while you are a temporary resident;
 - (c) an amount included in your assessable income under Division 86;
 - (d) an amount that, but for subsection (1), would be included in your assessable income under Division 13A of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Note: This subsection only makes an amount not non-assessable non-exempt income under subsection (1). It does not prevent that amount from being non-assessable non-exempt income under some other provision of this Act or the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

Section 26AAC employee share schemes

- (4) This subsection applies if:
- (a) an amount would otherwise be included in your assessable income under section 26AAC of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (about shares and rights acquired by employees); and

- (b) the applicable time mentioned in subsection 26AAC(15) of that Act for the relevant *share occurs while you are a *temporary resident.
- (5) If subsection (4) applies, the amount is *non-assessable non-exempt income to the extent to which you acquired the relevant *share under a scheme for the acquisition of shares by employees in respect of, or for or in relation (directly or indirectly) to:
 - (a) any employment you undertook outside Australia; or
 - (b) any services you provided outside Australia;prior to becoming a *temporary resident.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not limit paragraph (1)(b).

768-915 Certain capital gains and capital losses of temporary resident to be disregarded

A *capital gain or *capital loss you make from a *CGT event is disregarded if:

- (a) you are a *temporary resident when, or immediately before, the CGT event happens; and
- (b) you would not make a capital gain or loss from the CGT event if you were a foreign resident when, or immediately before, the CGT event happens.

Note: Division 136 deals with capital gains and capital losses by foreign residents.

768-920 Capital gains and losses on employee shares and rights where taxation of discount not deferred

When this section applies

- (1) This section applies to a *share or right if:
 - (a) you *acquire the share or right under an *employee share scheme; and
 - (b) you engage in employment, or render services, that affect the holding or acquisition of the shares or rights while you are a *temporary resident; and
 - (c) the share or right does not have the *necessary connection with Australia; and

- (d) either:
- (i) the share or right is not a *qualifying share or *qualifying right; or
 - (ii) the share or right is a qualifying share or qualifying right and you have made an election under section 139E of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 covering the share or right; and
- (e) a *CGT event happens in relation to the share or right; and
- (f) if the CGT event is CGT event I1—you are not a temporary resident immediately before the event happens; and
- (g) you would make a *capital gain or *capital loss from the CGT event, and the capital gain or capital loss would not be disregarded, if you were an Australian resident (but not a temporary resident) when the CGT event happens; and
- (h) this section has not previously applied to you in relation to a CGT event in relation to the share or right.

Note: Paragraph (a)—section 139DQ of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 applies for the purposes of this Subdivision to treat a matching share or right issued as part of a 100% takeover or restructure as a continuation of the share or right it matches.

- (2) This section also applies to a *share (the derived share) if:
- (a) you *acquire a right (the original right) under an *employee share scheme; and
 - (b) you engage in employment, or render services, that affect the holding or acquisition of the original right, or the derived share, while you are a *temporary resident; and
 - (c) you acquire the derived share by exercising the original right; and
 - (d) the derived share does not have the *necessary connection with Australia; and
 - (e) either:
 - (i) the original right is not a *qualifying right; or
 - (ii) the original right is a qualifying right and you have made an election under section 139E of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 covering the original right; and
 - (f) a *CGT event happens in relation to the derived share; and
 - (g) if the CGT event is CGT event I1—you are not a temporary resident immediately before the event happens; and

Schedule 1 Foreign source income exemptions for temporary residents
Part 1 Main amendments

- (h) you would make a *capital gain or *capital loss from the CGT event, and the capital gain or capital loss would not be disregarded, if you were an Australian resident (but not a temporary resident) when the CGT event happens; and
- (i) this section has not previously applied to you in relation to the original right or the derived share.

Note: Paragraph (a)—section 139DQ of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 applies for the purposes of this Subdivision to treat a matching share or right issued as part of a 100% takeover or restructure as a continuation of the share or right it matches.

- (3) To avoid doubt, paragraph (1)(e) or (2)(f) applies:
 - (a) even if you are not a *temporary resident when the *CGT event happens; and
 - (b) whether you are an Australian resident or a foreign resident when the CGT event happens.

Capital gain or loss

- (4) If you are a *temporary resident or a foreign resident when the *CGT event happens, you make a *capital gain or *capital loss from the CGT event.

Note: If you are an Australian resident (but not a temporary resident) when the CGT event occurs, neither Division 136 nor section 768-915 prevents you having a capital gain or capital loss.

- (5) Subsection (4) has effect despite Division 136 and section 768-915.

Amount of capital gain or capital loss for temporary residents and foreign residents

- (6) If you are a *temporary resident or a foreign resident when the *CGT event happens, the amount of the *capital gain or *capital loss is the amount of your adjusted notional gain or loss worked out under subsection (9).

Amount of capital gain or capital loss for Australian residents

- (7) If you are an Australian resident (but not a *temporary resident) when the *CGT event happens, the amount of the *capital gain or *capital loss is the sum of:
 - (a) the amount that would be the amount of your capital gain or capital loss if this section did not apply to you; and

- (b) the amount of your adjusted notional gain or loss worked out under subsection (9).

Example: George, a New Zealander, is granted shares (with a total market value at the time of $100,000) under an employee share scheme on 20 January 2006. He comes to Australia as a temporary resident on 1 January 2007 and completes the rest of the employment to which the shares relate in Australia. George elects to have the discount assessed in that income year. He then ceases to be a temporary resident but remains an Australian resident on 8 May 2008. At that time the shares have a market value of $80,000. George disposes of the shares on 30 June 2009 for $115,000. George's capital gain for the purpose of paragraph (a) would be $35,000. Assume that the amount of the loss that accrued up to 8 May 2008 that is to be counted for the purpose of paragraph (b) is $9,000. For the year ending 30 June 2009, George would, as a result of subsection (7), make a capital gain of $26,000 (being $35,000 less $9,000).

- (8) If subsection (7) applies to the *CGT event, subsections 136-40(3) and 768-955(3) do not apply for the purposes of applying Division 115 in relation to the CGT event.

Adjusted notional gain or loss

- (9) To work out your adjusted notional gain or loss:
- (a) work out your notional gain or loss using section 768-925; and
 - (b) adjust your notional gain or loss using sections 768-930, 768-935 and 768-940.

768-925 Notional gain or loss

- (1) Your notional gain or loss is the *capital gain or *capital loss you would have had in relation to the *CGT event if, for the whole of the period set by subsections (2) and (3), you:
- (a) had been an Australian resident; and
 - (b) had not been a *temporary resident.
- (2) The period starts:
- (a) in the case of section 768-920 applying to the *share or right in relation to which the *CGT event happens because of subsection 768-920(1):
 - (i) if the share or right was acquired from an *employee share trust—when you first acquired a beneficial interest in the share or right; or

- (ii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply—when you *acquired that share or right; and
- (b) in the case of section 768-920 applying to the *share in relation to which the *CGT event happens because of subsection 768-920(2):
 - (i) if the share was acquired from an *employee share trust—when you first acquired a beneficial interest in the original right; or
 - (ii) if subparagraph (i) does not apply—when you *acquired the original right.
- (3) The period ends when the *CGT event happens.
- (4) If you are an Australian resident (but not a *temporary resident) when the *CGT event happens, your notional gain or loss is reduced by the amount of the *capital gain or *capital loss that you would have made in relation to the *CGT event if section 768-920 did not apply to you.

768-930 Adjustment to notional gain or loss

- (1) If section 768-920 applies to the *share or right in relation to which the *CGT event happens because of subsection 768-920(1), adjust your notional gain or loss by:
 - (a) firstly, applying the factor worked out under subsection 768-935(1), (2) or (3) to the amount of your notional gain or loss; and
 - (b) secondly, applying the factor worked out under subsection 768-935(4) to the amount worked out under paragraph (a).
- (2) If section 768-920 applies to the *share in relation to which the *CGT event happens because of subsection 768-920(2), adjust your notional gain or loss by:
 - (a) firstly, applying the factor worked out under subsection 768-940(1), (2) or (3) to the amount of your notional gain or loss; and
 - (b) secondly, applying the factor worked out under subsection 768-940(4) to the amount worked out under paragraph (a).

768-935 Adjustment for share or right acquired under employee share scheme

(1) If:

- (a) the *CGT event happens on or after the *cessation time for the share or right; and
- (b) when, or immediately before, the CGT event happens you are either:
 - (i) a foreign resident; or
 - (ii) an Australian resident who is a temporary resident;

the factor to be applied for the purposes of paragraph 768-930(1)(a) is:

$$\frac{\text{Days before cessation time}}{\text{Days before CGT event}}$$

where:

days before cessation time is the number of days in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day on which you *acquired the *share or right or, if you acquired the share or right from an *employee share trust, on the day on which you first acquired a beneficial interest in the share or right; and
- (b) ends on the *cessation time for the share or right.

days before CGT event is the number of days in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day on which you *acquired the *share or right or, if you acquired the share or right from an *employee share trust, on the day on which you first acquired a beneficial interest in the share or right; and
- (b) ends on the day on which the *CGT event happens.

(2) If:

- (a) the *CGT event happens on or after the *cessation time for the share or right; and
- (b) when, or immediately before, the CGT event happens you are an Australian resident (but not a *temporary resident);

the factor to be applied for the purposes of paragraph 768-930(1)(a) is:

Days before cessation time
Days before ceasing to be a temporary resident

where:

days before cessation time is the number of days in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day on which you *acquired the *share or right or, if you acquired the share or right from an *employee share trust, on the day on which you first acquired a beneficial interest in the share or right; and
- (b) ends on the *cessation time for the share or right.

days before ceasing to be a temporary resident is the number of days in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day on which you *acquired the *share or right or, if you acquired the share or right from an *employee share trust, on the day on which you first acquired a beneficial interest in the share or right; and
 - (b) ends on the day on which you cease to be a *temporary resident.
- (3) The factor to be applied for the purposes of paragraph 768-930(1)(a) is 1 if:
- (a) the CGT event happens before the *cessation time for the *share or right; or
 - (b) you became an Australian resident who was not a *temporary resident before the cessation time for the share or right.

- (4) The factor to be applied for the purposes of paragraph 768-930(1)(b) is:

Assessable part of discount
Discount

where:

assessable part of discount is the amount of the discount that:

- (a) was included in your assessable income under Division 13A of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 in relation to the *share or right; or

- (b) would have been included in your assessable income under that Division in relation to the share or right if subsection 139BA(2) of that Act were disregarded.

discount is the amount of the discount.

768-940 Adjustment for derived share

(1) If:

- (a) the *CGT event happens on or after the *cessation time for the original right; and
- (b) when, or immediately before, the CGT event happens you are either:
- (i) a foreign resident; or
 - (ii) an Australian resident who is a *temporary resident;

the factor to be applied for the purposes of paragraph 768-930(2)(a) is:

$$\frac{\text{Days before cessation time}}{\text{Days before CGT event}}$$

where:

days before cessation time is the number of days in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day on which you *acquired the original right or, if you acquired the *share from an *employee share trust, on the day on which you first acquired a beneficial interest in the original right; and
- (b) ends on the *cessation time for the original right.

days before CGT event is the number of days in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day on which you *acquired the original right or, if you acquired the *share from an *employee share trust, on the day on which you first acquired a beneficial interest in the original right; and
- (b) ends on the day on which the *CGT event happens.

(2) If:

- (a) the *CGT event happens on or after the *cessation time for the original right; and
- (b) when, or immediately before, the CGT event happens you are an Australian resident (but not a *temporary resident);

Schedule 1 Foreign source income exemptions for temporary residents
Part 1 Main amendments

the factor to be applied for the purposes of paragraph 768-930(2)(a) is:

$$\frac{\text{Days before cessation time}}{\text{Days before ceasing to be a temporary resident}}$$

where:

days before cessation time is the number of days in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day on which you *acquired the original right or, if you acquired the *share from an *employee share trust, on the day on which you first acquired a beneficial interest in the original right; and
- (b) ends on the *cessation time for the original right.

days before ceasing to be a temporary resident is the number of days in the period that:

- (a) starts on the day on which you *acquired the original right or, if you acquired the *share from an *employee share trust, on the day on which you first acquired a beneficial interest in the original right; and
 - (b) ends on the day on which you cease to be a *temporary resident.
- (3) The factor to be applied for the purposes of paragraph 768-930(2)(a) is 1 if:
- (a) the *CGT event happens before the *cessation time for the original right; or
 - (b) you became an Australian resident who was not a *temporary resident before the cessation time for the original right.

- (4) The factor to be applied for the purposes of paragraph 768-930(2)(b) is:

$$\frac{\text{Assessable part of discount}}{\text{Discount}}$$

where:

assessable part of discount is the amount of the discount that:

- (a) was included in your assessable income under Division 13A of Part III of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 in relation to the original right; or

- (b) would have been included in your assessable income under that Division in relation to the original right if subsection 139BA(2) of that Act were disregarded.

discount is the amount of the discount.

768-945 Amending assessment to take account of effect on capital gain or loss of recalculating discount

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) an amount is included in your assessable income, or you have a net capital loss, for a particular income year; and
 - (b) that amount is reduced, or increased, because of a change in the extent (if any) to which any of the following provisions of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 apply in relation to the amount during a subsequent income year:
 - (i) section 23AF;
 - (ii) section 23AG;
 - (iii) subsection 139B(1A).
- (2) In paragraph (1)(b):
- (a) the reference to an amount being reduced includes a reference to the amount being reduced to a nil amount; and
 - (b) the reference to an amount being increased includes a reference to the amount being increased from a nil amount.
- (3) Section 170 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 does not prevent the amendment of an assessment to take account of the effect that the reduction or increase has on the determination of the amount of a *capital gain or *capital loss under subsection 768-920(6) or (7).
- (4) If section 768-920 applies to the *share or right in relation to which the *CGT event occurs because of subsection 768-920(1), the amendment must be made before the end of the period of 4 years starting immediately after the income year during which the period of employment or service relating to the *acquisition of the share or right ends.
- (5) If section 768-920 applies to the *share or right in relation to which the *CGT event occurs because of subsection 768-920(2), the amendment must be made before the end of the period of 4 years starting immediately after the income year during which the period of employment or service relating to the *acquisition of the original right ends.

768-950 Individual becoming an Australian resident

Section 136-40 does not apply to your becoming an Australian resident if you are a *temporary resident immediately after you become an Australian resident.

768-955 Temporary resident who ceases to be temporary resident but remains an Australian resident

- (1) If you are a *temporary resident and you then cease to be a temporary resident (but remain, at that time, an Australian resident), there are rules relevant to each *CGT asset that:
 - (a) you owned just before you ceased to be a temporary resident; and
 - (b) does not have the *necessary connection with Australia; and
 - (c) you *acquired on or after 20 September 1985.
- (2) The first element of the *cost base and *reduced cost base of the asset (at the time you cease to be a *temporary resident) is its *market value at that time. This subsection has effect despite Subdivision 130-D.
- (3) Also, Parts 3-1 and 3-3 apply to the asset as if you had *acquired it at the time you ceased to be a *temporary resident.
- (4) This section does not apply to a *share or right if:
 - (a) it is a *qualifying share or a *qualifying right; and
 - (b) you have not made an election under section 139E of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 covering the share or right; and
 - (c) the *cessation time for the share or right has not occurred.

768-960 Temporary resident not attributable taxpayer for purposes of controlled foreign companies rules

For the purposes of Part X of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (which deals with the attribution of income in respect of controlled foreign companies), you are taken not to be an *attributable taxpayer in relation to a *CFC or *CFT at any time you are a *temporary resident.

768-965 Exemption of temporary resident from taxation in respect of foreign investment fund income

If you are a *temporary resident at the end of an income year, section 529 and Division 22 of Part XI of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 do not apply to you in relation to a *FIF or *FLP in respect of the notional accounting period of the FIF or FLP that ends in that income year.

768-970 Modification of rules for accruals system of taxation of certain non-resident trust estates

At any time when you are a *temporary resident, you are taken not to be a resident for the purposes of section 102AAZD of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

768-975 Calculation of beneficiary's share of net income of non-resident trust estate

At any time when you are a *temporary resident, you are taken not to be a resident for the purposes of subsection 96C(6) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

768-980 Interest paid by temporary resident

Interest that is paid by a *temporary resident:

- (a) is an amount to which section 128B (liability to withholding tax) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 does not apply; and
- (b) is *non-assessable non-exempt income if the interest is:
 - (i) *derived by a foreign resident; and
 - (ii) is not derived from carrying on *business in Australia at or through a *permanent establishment in Australia.

2 Subsection 995-1(1)

Insert:

temporary resident: you are a temporary resident if:

Schedule 1 Foreign source income exemptions for temporary residents

- (b) you are not an Australian resident within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991; and
- (c) your *spouse is not an Australian resident within the meaning of the Social Security Act 1991.

However, you are not a temporary resident if you have been an Australian resident (within the meaning of this Act), and any of paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) are not satisfied, at any time after the commencement of this definition.

This resulted in a balancing adjustment event occurring for the old asset, and the fee forms part of the second element of the cost of the old asset that was demolished.

27 Before subsection 40-190(3)

Insert:

- (2A) Paragraph (2)(b) does not apply to a *balancing adjustment event referred to in item 6 or 11 of the table in subsection 40-300(2).

28 Section 40-315

Repeal the section.

 - (c) it forms part of the cost of land; or

 - (e) it would, apart from this section, be taken into account in working out:
 - (i) a profit that is included in your assessable income (for example, under section 6-5 or 15-15); or
 - (ii) a loss that you can deduct (for example, under section 8-1 or 25-40); or

Part 1 Capital allowances amendments

- (8) You cannot deduct anything under this section for an amount of expenditure that, because of a market value substitution rule, was excluded from the *cost of a *depreciating asset or the *cost base or *reduced cost base of a *CGT asset.

Note: Some examples of market value substitution rules are subsection 40-180(2) (table item 8), subsection 40-190(3) (table item 1) and sections 40-765 and 112-20.

- (9) You cannot deduct anything under this section for an amount of expenditure you incur:

33 Subsection 110-25(1)

Omit “, subject to subsections (7), (8) and (9)”.

34 Subsection 110-25(3)

Repeal the subsection (not including the note), substitute:

- (3) The second element is the *incidental costs you incurred. These costs can include giving property: see section 103-5.

35 Subsection 110-25(4)

Omit “non-capital costs of ownership of”, substitute “costs of owning”.

36 Subsection 110-25(5)

Repeal the subsection (including the note), substitute:

- (5) The fourth element is capital expenditure you incurred:
- (a) the purpose or the expected effect of which is to increase or preserve the asset’s value; or
 - (b) that relates to installing or moving the asset.

The expenditure can include giving property: see section 103-5.

Note: There are 3 situations involving leases in which this element is modified: see section 112-80.

- (5A) Subsection (5) does not apply to capital expenditure incurred in relation to goodwill.

37 Subsections 110-25(7), (8), (9), (10) and (11)

Repeal the subsections.

38 Subsection 110-25(12) (note 1)

Omit “subsection (5) of this section or”.

39 Subsection 110-35(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) There are a number of incidental costs you may have incurred. Except for the ninth, they are costs you may have incurred:
 - (a) to *acquire a *CGT asset; or
 - (b) that relate to a *CGT event.

40 Paragraphs 110-35(5)(a) and (b)

After “advertising”, insert “or marketing”.

41 At the end of section 110-35

Add:

- (7) The sixth is search fees relating to a *CGT asset.
- (8) The seventh is the cost of a conveyancing kit (or a similar cost).
- (9) The eighth is borrowing expenses (such as loan application fees and mortgage discharge fees).
- (10) The ninth is expenditure that:
 - (a) is incurred by the *head company of a *consolidated group to an entity that is not a *member of the group; and
 - (b) reasonably relates to a *CGT asset *held by the head company; and
 - (c) is incurred because of a transaction that is between members of the group.

Example: Land is transferred by one company to another company. The companies are members of a consolidated group. Stamp duty is payable as a result of the transaction.

The transaction has no taxation consequences because of its intra-group nature.

The stamp duty is included in the cost base and reduced cost base of the land.

Note: Intra-group assets are not held by the head company because of the operation of subsection 701-1(1) (the single entity rule). An example of an intra-group asset is a debt owed by a member of the consolidated group to another member of the group.

42 After section 110-35

Insert:

110-36 Indexation

- (1) The cost base of a *CGT asset *acquired at or before 11.45 am (by legal time in the Australian Capital Territory) on 21 September 1999 also includes indexation of the elements of the cost base (except the third element) if the requirements of Division 114 are met.
- (2) However, for the purposes of working out the *capital gain of an entity mentioned in an item of the table from a *CGT event happening after 11.45 am (by legal time in the Australian Capital Territory) on 21 September 1999, the cost base includes indexation only if the entity mentioned in the item chooses that the cost base includes indexation.

| Choice of indexation | | |
|-----------------------------|---|--|
| Item | For the purposes of working out the capital gain of this entity: | The cost base includes indexation only if this entity chooses so: |
| 1 | An individual | The individual |
| 2 | A *complying superannuation entity | The trustee of the complying superannuation entity |
| 3 | A trust | The trustee of the trust |
| 4 | A listed investment company | The company |

Note 1: Section 103-25 specifies when you must make the choice and provides that the way you prepare your income tax return is evidence of your choice.

Note 2: For each CGT asset whose cost base you need to work out, you may either choose to index the expenditure included in the asset's cost base or not make that choice. If you do not choose to index the expenditure, your net capital gain includes only part of your capital gain on the CGT asset as worked out on the basis of the cost base not including indexation and reduced by your capital losses.

- (3) Also, for the purpose of working out the *capital gain of a *life insurance company from a *CGT event happening after 30 June 2000 in respect of a *CGT asset that is a *virtual PST asset, the cost base includes indexation only if the life insurance company chooses that the cost base includes indexation.

Note: Section 110-25 of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997 provides that, in working out the capital gain from a CGT event after 11.45 am on 21 September 1999 and before 1 July 2000 in respect of an asset of a life insurance company or registered organisation, the cost base includes indexation only if the company or organisation chooses it.

- (4) Expenditure does not form part of any element of the cost base to the extent that section 26-5 prevents it being deducted (even if some other provision also prevents it being deducted).

Note: Section 26-5 denies deductions for penalties.

The objects of this Division are:

- (b) to deter the implementation of schemes that have been promoted on the basis of conformity with a *product ruling in a way that is materially different from that described in the product ruling.

| 290-55 | Exceptions |
| 290-60 | Meaning of promoter |
| 290-65 | Meaning of tax exploitation scheme |

290-50 Civil penalties

Promoter of tax exploitation scheme

- (1) An entity must not engage in conduct that results in that or another entity being a *promoter of a *tax exploitation scheme.

Implementing scheme otherwise than in accordance with ruling

- (2) An entity must not engage in conduct that results in a *scheme that has been promoted on the basis of conformity with a *product ruling being implemented in a way that is materially different from that described in the product ruling.

Note: A scheme will not have been implemented in a way that is materially different from that described in a product ruling if the tax outcome for participants in the scheme is the same as that described in the ruling.

Civil penalty

- (3) If the Federal Court of Australia is satisfied, on application by the Commissioner, that an entity has contravened subsection (1) or (2), the Court may order the entity to pay a civil penalty to the Commonwealth.

Amount of penalty

- (4) The maximum amount of the penalty is the greater of:
- (a) 5,000 penalty units (for an individual) or 25,000 penalty units (for a body corporate); and
 - (b) twice the consideration received or receivable (directly or indirectly) by the entity and *associates of the entity in respect of the *scheme.

Note: See section 4AA of the Crimes Act 1914 for the current value of a penalty unit.

Principles relating to penalties

- (5) In deciding what penalty is appropriate for a contravention of subsection (1) or (2) by an entity, the Federal Court of Australia may have regard to all matters it considers relevant, including:
- (a) the amount of the consideration received or receivable (directly or indirectly) by the entity and *associates of the entity in respect of the *scheme; and
 - (b) the deterrent effect that any penalty may have; and
 - (c) the amount of loss or damage incurred by scheme participants; and
 - (d) the nature and extent of the contravention; and
 - (e) the circumstances in which the contravention took place, including the deliberateness of the entity's conduct and whether there was an honest and reasonable mistake of law; and
 - (f) the period over which the conduct extended; and
 - (g) whether the entity took any steps to avoid the contravention; and
 - (h) whether the entity has previously been found by the Court to have engaged in the same or similar conduct; and
 - (i) the degree of the entity's cooperation with the Commissioner.

Recovery of penalty

- (6) The penalty is a civil debt payable to the Commonwealth, and the Commissioner may, on behalf of the Commonwealth, enforce an order for an entity to pay the penalty as if it were an order made in civil proceedings against the entity to recover a debt due by the entity. The debt arising from the order is taken to be a judgment debt.

290-55 Exceptions

Reasonable mistake or reasonable precautions

- (1) The Federal Court of Australia must not order the entity to pay a civil penalty if the entity satisfies the Court:
- (a) that the conduct in respect of which the proceedings were instituted was due to a reasonable mistake of fact; or

- (b) that:
 - (i) the conduct in respect of which the proceedings were instituted was due to the act or default of another entity, to an accident or to some other cause beyond the entity's control; and
 - (ii) the entity took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.
- (2) The other entity referred to in paragraph (1)(b) does not include someone who was an employee or agent of the entity when the alleged conduct occurred.

Reliance on advice from the Commissioner

- (3) The Commissioner must not make an application under section 290-50 for conduct referred to in subsection 290-50(1) in relation to an entity's involvement in a *scheme if:
 - (a) the scheme is based on treating a *taxation law as applying in a particular way; and
 - (b) that way agrees with:
 - (i) advice given to the entity or the entity's agent by or on behalf of the Commissioner; or
 - (ii) a statement in a publication approved in writing by the Commissioner.

Time limitation

- (4) The Commissioner must not make an application under section 290-50 in relation to an entity's involvement in a *tax exploitation scheme more than 4 years after the entity last engaged in conduct that resulted in the entity or another entity being a *promoter of the tax exploitation scheme.
- (5) The Commissioner must not make an application under section 290-50 in relation to an entity's involvement in a *scheme that has been promoted on the basis of conformity with a *product ruling more than 4 years after the entity last engaged in conduct in relation to implementation of the scheme.
- (6) However, the limitation in subsection (4) or (5) does not apply to a *scheme involving tax evasion.

Exception where entity does not know result of conduct

- (7) The Federal Court of Australia must not order an entity to pay a civil penalty in relation to the entity's engaging in conduct:
- (a) that results in another entity being a *promoter of a *tax exploitation scheme; or
 - (b) that results in a *scheme that has been promoted on the basis of conformity with a *product ruling being implemented in a way that is materially different from that described in the product ruling;
- if the entity satisfies the Court that the entity did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to have known, that the entity's conduct would produce that result.

Employees

- (8) The Commissioner must not make an application under section 290-50 in relation to an individual's involvement in a *scheme as an employee if the Federal Court of Australia has ordered the individual's employer to pay a civil penalty under this Division in relation to the same scheme.

290-60 Meaning of promoter

- (1) An entity is a promoter of a *tax exploitation scheme if:
- (a) the entity markets the scheme or otherwise encourages the growth of the scheme or interest in it; and
 - (b) the entity or an *associate of the entity receives (directly or indirectly) consideration in respect of that marketing or encouragement; and
 - (c) having regard to all relevant matters, it is reasonable to conclude that the entity has had a substantial role in respect of that marketing or encouragement.
- (2) However, an entity is not a promoter of a *tax exploitation scheme merely because the entity provides advice about the *scheme.
- (3) An employee is not to be taken to have had a substantial role in respect of that marketing or encouragement merely because the employee distributes information or material prepared by another entity.

290-65 Meaning of tax exploitation scheme

- (1) A *scheme is a tax exploitation scheme if, at the time of the conduct mentioned in subsection 290-50(1):
- (a) one of these conditions is satisfied:
 - (i) if the scheme has been implemented—it is reasonable to conclude that an entity that (alone or with others) entered into or carried out the scheme did so with the sole or dominant purpose of that entity or another entity getting a *scheme benefit from the scheme;
 - (ii) if the scheme has not been implemented—it is reasonable to conclude that, if an entity (alone or with others) had entered into or carried out the scheme, it would have done so with the sole or dominant purpose of that entity or another entity getting a scheme benefit from the scheme; and
 - (b) one of these conditions is satisfied:
 - (i) if the scheme has been implemented—it is not *reasonably arguable that the scheme benefit is available at law;
 - (ii) if the scheme has not been implemented—it is not reasonably arguable that the scheme benefit would be available at law if the scheme were implemented.

Note: The condition in paragraph (b) would not be satisfied if the implementation of the scheme for all participants were in accordance with binding advice given by or on behalf of the Commissioner of Taxation (for example, if that implementation were in accordance with a public ruling under this Act, or all participants had private rulings under this Act and that implementation were in accordance with those rulings).

- (2) In deciding whether it is *reasonably arguable that a *scheme benefit would be available at law, take into account any thing that the Commissioner can do under a *taxation law.

Example: The Commissioner may cancel a tax benefit obtained by a taxpayer in connection with a scheme under section 177F of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.

 - (b) if it appears to the Court that, if an injunction is not granted, it is likely that the entity will engage in conduct of that kind—whether or not the entity has previously engaged in conduct of that kind and whether or not there is an imminent danger of substantial damage to anyone if the entity engages in conduct of that kind.

Performance injunctions

- (2) The power of the Federal Court of Australia under this Subdivision to grant an injunction requiring an entity to do something may be exercised:

danger of substantial damage to anyone if the entity refuses or fails to do that act or thing.

290-150 Other powers of the Federal Court unaffected

| 298-90 | Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings |

| 298-100 | Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings |
| 298-105 | Evidence given in proceedings for penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings |
| 298-110 | Civil double jeopardy |

298-80 Application of Subdivision

This Subdivision applies for the purposes of the provisions (the civil penalty provisions) set out in this table.

Application of Subdivision

| Item | Provision | Brief description |
|------|--------------|---|
| 1 | Division 290 | Civil penalties for the promotion and implementation of schemes |

298-85 Civil evidence and procedure rules for civil penalty orders

The Federal Court of Australia must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil matters when hearing proceedings for a civil penalty order under the civil penalty provisions.

298-90 Civil proceedings after criminal proceedings

The Court must not make a civil penalty order under the civil penalty provisions against an entity if the entity has been convicted of an offence constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct in relation to which the civil penalty order would be made.

298-95 Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

- (1) Proceedings for a civil penalty order under the civil penalty provisions against an entity are stayed if:

- (a) criminal proceedings are started or have already been started against the entity for an offence; and
 - (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct in relation to which the civil penalty order would be made.
- (2) The proceedings for the order may be resumed if the entity is not convicted of the offence. Otherwise, the proceedings for the order are dismissed.

298-100 Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be started against an entity for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct in relation to which a civil penalty order under the civil penalty provisions could be made regardless of whether a civil penalty order has been made against the entity.

298-105 Evidence given in proceedings for penalty not admissible in criminal proceedings

Evidence of information given or evidence of production of documents by an entity is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the entity if:

- (a) the entity previously gave the evidence or produced the documents in proceedings for a civil penalty order under the civil penalty provisions against the entity (whether or not the order was made); and
- (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct in relation to which the civil penalty order was sought.

However, this does not apply to a criminal proceeding in respect of the falsity of the evidence given by the entity in the proceedings for the civil penalty order.

298-110 Civil double jeopardy

If an entity is ordered to pay a civil penalty under the civil penalty provisions in respect of particular conduct, the entity is not liable to a civil penalty under some other provision of a *Commonwealth law in respect of that conduct.
