Note: This section sets out an alternative method of applying for and issuing delayed notification search warrants.

Application for delayed notification search warrant

- (2) The eligible officer may apply to an eligible issuing officer by telephone, fax or other electronic means for a delayed notification search warrant in respect of the premises:
 - (a) if it is an urgent case; or
 - (b) if the delay that would occur if the application were made in person would frustrate the effective execution of the delayed notification search warrant.
- (3) The eligible issuing officer:
 - (a) may require communication by voice to the extent that it is practicable in the circumstances; and
 - (b) may make a recording of the whole or any part of any such communication by voice.

Eligible issuing officer may complete and sign warrant

- (5) The eligible issuing officer may complete and sign the same delayed notification search warrant that would have been issued under section 3ZZBD if, after:
 - (a) considering the information and having received and considered such further information (if any) as the eligible issuing officer required; and
 - (b) having regard to the matters specified in subsection 3ZZBD(2);the eligible issuing officer is satisfied:
 - (c) that the conditions for issue are met; and
 - (d) that:
 - (i) a delayed notification search warrant in the terms of the application should be issued urgently; or

- (ii) the delay that would occur if an application were made in person would frustrate the effective execution of the delayed notification search warrant.
- (6) After completing and signing the delayed notification search warrant, the eligible issuing officer must inform the applicant, by telephone, fax or other electronic means, of:
 - (a) the terms of the warrant; and
 - (b) the day on which, and the time at which, the warrant was signed.

Obligations on applicant

- (7) The applicant must then do the following:
 - (a) complete a form of delayed notification search warrant in the same terms as the warrant completed and signed by the eligible issuing officer;
 - (b) state on the form the following:
 - (i) the name of the eligible issuing officer;
 - (ii) the day and time of signing of the warrant;

3ZZBG Authority of delayed notification search warrant by telephone, fax etc.

- (1) A form of delayed notification search warrant duly completed under subsection 3ZZBF(7) is authority for the same powers as are authorised by the warrant signed by the eligible issuing officer under subsection 3ZZBF(5).
- (2) In any proceedings, a court is to assume (unless the contrary is proved) that an exercise of power was not authorised by a delayed notification search warrant under section 3ZZBF if:
 - (a) it is material, in those proceedings, for the court to be satisfied that the exercise of power was duly authorised by the warrant; and
 - (b) the delayed notification search warrant signed by the eligible issuing officer authorising the exercise of the power is not produced in evidence.

Subdivision C—Offences relating to applying for warrants etc.

3ZZBH Offence for making false statement in application for delayed notification search warrant

When this section applies

- (1) This section applies if an eligible officer of an eligible agency, under an authorisation under section 3ZZBB from the chief officer of the agency, makes an application (the delayed notification search warrant application) to an eligible issuing officer for a delayed notification search warrant:

- (4) If the eligible issuing officer is not a person who is authorised to issue warrants under the applicable normal search warrant regime, the eligible issuing officer may consider and deal with an application made as mentioned in subsection (3) as if the eligible issuing officer were such a person.

Eligible issuing officer may instead treat application as if it were made under applicable normal search warrant regime

- (5) If the eligible issuing officer is not satisfied that a delayed notification search warrant in respect of the premises should be issued, the eligible issuing officer may:
- (a) treat the delayed notification search warrant application as if it were an application for a warrant under the applicable normal search warrant regime (even if such an application has not been made); and
 - (b) consider and deal with the application under that regime:
 - (i) as if the application had been validly made under that regime; and
 - (ii) if the eligible issuing officer is not a person who is authorised to issue warrants under the applicable normal search warrant regime—as if the eligible issuing officer were such a person.

Division 3—Exercise of powers under delayed notification search warrants

3ZZCA What is authorised by a delayed notification search warrant

- (1) A delayed notification search warrant authorises the executing officer or a person assisting to do any of the following:

- (h) to search for and record fingerprints found at the premises and to take samples of things found at the premises for forensic purposes;
- (i) if specified in the warrant—to place a thing in substitution for a thing seized or moved under subsection 3ZZCE(2);

- (m) to exercise the other powers conferred on the executing officer, or a person assisting, by the other provisions of this Division.

Note: Paragraph (c) does not authorise the acquisition or use of an assumed identity (see Part IAC). The protection provided by Part IAC only applies if the requirements of that Part have been complied with.

- (2) The entry of premises under a paragraph of subsection (1) may be effected without the knowledge of the occupier of the premises or any other person present at the premises.
- (3) If the period referred to in paragraph (1)(l) ends after the delayed notification search warrant expires, the powers referred to in that paragraph may be exercised during that period as if the warrant were still in force.

- he or she may apply to an eligible issuing officer for an extension of that period.

- (2) If an application mentioned in subsection (1) has been made, an eligible issuing officer may extend the period during which the executing officer and persons assisting may be away from the premises if:

- (3) If:
- (a) under subsection (2), the executing officer or person assisting copies data to a disk, tape or device; and

- (a) it is not practicable to copy the data as mentioned in subsection (2) or to put the thing that may be seized in documentary form as mentioned in paragraph (4)(b); or
 - (b) possession of the equipment, by the occupier of the warrant premises, could constitute an offence.

3ZZCG Use of moved electronic equipment at other place

- (1) If electronic equipment is moved to another place under subsection 3ZZCE(2), the executing officer or a person assisting may operate the equipment to access data (including data held at another place).
- (2) If the executing officer or person assisting suspects on reasonable grounds that any data accessed by operating the electronic equipment constitutes a thing that may be seized under the warrant, he or she may copy any or all of the data accessed by operating the electronic equipment to a disk, tape or other associated device.
- (3) If the chief officer of the authorised agency is satisfied that the data is not required, is no longer required, or is not likely to be required, for a purpose mentioned in section 3ZZEA, the chief officer must arrange for:
- (a) the removal of the data from any device in the control of the authorised agency; and

- (3) The data referred to in subsection (2) includes, but is not limited to, the following:
 - (a) data held on the electronic equipment, including data held on the electronic equipment when operated under this section that was not held on the electronic equipment at the time the electronic equipment was seized;

- (4) The electronic equipment may be operated before or after the expiry of the relevant delayed notification search warrant.
- (5) This section does not limit the operation of other provisions of this Part that relate to dealing with items seized under this Part or moved under section 3ZZCE.

Note: For example, this section does not affect the operation of the time limits in section 3ZZCE on examination or processing of a thing moved under that section.

- (1) The following are admissible in a terrorism-related proceeding, subject to subsection (2) but despite any other Australian law about evidence:
 - (a) foreign material adduced under subsection 27A(1) in the proceeding;
 - (b) foreign government material adduced under subsection 27B(1) in the proceeding;

- (c) the statement to which the foreign government material was annexed as described in paragraph 27B(1)(a);
- (d) the certificate that accompanied the foreign government material as described in paragraph 27B(1)(b).

Exception to admissibility

- (2) Foreign material or foreign government material is not admissible if the court is satisfied that the material, or information contained in the material, was obtained directly as a result of torture or duress.
- (3) In subsection (2):

duress means a threat that:

- (a) is made explicitly or implicitly to a person; and
- (b) is a threat to imminently cause one or both of the following unless material or information is provided:
 - (i) death or serious injury of the person, a member of the person's family or a third party;
 - (ii) damage to, or loss by the person of, the person's significant assets; and
- (c) is a threat to which a reasonable person would respond by providing the material or information.

torture means an act or omission by which severe pain or suffering, whether physical or mental, is intentionally inflicted on a person:

- (a) for the purpose of obtaining from the person or from a third person information or a confession; or
- (b) for the purpose of punishing the person for an act that the person or a third person has committed or is suspected of having committed; or
- (c) for the purpose of intimidating or coercing the person or a third person; or
- (d) for a purpose related to a purpose mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c); or
- (e) for any reason based on discrimination that is inconsistent with the Articles of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights done at New York on 16 December 1966;

but does not include an act or omission arising only from, inherent in or incidental to lawful sanctions that are not inconsistent with the Articles of the Covenant.

Note: The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights is in Australian Treaty Series 1980 No. 23 ([1980] ATS 23) and could in 2014 be viewed in the Australian Treaties Library on the AustLII website (<http://www.austlii.edu.au>).

- (4) If foreign government material is not admissible, neither of the following is admissible, so far as it relates to the inadmissible foreign government material:
- (a) the statement described in paragraph (1)(c);
 - (b) the certificate described in paragraph (1)(d).

27DA Warning and informing jury

 - (b) inform the jury of matters that may cause it to be unreliable; and
 - (c) warn the jury of the need for caution in determining whether to accept the material and the weight to be given to it.
- (2) The judge need not comply with subsection (1) if there are good reasons for not doing so.
- (3) It is not necessary that a particular form of words be used in giving the warning or information.
- (4) This section does not affect any other power of the judge to give a warning to, or to inform, the jury.

- (1) The amendments of the Foreign Evidence Act 1994 made by this Schedule apply in relation to adducing evidence in proceedings instituted on or after the commencement of the amendments, whether the evidence was obtained before, on or after that commencement.
- (2) However, the repeal of paragraph (j) of the definition of designated offence in subsection 3(1) of the Foreign Evidence Act 1994 by this Schedule does not prevent an offence against the Crimes (Foreign Incursions and Recruitment) Act 1978 from being a designated offence for the purposes of proceedings instituted on or after that repeal.

The Minister must cancel a visa held by a person if:

- (a) there is an assessment made by ASIO for the purposes of this section; and

- (c) the assessment contains a recommendation that all visas held by the person be cancelled under this section; and
- (d) the person is outside Australia.

First ground to revoke cancellation

- (2) The Minister must revoke the cancellation of the visa as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the period referred to in subsection (5).
- (3) However, the Minister must not revoke the cancellation under subsection (2) if:
 - (a) there is an assessment made by ASIO for the purposes of this section before the end of the period referred to in subsection (5); and
 - (b) the assessment contains advice that the former holder of the visa is, directly or indirectly, a risk to security (within the meaning of section 4 of the ASIO Act); and
 - (c) the assessment contains a recommendation that the cancellation not be revoked under subsection (2).

Second ground to revoke cancellation

- (4) If:
 - (a) there is an assessment made by ASIO for the purposes of this section before the end of the period referred to in subsection (5); and
 - (b) the assessment contains a recommendation that the cancellation of the visa be revoked under this subsection;

then the Minister must revoke the cancellation as soon as reasonably practicable after the assessment is made.

Period

- (5) For the purposes of subsections (2), (3) and (4), the period is the period that:
- (a) starts at the beginning of the day (the cancellation day) the visa is cancelled; and
 - (b) ends at the end of the 28th day after the cancellation day.

- then the Minister must give the former holder of the visa notice of the cancellation.

- (a) if the assessment made by ASIO for the purposes of section 134C contains an advice that it is essential to the security of the nation that a notice is not given to the person under this section—as soon as reasonably practicable after ASIO advises the Minister, in writing, that it is no longer essential to the security of the nation for the notice not to be given; and

- (b) otherwise—as soon as reasonably practicable after the Minister decides under subsection 134C(3) not to revoke the cancellation.
- (3) The notice must:
 - (a) state that the visa was cancelled under section 134B; and
 - (b) be given to the person in the prescribed way.
- (4) Failure to give the notice does not affect the validity of either:

 - (b) the decision under subsection 134C(3) not to revoke the cancellation.

134F Effect of cancellation on other visas

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a visa held by a person (the relevant person) is cancelled under section 134B; and
 - (b) the Minister decides under subsection 134C(3) not to revoke the cancellation; and
 - (c) the Minister has given a notice to the relevant person under section 134E about the cancellation.

245LA Obligation to report on persons departing from Australia

Aircraft and ships to which section applies

- (1) This section applies to an aircraft or ship of a kind to which this Division applies that is due to depart from a place in Australia on a flight or voyage to a place outside Australia (whether or not after calling at other places in Australia).

Obligation to report on passengers and crew

- (2) The operator of the aircraft or ship must, in accordance with this section:
- (a) report to the Department, using the approved primary reporting system for passengers, on each passenger who is on, or is expected to be on, the flight or voyage (including any part of the flight or voyage); and
 - (b) report to the Department, using the approved primary reporting system for crew, on each member of the crew who is on, or is expected to be on, the flight or voyage (including any part of the flight or voyage).

Note 1: This obligation must be complied with even if the information concerned is personal information.

Note 2: Section 245N contains an offence for failure to comply with this subsection.

- (3) However, if:

- (a) on the flight or voyage, the aircraft or ship calls at one or more places in Australia before departing to the place outside Australia; and
 - (b) the regulations prescribe that a report under subsection (2) must only relate to the part of the flight or voyage that is from the last place in Australia to the place outside Australia;
- then the report must be on each passenger or crew member who is on, or is expected to be on, that part of the flight or voyage.

Information to be reported

- (4) A report on a passenger or crew member under subsection (2) must include the information relating to the passenger or crew member that is specified, as mentioned in subsection 245J(3), in relation to the relevant approved primary reporting system.

Deadline for providing a report

- (5) A report on a passenger or crew member under subsection (2) must be provided:
 - (a) if the regulations prescribe a period or periods before the aircraft's or ship's departure from a place for the giving of a report under subsection (2) in relation to the passenger or crew member—not later than the start of that period or each of those periods; and
 - (b) if the regulations prescribe an event or events for the giving of a report under subsection (2) in relation to the passenger or crew member—at the time of that event or each of those events; and
 - (c) if the regulations prescribe a time or times for the giving of a report under subsection (2) in relation to the passenger or crew member—at that time or each of those times.
- (6) To avoid doubt, more than one report may be required to be provided under subsection (2) in relation to a passenger or crew member.

Note: For example, if regulations made for the purposes of subsection (5) prescribe a period of 48 hours before the aircraft's or ship's departure from a place on the flight or voyage and also prescribe an event of the passenger or crew member checking-in for the flight or voyage, then 2 reports would be required to be provided under this section in relation to the passenger or crew member.
