the RSE licensee has been, is or is likely to be unable to satisfy one or more of the trustee's obligations contained in a covenant set out in sections 52 to 53, or prescribed under section 54A.

  - (c) information given to the Regulator in relation to the application for approval was false or misleading in a material particular.
- (4) To avoid doubt, a direction under subsection (1) or (3) to a person to relinquish a controlling stake in an RSE licensee may be given even if the person has approval to hold a controlling stake in the RSE licensee.

- (5) The direction must be given in writing.
- (6) The Regulator must give the person:
  - (a) a copy of the direction; and
  - (b) a statement of the Regulator's reasons for giving the direction.

  - (b) the person (either alone or together with associates) is not in a position to exercise control over the RSE licensee; and

- (3) A person commits an offence if:
  - (a) the person is subject to a requirement under this section; and
  - (b) the person intentionally or recklessly contravenes the requirement.

Penalty: 400 penalty units.

Note:

Section 4K (Continuing and multiple offences) of the Crimes Act 1914 applies to an offence under subsection (3), so a person commits an offence, after the period for relinquishment expires, on each day on which the person does not relinquish control.

131EE Interim orders

Orders where the direction is stayed by the Administrative Appeals Tribunal

     Tribunal for a review of the decision to give the direction;
     and
  - (c) the Tribunal has made an order or orders staying or otherwise affecting the operation or implementation of the decision to give the direction, or a part of that decision.
- (2) The Federal Court may make such orders as the court considers appropriate to ensure that the person does not, during the period to which an order of the Tribunal relates, exercise control over the RSE licensee in a manner that results in the RSE licensee being unable to satisfy one or more of the trustee's obligations contained in a covenant set out in sections 52 to 53, or prescribed under section 54A.

Orders to deal with conduct during the compliance period

- (3) The Regulator may apply to the Federal Court of Australia (the Federal Court) for orders under subsection (4) if:
  - (a) a direction to relinquish control over an RSE licensee is in force in relation to a person; and
  - (b) the Regulator has reason to believe that the person may, during the period under subsection 131ED(2) during which the person is required to take steps under the direction (the compliance period), exercise control over the RSE licensee in a manner that results in the RSE licensee being unable to satisfy one or more of the trustee's obligations contained in a covenant set out in sections 52 to 53, or prescribed under section 54A.
- (4) The Federal Court may make such orders as the court considers appropriate to ensure that the person does not, during the compliance period, exercise control over the RSE licensee in a manner that results in the RSE being unable to satisfy one or more of the trustee's obligations contained in a covenant set out in sections 52 to 53, or prescribed under section 54A.

131EF Remedial orders

- (1) The Regulator may apply to the Federal Court of Australia (the Federal Court) for orders under this section if a direction to relinquish control over an RSE licensee is in force in relation to a person.
- (2) The Federal Court may make such orders as the court considers appropriate to ensure that:
  - (a) the directors of the RSE licensee are not accustomed or under an obligation, whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of the person (either alone or together with associates); and
  - (b) the person (either alone or together with associates) is not in a position to exercise control over the RSE licensee; and
