- (5) To avoid doubt, for the purposes of performing the function in subsection (1), the ACC may:
  - (a) make a criminal intelligence assessment at any time for purposes related to a background check that:
    - (i) is being undertaken; or
    - (ii) has previously been undertaken; and
  - (b) make more than one criminal intelligence assessment for purposes related to the same background check.

Certain criminal intelligence assessments that are not adverse

- (6) Despite subsections (1) and (2), the ACC must make a criminal intelligence assessment in respect of a person that is not an adverse criminal intelligence assessment if the person is not identified in a search of intelligence held by the ACC that is conducted in accordance with the instructions issued by the CEO under subsection (7).

Note: The CEO may arrange for the use of a computer program to make criminal intelligence assessments to which this subsection applies: see section 54G.

  - (a) a firearms background check of the person; or
  - (b) a background check of the person that is required or permitted by any of the following:
    - (i) the Aviation Transport Security Act 2004 or regulations under that Act;

- (ii) the Maritime Transport and Offshore Facilities Security Act 2003 or regulations under that Act;
- (iii) an Act prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of subparagraph 54A(2)(a)(iii) or (b)(iii), or a legislative instrument under that Act.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the ACC must give a criminal intelligence assessment, that is not an adverse criminal intelligence assessment, in respect of a person to a Commonwealth agency for purposes mentioned in subsection (1) if the criminal intelligence assessment is made in accordance with subsection 54C(6).

Note: The CEO may arrange for the use of a computer program to give certain kinds of criminal intelligence assessments to Commonwealth agencies: see section 54G.

Adverse criminal intelligence assessments

- (3) The CEO may cause an adverse criminal intelligence assessment in respect of a person to be given to a Commonwealth agency for purposes related to:
  - (a) a firearms background check of the person; or
  - (b) a background check of the person that is required or permitted by any of the following:
    - (i) the Aviation Transport Security Act 2004 or regulations under that Act;

- (5) An adverse criminal intelligence assessment given to a Commonwealth agency under subsection (3) must be accompanied by:

- (a) a statement of the grounds for the assessment (which is taken to be part of the assessment); and
- (b) if, under subsection (7), the CEO makes a certificate in relation to information contained in the assessment—a copy of the certificate.

(6) The statement of the grounds for the adverse criminal intelligence assessment must contain all information that the ACC relied on in making the assessment, other than:

- (a) subject to subsection (8), information in relation to which the CEO has made a certificate under subsection (7); and
- (b) information the disclosure of which would be contrary to a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory.

(7) The CEO may certify, in writing, that the CEO is satisfied that disclosing particular information contained in an adverse criminal intelligence assessment, including particular information contained in the statement of the grounds for the assessment, to the person in respect of whom the assessment was made would prejudice law enforcement or intelligence interests or security.

(8) If the CEO makes a certificate under subsection (7) in relation to information, the CEO may decide not to cause the information to be given to a Commonwealth agency under subsection (3) or (5). However, the Minister may, after consulting the CEO, direct the CEO to cause the information to be given to the Commonwealth agency.

(9) A certificate made under subsection (7) is not a legislative instrument.

(10) If the direction under subsection (8) is made in writing, the direction is not a legislative instrument.

54E Person to be notified of adverse criminal intelligence assessment

(1) If an adverse criminal intelligence assessment in respect of a person is given to a Commonwealth agency under subsection 54D(3), the Commonwealth agency must give written notice of the assessment to the person.

Timing and content of notice

(2) The written notice must:

- (d) contain information concerning the person's right to apply to the Tribunal for a review of the adverse criminal intelligence assessment.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the adverse criminal intelligence assessment is given to the Commonwealth agency in relation to any of the following decisions under a law of a State or Territory:

- (a) a decision about whether to issue a firearms licence or otherwise relating to the issue of such a licence (including in relation to conditions);
- (b) a decision about whether to renew, revoke, vary or suspend a licence a licence mentioned in paragraph (a).

(4) Despite subsection (3), subsection (1) does apply in the circumstances prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

Exception—Minister's certificate

- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply if a certificate made under subsection (6) is in force in relation to the adverse criminal intelligence assessment.
- (6) The Minister may certify, in writing, that the Minister is satisfied that the withholding of notice to a person of the making of an adverse criminal intelligence assessment in respect of the person is essential to either or both of the following:

  - (b) security.
- (7) If the Minister makes a certificate under subsection (6) in relation to an adverse criminal intelligence assessment, the Minister must:

    - (ii) each subsequent 12 month period.
- (8) A certificate made under subsection (6) is not a legislative instrument.

A Commonwealth agency must not take, refuse to take or refrain from taking prescribed administrative action on the basis of any communication in relation to a person made by the ACC not amounting to a criminal intelligence assessment.

Division 3—Automation of specified criminal intelligence assessment action

- (1) The CEO may, in writing, arrange for the use, under the CEO's oversight, of computer programs to take specified criminal intelligence assessment action that must be taken by the ACC under this Act.

Substituting specified criminal intelligence assessment action

- (4) The ACC may take specified criminal intelligence assessment action, or make a criminal intelligence assessment under subsection 54C(1), (the substituted action) in substitution for specified criminal intelligence assessment action the ACC is treated as having taken under subsection (3) of this section if the ACC is satisfied that the specified criminal intelligence assessment action taken by the operation of the computer program is not the correct or preferable action.
- (5) The substituted action takes effect on:
  - (a) if the ACC specifies the day on which the substituted action takes effect—that specified day; or

- (b) otherwise—the day of the specified criminal intelligence assessment action taken by the operation of the computer program.
- (6) The day specified under paragraph (5)(a) may be earlier than the day the substituted action is taken but not earlier than the day of the specified criminal intelligence assessment action taken by the operation of the computer program.

ACC may still take specified criminal intelligence assessment action

- (7) An arrangement under subsection (1) does not prevent the ACC from taking specified criminal intelligence assessment action.

Arrangement not a legislative instrument

- (8) An arrangement under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument.

54H Oversight and safeguards for automation of specified criminal intelligence assessment action

- (1) The CEO must take all reasonable steps to ensure that specified criminal intelligence assessment action taken by the operation of a computer program under an arrangement under subsection 54G(1) is specified criminal intelligence assessment action that the ACC could validly take under section 54C or 54D.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the CEO must do the things (if any) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

Note: Specified criminal intelligence assessment action may still be invalid even if subsections (1) and (2) are complied with.

- (3) A failure to comply with subsection (1) or (2) does not affect the validity of the specified criminal intelligence assessment action taken by the operation of a computer program under an arrangement under subsection 54G(1).

Division 4—Review of adverse criminal intelligence assessments

54J Applications to Tribunal

- (5) Despite subsection (4), subsection (1) does apply in the circumstances prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.

54K Restriction on further assessments after review

If the Tribunal has made findings upon a review of an adverse criminal intelligence assessment, the ACC must not make a further criminal intelligence assessment in respect of the person concerned that is not in accordance with those findings except on the basis of matters occurring after the review or of evidence that was not available at the time of the review.

54L Costs

- (1) The Tribunal may order that costs reasonably incurred by an applicant under section 54J in connection with the application, or any part of those costs that is determined by the Tribunal, be paid by the Commonwealth if:
  - (a) the applicant was, in the opinion of the Tribunal, successful, or substantially successful, in the application for review; and

Note 1: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to a matter in subsection (2) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

Note 2: Section 276 of the ART Act also deals with the disclosure of certain information and documents by members and officers of the Tribunal.
