

Multiple entry consolidated (MEC) groups

About this section

Section C10 provides information on the formation, composition, operating processes and cessation of MEC groups. It comprises:

- explanations of MEC groups and how they differ from consolidated groups
- detailed worked examples describing a range of events, rules and processes that may apply during a MEC group's formation, operations and cessation, and
- sample forms used to notify the Tax Office of various events.

Section contents

Overall explanations

Multiple entry consolidated (MEC) groups	C10-1
MEC groups – notifiable events	C10-1-110

Worked examples

Formation and conversion
Choice on formation and special conversion events	C10-2-110
Original and new eligible tier-1 companies of a MEC group	C10-2-115
Eligibility for resident entities where there is an interposed foreign resident entity	C10-2-120
Provisional head company	C10-2-130
Conversion of a MEC group to a consolidated group	C10-2-140
Cost setting at joining and formation
Cost setting rules for assets of a MEC group – at joining and formation times	C10-2-210
Tax cost setting of assets – expansion of a MEC group to include new eligible tier-1 companies	C10-2-215
Losses
Adjusting available fraction – eligible tier-1 company joins MEC group ...	C10-2-310
Apportioning the use of losses – eligible tier-1 company joins part-way through income year	C10-2-320
MEC groups and losses – determining whether the focal company satisfies the continuity of ownership test	C10-2-325
Identifying the test company to determine continuity of ownership of the focal company in a MEC group (COT transfer of losses)	C10-2-330
Identifying the test company to determine continuity of ownership of the focal company in a MEC group (SBT satisfied)	C10-2-340
Determining the start of a test company's loss year to assess the continuity of ownership of the focal company in a MEC group (COT transfer of a loss)	C10-2-350
Determining the start of a test company's loss year to assess continuity of ownership of the focal company in a MEC group (special conversion event)	C10-2-360

Freezing the ownership of the test company – COT transfer of a loss to the head company of a MEC group	C10-2-370
Freezing the ownership structure of a MEC group – when a loss-making company becomes head company of the group	C10-2-380
Continuity of a potential MEC group when the identity of the top company changes – assumptions about the test company failing the COT	C10-2-390
Assumptions about the test company failing the COT – potential MEC group ceases to exist	C10-2-391
Assumptions about the test company failing the COT – MEC group ceases to exist because there ceases to be a provisional head company	C10-2-392
Cost setting at leaving
Events that trigger pooling in a MEC group	C10-2-410
Pooling of external membership interests.....	C10-2-420
An eligible tier-1 company leaving a MEC group	C10-2-430
Sample forms
Notification of formation of a MEC group.....	C10-3-110
Notification of members joining and/or leaving a MEC group	C10-3-120
Notification of conversion to a MEC group	C10-3-130
Notification of continuation of a MEC group with a new provisional head company	C10-3-140
Notification of provisional head company no longer eligible (MEC) group ..	C10-3-150