CGT Determination Number 59

Capital Gains: Where a dwelling is erected on pre-CGT land, is an election required under subsection 160ZZQ(5) to get the principal residence exemption for the time during which construction takes place?

Determination

1. Yes. Although the land is a pre-CGT asset, the building erected on the land is treated as a separate asset which is acquired post-CGT (subsection 160P(2)). The building is taken to be acquired at the time when the construction contract was made (subsection 160U(3)) or when construction commenced (subsection 160U(5)).
2. The principal residence exemption will not cover all or part of the period before the dwelling is completed, unless the election that subsection 160ZZQ(5) apply, is made.
