Preamble

The number, subject heading, and the What this Class Ruling is about (including Tax law(s), Class of persons and Qualifications sections), Date of effect, Arrangement and Ruling parts of this document are a 'public ruling' in terms of Part IVAAA of the Taxation Administration Act 1953. CR 2001/1 explains Class Rulings and Taxation Rulings TR 92/1 and TR 97/16 together explain when a Ruling is a public ruling and how it is binding on the Commissioner.

What this Class Ruling is about

1. This Ruling sets out the Commissioner's opinion on the way in which the 'tax laws' identified below apply to the defined class of persons, who take part in the arrangement to which this Ruling relates.

Tax law(s)

2. The tax laws dealt with in this Ruling are sections 6-5, 6-10 and 8-1 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 ('ITAA 1997') and paragraphs 26(e) and 26(eaa) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 ('ITAA 1936').

Class of persons

3. The class of persons to whom this Ruling applies are Australian Rules football umpires who are members of the Circular Head Football Umpires Association (CHFUA) and receive payments for umpiring matches administered by the Circular Head Football Association (CHFA), in the Circular Head region of the State of Tasmania.

Qualifications

4. The Commissioner makes this Ruling based on the precise arrangement identified in this Ruling.

5. The class of persons defined in this Ruling may rely on its contents provided the arrangement described below at paragraphs 9 to 17 is carried out in accordance with the details of the arrangement provided in this Ruling.

6. If the arrangement described in this Ruling is materially different from the arrangement that is actually carried out:

- a) this Ruling has no binding effect on the Commissioner because the arrangement entered into is not the arrangement on which the Commissioner has ruled; and
- b) this Ruling may be withdrawn or modified.

Date of effect

8. This Ruling applies from 1 January 2003. However, the Ruling does not apply to taxpayers to the extent that it conflicts with the terms of settlement of a dispute agreed to before the date of issue of the Ruling (see paragraphs 21 to 22 of Taxation Ruling TR 92/20). Furthermore, the Ruling only applies to the extent that:

- it is not later withdrawn by notice in the Gazette;
- it is not taken to be withdrawn by an inconsistent later public ruling; or
- the relevant tax laws are not amended.

Arrangement

9. The arrangement that is the subject of the Ruling is described below.

10. The CHFA administers Australian Rules football matches in the Circular Head region of the State of Tasmania. The CHFA has 5 clubs in its competition with each club fielding 3 teams. The CHFA pays CHFUA members a match fee for each match they umpire. Additionally some umpires are paid a travel allowance (refer paragraph 12). Members are paid monthly by cheque by the Secretary of the CHFA.

11. Current match fees are such that most umpires receive between $1,000 and $1,200 in a season and no umpire would receive more than $1,500 in a season. The maximum a central umpire currently receives is $49.50 for officiating in a senior match. All fees paid to other umpires, including Boundary umpires and Goal umpires in lower competitions, are less than that amount. An umpire officiating in a Finals match would receive a slightly higher amount than for a normal fixture.

12. In addition to the match fee, an umpire who provides transport on match day is paid a 'travel allowance' of $14. Typically, each weekend 6 umpires would receive this allowance as they would have provided transport for all of the umpires needed for the 6 matches.

13. Members do not receive any allowances and benefits other than their match fee and the 'travel allowance' (refer paragraphs 11 and 12).

14. The completion of a CHFUA registration form is the only condition precedent of individual membership of the CHFUA from year to year. The registration form records the member's name, address, and contact phone number.

15. Umpiring appointments are made solely on the basis of merit, such that the best available umpires are appointed to the most senior games.

16. Members are required to incur expenditure upon their own shoes (white running shoes or football boots), training gear, track suits, whistles, wrist bands, trousers (for goal umpires) and other equipment (liniment, bandages etc.). Game shirts are provided by CHFUA.

17. The match fees are not intended to, nor do they usually, cover expenses. The purpose of the payment is to encourage members of the community to participate in local sporting activities by subsidising that participation.

Ruling

18. The match fees and the travel allowance received by members of the Circular Head Football Umpires Association who umpire matches administered by the Circular Head Football Association in the Circular Head region of the State of Tasmania are not assessable income.

19. Losses and outgoings incurred deriving the match fees and travel allowance cannot be claimed as a deduction.

Explanation

20. A payment or other benefit received by a taxpayer is assessable income if it is:

- income in the ordinary sense of the word (ordinary income); or
- an amount or benefit that through the operation of the provisions of the tax law is included in assessable income (statutory income).

Ordinary Income

21. Under subsection 6-5(1) of the ITAA 1997 an amount is assessable income if it is income according to ordinary concepts (ordinary income).

22. In determining whether an amount is ordinary income, the courts have established the following principles:

- what receipts ought to be treated as income must be determined in accordance with the ordinary concepts and usages of mankind, except in so far as a statute dictates otherwise;
- whether the payment received is income depends upon a close examination of all relevant circumstances; and
- whether the payment received is income is an objective test.

23. Relevant factors in determining whether an amount is ordinary income include:

- whether the payment is the product of any employment, services rendered, or any business;

- the quality or character of the payment in the hands of the recipient;
- the form of the receipt, that is, whether it is received as a lump sum or periodically; and
- the motive of the person making the payment. Motive, however is rarely decisive as in many cases a mixture of motives may exist.

24. Furthermore, where a taxpayer's activities constitute a pastime or hobby rather than an income-producing activity, money and other benefits received from the pursuit of that pastime or hobby are not assessable income, nor are the expenses allowable deductions.

25. Participation in activities generating pastime or hobby receipts is a social or personal pursuit of a non-commercial nature. Pastime receipts are not intended to, nor do they usually, cover expenses. Even regular receipts obtained from a pastime or hobby are still characterised as receipts from a pastime or hobby and accordingly are not assessable income. A receipt that is an incident of a pastime or hobby would also not be assessable, even if it arises from the provision of a service. However, the nature of such a receipt or receipts is relevant in determining whether the pastime has become a business. The receipt or receipts could indicate, for example: a commercial activity; an intention to make a profit from the activity; or an increase in either the size and scale of the activity or the degree of repetition or regularity of the activity.

Match fees

26. The sporting activities of CHFUA members are considered to constitute a pastime or hobby and therefore, the match fees received from the pursuit of that pastime or hobby are not assessable income.

27. The match fees are not intended to, nor do they usually, cover expenses. The purpose of the payment is to encourage members of the community to participate in local sporting activities by subsidising that participation.

28. In forming the opinion that the CHFUA members who comprise the class of persons to whom this Ruling applies are engaged in a pastime or hobby, we have taken into account the number of games that they officiate, the seniority of the football league, the links with the community of that league, particularly the social benefits of participation and the quantum of the fees that they can receive.

Travel allowance

29. In addition, the ‘travel allowance’ does not constitute ‘ordinary income’ as it is considered a partial reimbursement of a member’s expenditure on a private or personal pursuit.

Provisions relating to statutory income

30. Section 6-10 of the ITAA 1997 includes in assessable income amounts that are not ordinary income; these amounts are statutory income.

31. The relevant two provisions of the ITAA 1936 are:

- paragraph 26(e), which provides that the assessable income shall include ‘ . . . the value to the taxpayer of all allowances, gratuities, compensations, benefits, bonuses and premiums allowed, given or granted to him in respect of, or for or in relation directly or indirectly to, any employment of or services rendered . . . . ‘ ; and
- paragraph 26(eaa), which provides that the assessable income shall include ‘ . . . a benefit that, but for section 22 of the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986, would be an expense payment fringe benefit within the meaning of that Act – the amount of the reimbursement referred to in that section . . . ‘ .

Match fees

32. The main issue to consider with respect to paragraph 26(e) is whether the payment is ‘given or granted to him in respect of any employment of or services rendered . . . ‘ . Whilst the CHFUA members are not considered ‘employees’, paragraph 26(e) also includes in assessable income those allowances etc, which are paid in respect of ‘services rendered’.

33. The match fees of CHFUA members are considered to be ‘receipts incidental to a pastime’ (refer paragraphs 24 to 28). As such, the match fees are not assessable under paragraph 26(e) because the umpires are not considered to be employees, nor are they ‘rendering services’.

Travel allowance

34. Both paragraphs 26(e) and 26(eaa) include certain allowances, benefits and reimbursements in assessable income, where those allowances or reimbursements are given or granted in relation, directly or indirectly to any employment or services rendered.

35. Paragraph 26(eaa) specifically includes car expense reimbursements that would be expense payment fringe benefits under the Fringe Benefits Tax Assessment Act 1986 ('FBTAA 1986') but for the exemption contained in section 22 of that Act. The 'allowance' received by CHFUA members does not constitute an 'expense payment benefit' under section 20 of the FBTAA 1986 as there is no employer/employee relationship, the prerequisite that characterises a fringe benefit.

36. The main issue to consider with respect to paragraph 26(e) is whether the payment is 'given or granted to him in respect of any employment of or services rendered . . .'. Whilst the CHFUA members are not considered 'employees', paragraph 26(e) also includes in assessable income those allowances etc, which are paid in respect of 'services rendered'.

37. Given the match fees of CHFUA members are considered to be 'receipts incidental to a pastime' (refer paragraph 33), the related 'travel allowance' is not assessable under paragraph 26(e) because the umpires are not considered to be employees, nor are they 'rendering services'.

General Deductions

38. As the match fees and travel allowance received by the umpires are not assessable income, all losses and outgoings that are incurred in respect of deriving those amounts are not allowed as a deduction under section 8-1 or any other provision of the ITAA 1997.

Umpires who officiate in other leagues

39. Where umpires who are members of the CHFUA also officiate in leagues other than those administered by the CHFA, those umpires' activities may have ceased to be that of a hobby or pastime. A more detailed analysis of the circumstances of those umpires may be required. Umpires in this situation should discuss their circumstances with their taxation adviser or the Australian Taxation Office.

Pay As You Go (PAYG) withholding

40. As ruled above, match payments paid to an umpire who is engaged in a hobby or pastime are not assessable income. The payments are not a payment for work and services and therefore the PAYG withholding provisions of Subdivision 12-B of Schedule 1 of the Taxation Administrative Act 1953 do not apply. Tax should not be withheld from the match payment of umpires who are in the class of persons to whom this Ruling applies.
