Addendum

Class Ruling

Income tax: Bond University – Student PhD Research Scholarships

This Addendum amends Class Ruling CR 2003/84 to address an addition to the arrangement concerning part-time employment that may be offered to the scholarship holders.

CR 2003/84 is amended as follows:

Omit paragraph 12, and substitute:

12. Selection for the scholarships will involve an assessment of written applications against selection criteria and will be primarily based on academic merit. It is not a requirement or condition of the scholarship that the student engage (or engage if required) in employment or enter a contract of service with the University either during or after the course. Some scholarship holders may be offered limited or part-time employment with the University as teaching or research assistants to supplement their incomes however scholarship holders are not required to accept the employment.

Omit paragraph 32, and substitute:

32. The scholarship holders will not be required to be, or become, employees of the University and will have no right or expectation of future employment with the University or any other party. Some scholarship holders may take up part-time employment with the University as teaching or research assistants but the employment is not a condition of the receipt of the scholarship.

Subject to paragraph 8 of CR 2003/84, this Addendum applies from 1 July 2003.
