Draft Taxation Determination

Income tax: is a cash collateralisation arrangement acceptable for parties entering into a Land Transport Facilities borrowings agreement?

1. No, when coupled with above-market interest rates and captive loan arrangements with investors.
2. The Land Transport Facilities borrowings tax offset is available on the borrowings quantified and on the conditions specified in the agreement. Those borrowings must be spent on construction of the approved land transport facilities. 'Cash collateralisation' requires the borrower to raise a matching amount of funds to be provided as a cash deposit security to the lender.
3. 'Cash collateralisation' is one example of so-called dual funding structures. Others include 'economic defeasance' and 'forward purchase arrangements'.
4. This type of structure facilitates:
 - circular flows of funds;
 - captive loan arrangements coupled to above-market interest rates; and
 - significant cost to revenue.
5. The presence of any such arrangement is indicative of a scheme that would require an examination of the dominant purpose of the parties involved and may attract the application of Part IVA of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936.
6. Pursuant to subsection 396-75(2) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, the Commissioner is obliged to advise the Minister for Transport and Regional Services in relation to the application of the Income Tax Assessment Acts.
7. Depending on the facts of a particular case, the Commissioner may include advice on the possible application of Part IVA where dual funding structures are proposed.
