Answer

Goods and services tax ruling GSTR 2000/17, which deals with tax invoices, comments as follows on the issue of the name and ABN that should appear on a tax invoice issued by a trustee:

Tax invoices issued by the trustee of a trust

60. A tax invoice for a supply made by a trustee of a trust must show the trustee of the trust's ABN. A tax invoice must also show the name of the supplier. Additionally, tax invoices with a total amount payable of $1000 or more must show the name of the recipient. The requirement to show the name of the trustee is satisfied if the tax invoice shows:

- the legal name for the trustee - for example, The Trustee for the Jones' Family Trust or Aqua Pty Ltd as Trustee for the Jones' Family Trust;
- the name of the trustee - for example, Aqua Pty Ltd.
- the trading name of the enterprise carried on by the trustee - for example, Aqua Hydroponic Supplies.

61. Although the last two options do not identify the underlying trust relationship, the Australian Business Register will reveal that the entity is a trust.

This means that if you have underpaid an amount of GST, you are not liable for the shortfall prior to the date of issue of this later ruling. Similarly, you are not liable to repay an amount overpaid by the Commissioner as a refund.
