Ruling

9. Subject to paragraph 3 of this Ruling and the assumptions in paragraph 10 of this Ruling:

- The Prepayment Amount paid by a Customer to Yolla under the Program is deductible under section 8-1 of the ITAA 1997 in the income year it is paid.¹
- Section 82KZM will not apply to deny a Customer an immediate deduction of the Prepayment Amount incurred under the Program and allowable as a deduction under section 8-1 of the ITAA 1997.
- The anti-avoidance provisions in Part IVA will not apply to deny the deductibility of the Prepayment Amount incurred under the Program by a Customer.

Assumptions

10. This Ruling is made on the basis of the following necessary assumptions:

- The Customer is an Australian resident for tax purposes.
- The Customer is a small business entity as defined in section 328-110 of the ITAA 1997 or an entity covered by subsection 82KZM(1A).
- The Customer is carrying on a primary production business with a purpose of producing assessable income in excess of its deductible expenditure, and

¹ The extent to which the Prepayment Amount is deductible under section 8-1 of the ITAA 1997 is subject to section 27-5 of the ITAA 1997 which denies a deduction for a loss or outgoing to the extent that it includes an amount relating to a GST credit to which a Customer is entitled.

Status: legally binding

- all Rural Products purchased from Yolla under the Program are used in carrying on that business.
- (d) The Customer has not chosen to apply section 82KZMD to the expenditure incurred under the Program.
 - (e) The Prepayment Amount is not 'excluded expenditure' as defined in subsection 82KZL(1).
 - (f) The Customer is not in breach of the Program Terms or any other agreement entered into with Yolla, nor is it insolvent within the definition of section 95A of the Corporations Act 2001.
 - (g) The Rural Products purchased by the Customer from Yolla will not constitute trading stock and are not of a capital, private or domestic nature.
 - (h) The scheme will be executed in the manner described in the Program Application Form and in the Scheme section of this Ruling.
 - (i) All dealings between the Customer and Yolla will be at arm's length.

Scheme

11. The scheme is identified and described in the following:

- application for a product ruling as constituted by documents and information received on 17 December 2024 and 7 February 2025, and
- the Yolla Co-Op Prepayment Program Application Form and Terms, received on 17 December 2024.

Note: certain information has been provided on a commercial-in-confidence basis and will not be disclosed or released under freedom of information legislation.

12. For the purposes of describing the scheme, there are no other agreements (whether formal or informal, and whether or not legally enforceable) which a Customer, or any associate of a Customer, will be a party to which are a part of the scheme.

Overview of scheme

13. The Program constitutes an agreement between a customer of Yolla and Yolla. The Program is, among other things, designed to assist customer cash flow management by enabling them to pay for Rural Products during major agricultural sale periods.

14. Pursuant to the Program Terms:

- (a) The Customer makes a payment to Yolla referred to as the Prepayment Amount. The Prepayment Amount
 - (i) will be a minimum of $10,000 and a maximum of $5 million, inclusive of goods and services tax
 - (ii) must be used by the Customer to purchase Rural Products from Yolla during the Program Period, commencing on the Date of Prepayment and ending on the date that is 12 months after the Date of Prepayment
 - (iii) is not refundable to the Customer in whole or in part, and

Status: legally binding

- (iv) will be forfeited in full by the Customer if unused by the end of the Program Period.
- (b) The Rural Products purchased by the Customer from Yolla will be as agreed between Yolla and the Customer under the Program, including but not limited to, fertiliser, grain, animal feed, farming equipment and fuel.
- (c) The Customer receives a Reward based on the balance of the Prepayment Amount (that is, the unspent Prepayment Amount at the time). The Reward
 - (i) is calculated by application of a rate set by Yolla on the unused balance of the Prepayment Amount²
 - (ii) is credited to the month-end unused Prepayment Amount balance monthly in arrears during the Program Period
 - (iii) must only be used by the Customer to purchase Rural Products (as described in subparagraph 14(b) of this Ruling) from Yolla during the Program Period
 - (iv) will not be refundable to the Customer in whole or in part, and
 - (v) will be forfeited in full by the Customer if unused by the end of the Program Period.
- (d) Yolla may use any Prepayment Amount paid by the Customer and any Reward added by Yolla as part of the Program to set off any other amounts that are due and payable by the Customer to Yolla under any other arrangement that the Customer has with Yolla if the Customer is:
 - (i) in breach of the Program Terms or any other agreement it has with Yolla, or
 - (ii) insolvent within the definition of section 95A of the Corporations Act 2001.

15. The Rural Products purchased by the Customer from Yolla under the Program will also be subject to Yolla's standard terms and conditions of sale.

Appendix – Explanation

❶ This Explanation is provided as information to help you understand how the Commissioner's view has been reached. It does not form part of the binding public ruling.

Table of Contents	Paragraph
Section 8-1 of the ITAA 1997 – deductibility of the Prepayment Amount	16
Section 82KZM – prepaid expenditure incurred by certain small and medium business entities and individuals incurring non-business expenditure	20

Section 8-1 of the ITAA 1997 – deductibility of the Prepayment Amount

16. A loss or outgoing is deductible under section 8-1 of the ITAA 1997 if it is necessarily incurred in carrying on a business for the purpose of gaining or producing a taxpayer's assessable income. The expenditure must be part of the cost of trading operations and must not be of a capital, private or domestic nature.

17. An outgoing incurred by a business will be 'necessarily incurred' where, in the circumstances, it is reasonably capable of being seen as desirable or appropriate from the point of view of the pursuit of the business ends of the business being carried on for the purpose of earning assessable income (see Magna Alloys & Research Pty Ltd v Commissioner of Taxation of the Commonwealth of Australia [1980] FCA 180).

18. Upon entry into the Program, the Prepayment Amount is both immediately due and non-refundable such that the Customer becomes definitively committed to, and incurs, the Prepayment Amount. As the Prepayment Amount is incurred for the purchase of Rural Products to be used in the Customer's primary production business, it constitutes expenditure which is clearly appropriate from the point of view of the pursuit of the business ends of the Customer's business and is therefore necessarily incurred in the carrying on of that business.

19. The Prepayment Amount necessarily incurred by the Customer to purchase Rural Products in the course of carrying on its business is not of a capital, private or domestic nature. The deduction for the Prepayment Amount is allowable under section 8-1 of the ITAA 1997 in the income year the payment is made to Yolla (that is, at the time it is necessarily incurred).

Section 82KZM – prepaid expenditure incurred by certain small and medium business entities and individuals incurring non-business expenditure

20. Subject to paragraph 21 of this Ruling, section 82KZM operates to spread over more than one income year a deduction which, apart from that section, would be allowable under section 8-1 of the ITAA 1997 for the year of income in which the prepaid expenditure (other than excluded expenditure as defined in subsection 82KZL(1)) is incurred under an agreement by a taxpayer that is either:

- a small business entity, or an entity covered by subsection 82KZM(1A), for the year of income that has not chosen to apply section 82KZMD to the expenditure, or
- an individual that has not incurred the expenditure in carrying on a business.

21. Section 82KZM applies if the eligible service period for the expenditure is longer than 12 months, or the eligible service period for the expenditure is 12 months or shorter

Status: not legally binding

but ends after the last day of the year of income after the one in which the expenditure was incurred.

22. In relation to the Prepayment Amount incurred by the Customer under the Program, the eligible service period for the purpose of section 82KZM is the period to which the Prepayment Amount relates. That period is:

- from the Date of Prepayment, being the day on which the first of the things to be done under the Program in return for the Prepayment Amount (that is, the provision of Rural Products by Yolla) is required or permitted (as the case may be) to commence being done
- until the last day of the Program Period, being the date that is 12 months after the Date of Prepayment and the last day on which the things to be done under the Program in return for the Prepayment Amount is required or permitted (as the case may be) to cease being done.

23. The eligible service period in relation to the deductible Prepayment Amount under the Program is 12 months or less. As it is not more than 12 months and does not end after the last day of the year of income after the one in which the expenditure was incurred, section 82KZM will have no application to Customers that (as assumed at paragraph 10 of this Ruling) are a small business entity (or an entity covered by subsection 82KZM(1A)) for the year of income and have not chosen to apply section 82KZMD to the expenditure.
