Taxation Determination

Income tax: to what extent is a registration fee for a Continuing Professional Development (CPD) seminar deductible if a part of the fee represents the cost of food and drink to be provided as part of the seminar?

This Addendum amends Taxation Determination TD 93/195 to reflect the changes to the law caused by the repeal of inoperative provisions.

TD 93/195 is amended as follows:

1. Paragraph 1

- (a) Omit 'subsection 51(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936'; substitute 'section 8-1 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (ITAA 1997)¹'.
- (b) Omit 'section 51AE'; substitute 'Division 32'.

2. Paragraph 1(a)

- (a) Omit 'food and drink'; substitute 'food, drink or recreation'.
- (b) Omit 'subsection 51AE(3)'; substitute 'section 32-10'.

3. Paragraph 1(b)

Omit the paragraph; substitute:

- (b) if the food and drink does amount to entertainment but the CPD seminar is a seminar as defined in section 32-65 and the seminar expenses exception in section 32-35 applies, the registration fee is deductible in full. Section 32-35 includes the requirement that the food and drink provided is 'reasonably incidental' to a participant's attendance at the seminar. 'Reasonably incidental' is not defined. Food and drink is reasonably incidental to a CPD seminar if it:
 - (i) is provided for sustenance because of the duration, time of day or location of the seminar;
