Taxation Determination

Fringe benefits tax: under Australia's double taxation agreements (DTAs), are overseas airline companies exempt from the payment of fringe benefits tax (FBT) on benefits provided to employees who exercise their employment in Australia?

Taxation Determination TD 93/67 is withdrawn with effect from today.

1. Taxation Determination TD 93/67 predates amendments to both the New Zealand Double Tax Agreement and the United Kingdom Double Tax Agreement, both of which now specifically contain references to fringe benefits tax.
2. Whether or not fringe benefits tax is included as a tax to which a particular double tax agreement will apply is dependant on how 'Australian tax' is defined in each individual double Tax Agreement.
3. As Taxation Determination TD 93/67 is no longer current, it is accordingly withdrawn.
