

TR 96/17 - Addendum - Income tax: work-related expenses: deductibility of expenses on rehydrating moisturiser and rehydrating hair conditioner

 This cover sheet is provided for information only. It does not form part of TR 96/17 - Addendum - Income tax: work-related expenses: deductibility of expenses on rehydrating moisturiser and rehydrating hair conditioner

 View the consolidated version for this notice.

Addendum

---

Income tax: work-related expenses: deductibility of expenses on rehydrating moisturiser and rehydrating hair conditioner

The Australian Taxation Office is restructuring, renumbering and rewriting the income tax law in plain language. The Parliament is amending the income tax law progressively to reflect these aims. As new laws come into effect, Taxation Rulings about old laws are being brought into line with them.

This Addendum amends Taxation Ruling TR 96/17, in relation to the 1997-98 or a later income year, as follows:

1. After paragraph 2

Insert:

'Cross references of provisions

2A. This Ruling refers to case law on deductibility under the first limb of subsection 51(1) of the Act. Subsection 51(1) of the Act expresses the same ideas as section 8-1 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 ('the 1997 Act'). The references to subsection 51(1) of the Act should be read as references to section 8-1 of the 1997 Act.'

---

Commissioner of Taxation

4 August 1999

---

ATO references:

NO 99/4295-5; 96/4511-0

BO

ISSN: 1039 - 0731