7. Paragraph 35

Salary packaged meal entertainment benefits provided from 1 April 2016

35A. From 1 April 2016, the Tax and Superannuation Laws Amendment (2015 Measures No. 5) Act 2015 makes changes to the FBTAA to limit the concessional treatment of salary packaged entertainment benefits (for both meal entertainment and entertainment facility leasing expenses) by:

- removing the subsection 5E(3) reporting exclusion in respect of salary packaged entertainment benefits so that these benefits now form part of the employee's individual fringe benefits amount under section 5E;
- removing access to the Division 9A and section 152B elections; and
- introducing a $5,000 cap on the grossed-up value of salary packaged entertainment benefits under subsections 5B(1E) and 5B(1M).

35B. For employers subject to the provisions of section 57A, the provision of salary packaged entertainment benefits are capped at $5,000 of the grossed-up taxable value of fringe benefits for each employee. Any salary packaged entertainment benefits that exceed this cap will be included in the general cap of either $17,667 or $31,177 for the FBT year commencing 1 April 2016. This is because of the interaction between section 57A and subsection 5B(1L). For benefits provided from 1 April 2016, step 1 of the method statement in subsection 5B(1L) no longer disregards the provision of salary packaged entertainment in calculating an employer's fringe benefits taxable amount.<sup>8</sup>

35C. The benefit is a 'tax exempt body entertainment benefit' under section 38 which applies when a not-for-profit employer incurs non-deductible expenditure on entertainment of an employee or associate of an employee. Elections under <sup>8</sup> Subsection 5B(1L) continues to apply to non- salary packaged entertainment expenses and car parking benefits.

35D. In relation to salary packaged entertainment benefits provided from 1 April 2016, under part XIB, the employer will be required to include the grossed-up taxable value of salary packaged entertainment benefits on an employee's payment summary where the value of these benefits, and that of other benefits provided to the employee in the particular FBT year, exceeds $2,000.
