Distribution not a dividend

19. Section 47 deals with distributions by a liquidator. It states that distributions to shareholders of a company by a liquidator in the course of winding up the company, to the extent to which they represent income derived by the company (whether before or during liquidation) other than income which has been properly applied to replace a loss of paid-up share capital, shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be dividends paid to the shareholders by the company out of profits derived by it.

20. The interim distribution of 43c per MGCL share will not be deemed to be dividend paid to the shareholders by the company out of profits derived by it.

Section 45B

21. Section 45B applies where the conditions in subsection 45B(2) are met and it is concluded that certain capital benefits are provided to shareholders in substitution for dividends.

22. Where the requirements of subsection 45B(2) are met, paragraph 45B(3)(b) empowers the Commissioner to make a determination that section 45C applies in relation to the whole, or a part, of the capital benefit such that it will be treated as an unfranked dividend, so that it can be included in the assessable income of the relevant taxpayer.

23. The payment of the interim liquidator's distribution by the voluntary liquidator of MGCL will constitute a scheme under which the shareholders are provided with a capital benefit (paragraph 45B(5)(b)).

24. For the provision to apply, among other things, paragraph 45B(2)(c) requires that, having regard to the relevant circumstances of the scheme, it would be concluded that the person, or one of the persons, entered into the scheme or carried out the scheme or any part of the scheme for the purpose, other than an incidental purpose, of enabling a taxpayer to obtain a tax benefit. A non-exhaustive list of relevant circumstances of the scheme is provided in subsection 45B(8).

25. Having regard to the relevant circumstances surrounding the interim liquidator's distribution, it cannot be concluded that MGCL, the shareholders or any other person entered into or carried out the scheme for the purpose of enabling the shareholders to obtain a tax benefit.

26. Accordingly, the Commissioner will not make a determination under paragraph 45B(3)(b) that section 45C applies to treat the whole, or part of, a capital benefit that arises from the interim liquidator's distribution as a dividend in the hands of the shareholders.

Part IVA

27. The Commissioner will not make a determination under section 177F in relation to the scheme.

28. Based upon the specific facts and circumstances of this scheme, the Commissioner will not make a determination under section 177F in relation to the scheme as it does not constitute a scheme to which Part IVA applies.
