When this Ruling applies

7. This Ruling applies from 1 July 2021 to 30 June 2022.

Ruling

CGT event A1 happened on the disposal of your Afterpay Limited shares

8. CGT event A1 happened when you disposed of your Afterpay shares to Block Acquirer (section 104-10).

9. The time of CGT event A1 is on the Implementation Date (1 February 2022) (paragraph 104-10(3)(b)).

10. The capital proceeds from CGT event A1 happening to each Afterpay share is the market value of the part of the share in Block, Inc. (Block) or the part of the CHES Depositary Interest (CDI) in relation to shares in Block, you received in respect of your disposal of the Afterpay share (subsection 116-20(1)). The market value of the Block shares or CDIs is worked out as at the time of CGT event A1 happening.

11. You will make a capital gain from CGT event A1 happening if the capital proceeds from the disposal of your Afterpay share exceeded the cost base of that share (subsection 104-10(4)). You will make a capital loss from CGT event A1 happening if the capital proceeds from the disposal of your Afterpay share were less than the reduced cost base of that share (subsection 104-10(4)).

Foreign-resident shareholders of Afterpay Limited

12. If you were a foreign resident just before the Implementation Date (that is, you were not a resident of Australia as defined in subsection 6(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) and your Afterpay shares were not 'taxable Australian property', you must disregard a capital gain or capital loss you made from CGT event A1 happening when you disposed of your Afterpay shares to Block Acquirer (section 855-10).

13. Your Afterpay shares were 'taxable Australian property' if they were:

- used by you at any time in carrying on a business through a permanent establishment in Australia in the circumstances specified in table item 3 of section 855-15, or
- a CGT asset that is covered by subsection 104-165(3) (choosing to disregard a capital gain or capital loss on ceasing to be an Australian resident) (table item 5 of section 855-15).

Availability of scrip for scrip roll-over for your Afterpay Limited shares

14. Subject to the qualification in paragraphs 15 and 16 of this Ruling, if you make a capital gain from the disposal of your Afterpay shares, you may choose to obtain scrip for scrip roll-over for the capital gain (sections 124-780 and 124-785).
15. Scrip for scrip roll-over cannot be chosen if any capital gain you might make from a replacement Block share or CDI would be disregarded, except because of a roll-over (paragraph 124-795(2)(a)).
16. If you were a foreign resident just before the Implementation Date, you cannot choose scrip for scrip roll-over unless your Block shares or CDIs were taxable Australian property (as defined in section 855-15) just after the Implementation Date (subsection 124-795(1)).

Consequences if you choose scrip for scrip roll-over for your Afterpay Limited shares

Capital gain is disregarded

17. If you choose scrip for scrip roll-over, your capital gain is disregarded (subsection 124-785(1)).
18. For the purposes of determining your eligibility to make a discount capital gain, the Block shares or CDIs acquired in exchange for your Afterpay shares are taken to have been acquired on the date you acquired, for CGT purposes, the corresponding Afterpay shares (table item 2 of subsection 115-30(1)).

Cost base and reduced cost base of shares in Block, Inc. or CDIs

19. If you choose scrip for scrip roll-over, the first element of the cost base and reduced cost base of a replacement Block share or CDI you received is worked out by reasonably attributing to it the cost base and reduced cost base (respectively) of the Afterpay shares for which it was exchanged and for which the roll-over was obtained (subsections 124-785(2) and (4)).
20. You can calculate the first element of the cost base and reduced cost of each replacement Block share or CDI by dividing the total cost bases of your Afterpay shares by the number of replacement Block shares or CDIs you received.

Consequences if you do not choose, or cannot choose, scrip for scrip roll-over for your Afterpay Limited shares

Capital gain is not disregarded

21. If you do not choose, or cannot choose, scrip for scrip roll-over, you must take into account any capital gain or capital loss from CGT event A1 happening on the disposal of your Afterpay shares in working out your net capital gain or net capital loss for the income year in which CGT event A1 happened (sections 102-5 and 102-10).
22. If you make a capital gain where scrip for scrip roll-over is not chosen, or cannot be chosen, you can treat the capital gain as a discount capital gain provided that the conditions of Subdivision 115-A are met.

Cost base and reduced cost base of shares in Block, Inc. or CDIs

23. If you do not choose, or cannot choose, scrip for scrip roll-over, the first element of the cost base and reduced cost base of a replacement Block share or CDI that you received is equal to the market value of the Afterpay shares you gave in respect of acquiring the Block share or CDI (subsections 110-25(2) and 110-55(2)).

24. The market value of the Afterpay shares you gave is to be worked out as at the time when you acquired the Block shares or CDIs.

Acquisition date of shares in Block, Inc. or CDIs

25. If you do not choose, or cannot choose, scrip for scrip roll-over, the acquisition date of the Block shares or CDIs is the date on which those shares or CDIs were issued to you (table item 2 of section 109-10).

The scheme of arrangement

36. On 2 August 2021, Afterpay, Block and Block Acquirer announced that they had entered into a Scheme Implementation Deed. Under the Deed, Afterpay agreed to propose to the shareholders of Afterpay that Afterpay and the shareholders enter into a scheme of arrangement under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act 2001 pursuant to which Block Acquirer would acquire all of the ordinary shares in Afterpay in exchange for Block shares or CDIs (CHESS Depository Interests).

37. A resolution in favour of the scheme of arrangement was passed by the shareholders of Afterpay as required by subparagraph 411(4)(a)(ii) of the Corporations Act 2001 on 14 December 2021. The scheme of arrangement was approved by the Supreme Court of New South Wales under paragraph 411(4)(b) of the Corporations Act 2001 on 17 December 2021.

38. Block Acquirer acquired 100% of the shares in Afterpay on the Implementation Date (1 February 2022).

39. In consideration for the disposal of their Afterpay shares, an Afterpay shareholder received:

- if they elected to receive shares in Block that can be traded on the NYSE – 0.375 of a share of Class A common stock of Block for each Afterpay share, or
- if they elected to receive CDIs listed on the ASX in relation to shares of Class A common stock of Block – 0.375 of a CDI for each Afterpay share. (Each CDI represents a beneficial interest in, but not legal title to, one share of Class A common stock in Block).

40. The choice to receive either shares in Block or CDIs was made available to all shareholders of Afterpay whose registered address was in Australia or New Zealand as at the Record Date (21 January 2022). The choice was also made available to shareholders of Afterpay whose registered address was in other jurisdictions (other than an Ineligible Foreign Shareholder).

41. An Ineligible Foreign Shareholder is an Afterpay shareholder who was a citizen or resident of, or whose address on the share register was in, a jurisdiction other than Australia, New Zealand, Canada, Hong Kong, Singapore, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the United States of America. An Ineligible Foreign Shareholder did not receive the Block shares to which they would otherwise be entitled for the disposal of their Afterpay shares. Those Block shares were issued to a sale agent, who sold them on the NYSE. The net sale proceeds were paid by Block to each Ineligible Foreign Shareholder.

42. The shares in Afterpay were suspended from trading on the ASX from the close of trading on 19 January 2022. Afterpay was removed from the official list of the ASX on 2 February 2022.

45. The CDIs in relation to the shares of Class A common stock of Block are a 'Chess Unit of Foreign Security' under subsection 124-780(6).

46. An Afterpay shareholder, Afterpay and Block (or Block Acquirer) were not all members of the same linked group (within the meaning given by section 170-260) just before the Scheme Implementation Deed was entered into.

48. Subsections 124-810(3) and 124-810(5) did not apply to Afterpay just before the Scheme Implementation Deed was entered into.

49. For the purposes of section 855-30, the sum of the market values of the assets of Afterpay that were 'taxable Australian real property' under section 855-20 on the Implementation Date did not exceed the sum of the market values of the assets of Afterpay that were not 'taxable Australian real property' on the Implementation Date.
