

Notice of Withdrawal

Draft Taxation Ruling

Income tax: superannuation contributions

Draft Taxation Ruling TR 2010/1DC is withdrawn with effect from today.

1. TR 2010/1DC, which issued on 28 July 2021, outlined:
 - proposed changes to TR 2010/1 to explain the interactions between the non-arm's length income provisions and the rules concerning superannuation contributions
 - a proposed compliance approach in Appendix 2
 - changes to reflect the removal of the maximum earnings test for the purpose of deducting personal contributions that commenced from 1 July 2017.
2. TR 2010/1DC has been replaced by Draft Taxation Ruling TR 2010/1DC2 Income tax: superannuation contributions which issued today. TR 2010/1DC2 includes:
 - our preliminary view as to the interaction between the non-arm's length income provisions, as amended by Treasury Laws Amendment (Support for Small Business and Charities and Other Measures) Act 2024, and the rules concerning superannuation contributions
 - updates to reflect the removal of the maximum earnings test for the purpose of deducting personal contributions that commenced from 1 July 2017
 - removal of the compliance approach proposed in Appendix 2 of TR 2010/1DC with effect from the date of publication of TR 2010/1DC2.
3. Given the amendments to the non-arm's length income provisions as a result of the Treasury Laws Amendment (Support for Small Business and Charities and Other Measures) Act 2024, TR 2010/1DC2 has been issued to allow an opportunity for feedback.
