

Legislative Instrument

Goods and Services Tax: Classes of Recipient Created Tax Invoice Determination (No. 17) 2015

I, James O'Halloran, Deputy Commissioner of Taxation, make this determination under subsection 29-70(3) of the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.

James O'Halloran
Deputy Commissioner of Taxation

Dated: 15 September 2015

Name of Determination

1. This determination is the Goods and Services Tax: Classes of Recipient Created Tax Invoice Determination (No. 17) 2015.

Commencement

2. This determination commences on the day after registration.

Repeal of previous instrument

3. A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 Classes of Recipient Created Tax Invoice Determination (No. 21) 2000 - F2005B02399, registered on 14/09/2005 is repealed on the commencement of this determination.

Determination (Who is covered by this Determination)

4. This determination applies to:
- an entity that was previously determined in the previous instrument as being able to issue a tax invoice belonging to a class of tax invoices that may be issued by a recipient; or
 - an entity that was not determined in the previous instrument, provided it satisfies all the requirements of this instrument.

Classes of tax invoices that may be issued by the recipient of a taxable supply

5. A tax invoice that belongs to a class of tax invoices for a taxable supply of information by a content provider may be issued by a telephone information service provider that is the recipient of that taxable supply, where the telephone information service provider:
- (a) establishes the value of the supply of information after the supply is made; and
 - (b) satisfies the requirements set out in Clause 6.

Requirements that must be satisfied by the recipient of a taxable supply

6. A recipient of a taxable supply must satisfy the following requirements:
- (a) the recipient must be registered for GST when the invoice is issued;
 - (b) the recipient must set out the Australian Business Number of the supplier in the tax invoice;
 - (c) the recipient must issue the original or a copy of the tax invoice to the supplier within 28 days of making, or determining the value of, the taxable supply and must retain the original or the copy;
 - (d) the recipient must issue the original or a copy of an adjustment note to the supplier within 28 days of becoming aware of the adjustment and must retain the original or the copy;
 - (e) the recipient must reasonably comply with its obligations under the taxation laws; and
 - (f) the recipient must have either a written agreement with the supplier that meets the requirements of Clause 7, or a written agreement embedded in the tax invoice that meets the requirements of Clause 8.

Requirements of a written agreement with the supplier

7. The written agreement the recipient has with the supplier must: specify the supplies to which it relates; be current and effective when the recipient created tax invoice (RCTI) is issued; and agree that:
- (i) the recipient can issue tax invoices in respect of the supplies;
 - (ii) the supplier will not issue tax invoices in respect of the supplies;
 - (iii) the supplier acknowledges that it is registered for GST when it enters into the agreement and that it will notify the recipient if it ceases to be registered; and
 - (iv) the recipient acknowledges that it is registered when it enters into the agreement and that it will notify the supplier if it ceases to be registered for GST.

Requirements of a written agreement embedded in the tax invoice

8. The agreement the recipient has with the supplier embedded in a tax invoice issued by the recipient must contain the following statement:

The recipient and the supplier declare that this agreement applies to supplies to which this tax invoice relates. The recipient can issue tax invoices in respect of these supplies. The supplier will not issue tax invoices in respect of these supplies. The supplier acknowledges that it is registered for GST and that it will notify the recipient if it ceases to be registered. The recipient acknowledges that it is registered for GST and that it will notify the supplier if it ceases to be registered for GST. Acceptance of this RCTI constitutes acceptance of the terms of this written agreement.

Both parties to this supply agree that they are parties to a RCTI agreement. The supplier must notify the recipient within 21 days of receiving this document if the supplier does not wish to accept the proposed agreement.

Definitions

9. The following expressions are defined for the purposes of this determination:

information means the data, material or information provided in a telephone information service;

content provider means the entity who supplies information that will be provided through a telephone information service. Content providers include but are not restricted to racing organisations, government institutions, television stations, newspapers, counsellors, advisors and psychics;

telephone information service means the supply of information, which may be live or recorded, during a telephone call, or the supply of information by facsimile transmission in response to a telephone call or facsimile requesting such information;

telephone information service provider means an entity who supplies a telephone information service where:

- (a) a customer calls the telephone information service provider's number to receive a telephone information service;
- (b) the supply of information from the content provider to the telephone information service provider is a taxable supply; and
- (c) carriage of the information to the customer is via a telecommunication supply.

10. Other expressions in this determination have the same meaning as in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.