 - 14.1. the number of trucks operated by the Business reduced from 15 to 4; and

It put the Business in a position, where its proprietors were forced to choose whether to keep the business running or shut it down.  - 54.1. the date of the advance of funds;
 - 54.2. the amount advanced;
 - 54.3. the amount repaid; and
 - 54.4. an annotation of "1" or "2", the details of which are particularised in the key at the end of the table, where:
 - 54.4.1. "1" = the in-house assets acquired by the trustee of the Fund at a time the market value ratio of the fund's in-house assets exceeded 5%, for the purposes of section 83(2) of the Act; and

- 59.3. each of the loans annotated "2" resulted in a contravention of section 83(3) (acquiring an "in-house asset" if the market value ratio does not exceed 5%, but the acquisition would result in the market-value ratio of the fund's in-house assets exceeding 5%).
60. The loan to Vertu also resulted in contraventions of the Act by the First Respondent, as follows:

- 62.2. the loan in the amount of $10,840 made by the Fund to George MacDonald & Sons on 29 May 2008 (Loan No. 5 in Annexure "A"): using the total value of assets at 30 June 2008 (see paragraph 61, above), the market value ratio was:

62.5. the loan in the amount of $13,945 made by the Fund to George MacDonald & Sons on 22 July 2010 (Loan No. 47 in Annexure "A"): using the total value of assets at 30 June 2011 (see paragraph 61, above), the market value ratio was:

$$\frac{$13,945}{$122,559} \times 100 = 11.38\%$$

62.6. the loan in the amount of $16,415 made by the Fund to George MacDonald & Sons on 23 June 2011 (Loan No. 71 in Annexure "A"): using the total value of assets at 30 June 2011 (see paragraph 61, above), the market value ratio was:

O. Contraventions

Contravention of s 62(1) by failing to ensure Fund maintained for prescribed purposes

90. The First Respondent, as trustee of the Fund, admits that it contravened section 62(1) of the Act in that it failed to ensure that the Fund was maintained solely for one or more of the purposes prescribed in section 62(1), in that the First Respondent made the loans in Annexure A to these orders for the purpose of providing financial accommodation to George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd in order that George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd could overcome deficiencies in its working capital, and failed to obtain interest on the outstanding amount of the debt owed by George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd.
91. The First Respondent, as trustee of the Fund, admits that it contravened section 62(1) of the Act in that it failed to ensure that the Fund was maintained solely for one or more of the purposes prescribed in section 62(1), in that the First Respondent made a loan on interest free terms in the amount of $2,000 in the year ended 30 June 2007 for the purpose of providing financial accommodation to Vertu Pty Ltd, although interest was ultimately demanded, and paid, in relation to this loan.

Contravention of s 84(1) by breaching in-house asset rules

92. The First Respondent, as trustee of the Fund, admits that it contravened section 84(1) of the Act by failing to take all reasonable steps to comply with section 83(2) of the Act, in that those loans listed in Annexure A to these orders and annotated "1" were loans made by the First Respondent, as trustee of the Fund, to George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd which increased the market value ratio of the Fund's in-house assets, which ratio was immediately prior to the making of each relevant loan already above the maximum market value ratio of 5% allowed under the Act.
93. The First Respondent, as trustee of the Fund, admits that it contravened section 84(1) of the Act by failing to take all reasonable steps to comply with section 83(3) of the Act, in that those loans listed in Annexure A to these orders and annotated "2" were loans made by the First Respondent, as trustee of the fund, to George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd which increased the market value ratio of the Fund's in-house assets, which ratio was not immediately prior to the making of each relevant loan already above the maximum market value ratio of 5% allowed under the Act, but which immediately after the making of each relevant loan was above the minimum market value ratio of 5% allowed under the Act.
94. The First Respondent, as trustee of the Fund, admits that it contravened section 84(1) of the Act by failing to take all reasonable steps to comply with section 83(3) of the Act, in that a loan made in the year ended 30 June 2007 by the First Respondent, as trustee of the fund, to Vertu Pty Ltd increased the market value ratio of the Fund's in-house assets, which ratio was not immediately prior to the making of each relevant loan already above the maximum market value ratio of 5% allowed under the Act, but which immediately after the making of each relevant loan was above the minimum market value ratio of 5% allowed under the Act.

Contravention of s 109(1) by failing to deal with entity at arm's length

95. The First Respondent, as trustee of the Fund, admits that it made investments in its capacity as trustee of the Fund in circumstances where the First Respondent and the other party to the transactions (namely, George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd) failed to deal with each other at arms length in respect of each transaction, and the terms and conditions of those transactions were more favourable to George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd than those which it is reasonable to expect would have applied if the trustee was dealing with George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd at arms length in the same circumstances, in contravention of s 109(1) of the Act, in that the First Respondent made the loans in Annexure A to these orders to George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd on interest-free terms.
96. The First Respondent, as trustee of the Fund, admits that it made investments in its capacity as trustee of the Fund in circumstances where the First Respondent and the other party to the transactions (namely, Vertu Pty Ltd) failed to deal with each other at arms length in respect of each transaction, and the terms and conditions of those transactions were more favourable to Vertu Pty Ltd than those which it is reasonable to expect would have applied if the trustee was dealing with Vertu Pty Ltd at arms length in the same circumstances, in contravention of s 109(1) of the Act, in that the First Respondent made the loan to Vertu Pty Ltd on interest-free terms, although interest was ultimately demanded, and paid, in relation to this loan.

Involvement of the Second, Third and Fourth Respondents in the contraventions

97. The Second, Third and Fourth Respondents admit that, by section 194 of the Act, they contravened sections 62(1), 84(1) and 109(1) of the Act by reason of their involvement in the contraventions of those sections by the First Respondent in relation to the loans by the Fund to George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd, in that the Second, Third and Fourth Respondents were the directors and shareholders of the First Respondent and of George MacDonald & Sons Pty Ltd.
98. The Third Respondent admits that, by section 194 of the Act, he contravened sections 62(1), 84(1) and 109(1) of the Act by reason of his involvement in the contraventions of those sections by the First Respondent in relation to the loans by the Fund to Vertu Pty Ltd, in that the Third Respondent was a director and shareholder of Vertu.
99. Each of the Second, Third and Fourth Respondents have taken full responsibility for their contraventions of the Act and have expressed remorse and contrition for their conduct. Furthermore, each of the Second to Fourth Respondents has given assurances that he will never again engage in that conduct. Each of the Second to Fourth Respondents has also given these assurances on behalf of the First Respondent.
