5 Schedules

Each instrument that is specified in a Schedule to this instrument is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule concerned, and any other item in a Schedule to this instrument has effect according to its terms.

6 Waiver of requirement to hold a tax invoice

For the purposes of attributing an input tax credit for a creditable acquisition to a tax period, a recipient is not required to hold a tax invoice for the acquisition under subsection 29-10(3) of the Act if:

- (a) the recipient makes the acquisition of a direct entry service from an Australian ADI; and
- (b) at the time the recipient gives a GST return to the Commissioner for the tax period to which the input tax credit (or any part of the input tax credit) for the acquisition would otherwise be attributable, the recipient holds a document from the Australian ADI, in relation to the acquisition, that meets the requirements in section 7.

7 Document information requirements

The requirements referred to in paragraph 6(b) are that the document must include:

- (a) the recipient's name;
- (b) the recipient's ABN or address; and
- (c) for each acquisition of a direct entry service for which the recipient may claim an input tax credit:
  - (i) the date the recipient made the acquisition;
  - (ii) the supplying Australian ADI's identity or the standard three letter code used to identify it within the Australian ADI industry;
  - (iii) the supplying Australian ADI's ABN or GST branch registration number;
  - (iv) the description of the acquisition that indicates it refers to a direct entry service (for example, 'DE Fee');
  - (v) the amount of consideration payable by the recipient for the acquisition; and
  - (vi) the amount of GST payable in relation to the consideration payable.
