88 Paragraph 51-10(g)

Repeal the paragraph.

89 Division 81 (heading)

Repeal the heading, substitute:

84-13 The amount of input tax credits relating to offshore intangible supplies

- (1) The amount of the input tax credit for a *creditable acquisition that relates to a supply that is a *taxable supply because of section 84-5 is as follows:

$$\text{Full input tax credit} \times \frac{\text{Extent of creditable purpose}}{\text{Extent of consideration}}$$ where:

extent of consideration is the extent to which you provide, or are liable to provide, the *consideration for the acquisition, expressed as a percentage of the total consideration for the acquisition.

extent of creditable purpose is the extent to which the *creditable acquisition is for a *creditable purpose, expressed as a percentage of the total purpose of the acquisition.

full input tax credit is ¹¹/₁₀ of what would have been the amount of the input tax credit for the acquisition if:

- (a) the supply had been a *taxable supply otherwise than because of section 84-5; and
 - (b) the acquisition had been made solely for a creditable purpose; and
 - (c) you had provided, or had been liable to provide, all of the consideration for the acquisition.
- (2) This section has effect despite sections 11-25 and 11-30 (which are about the amount of input tax credits for creditable acquisitions).

97 At the end of Division 93

Add:

93-25 Food packaging that was supplied GST-free

This Division does not apply to the acquisition of a *returnable container if the supply of the container to the entity from which you acquired it was a supply of packaging that was *GST-free under section 38-6.

98 Section 108-1

16	Goods not entered for home consumption when required	Goods not covered by any other item of this table are imported into Australia, and: (a) if they are required to be entered under section 68 of the Customs Act 1901 —they are not entered in accordance with that requirement; or (b) in any other case—a requirement under that Act relating to their importation has not been complied with	The person who fails to comply with that requirement.
----	--	--	---

106 At the end of section 114-5

Add:

- (2) This section has effect despite section 13-5.

107 At the end of Division 114

Add:

114-10 Goods that have already been entered for home consumption etc.

Once goods have been:

- (a) entered for home consumption within the meaning of the Customs Act 1901; or
(b) taken to be imported because of the application of an item in the table in section 114-5;

they cannot subsequently be taken to be imported because of the application of an item in the table, unless they have been exported from Australia since they were so entered or taken to be imported.

114-15 Payments of amounts of GST where security for payment of customs duty is forfeited

(1) If:

- (a) a circumstance relating to goods is an importation of the goods into Australia because of an item of the table in section 114-5; and

Insert:

Division 123—Simplified accounting methods for retailers

123-1 What this Division is about

The Commissioner can create simplified accounting methods that some retailers can choose to apply with a view to reducing their costs of complying with the requirements of the GST.

123-5 Commissioner may determine simplified accounting methods

- (1) The Commissioner may determine in writing an arrangement (to be known as a simplified accounting method) that:
 - (a) specifies the kinds of *retailers to whom it is available; and
 - (b) provides a method for working out *net amounts of retailers to whom the method applies.
- (2) The kinds of *retailer specified under paragraph (1)(a) must all be kinds of retailers that:
 - (a) sell *food; or
 - (b) make supplies that are *GST-free under Subdivision 38-G (Non-commercial activities of charitable institutions etc.);in the course or furtherance of *carrying on their *enterprise.

123-10 Choosing to apply a simplified accounting method

- (1) You may, by notifying the Commissioner in the *approved form:
 - (a) choose to apply a *simplified accounting method if you are a *retailer of the kind to whom the method is available; or
 - (b) revoke your choice to apply the method.
- (2) However, you:
 - (a) cannot revoke the choice within 12 months after the day on which you made the choice; and
 - (b) cannot make a further choice within 12 months after the day on which you revoked a previous choice; and
 - (c) cannot choose to apply a *simplified accounting method in addition to another simplified accounting method.

- (3) Your choice to apply a *simplified accounting method has effect from the start of the tax period specified in your notice.
- (4) Your choice to apply a *simplified accounting method ceases to have effect:
 - (a) if you cease to be a *retailer of the kind to whom the method is available—from the start of the tax period occurring after the day on which you cease to be such a retailer; or
 - (b) if you revoke your choice to apply the method—from the start of the tax period specified in your notice of revocation.

123-15 Net amounts

- (1) If you are a *retailer who has chosen to apply a *simplified accounting method, the net amount for a tax period during which the choice has effect is worked out using the method provided for by the method.
- (2) This section has effect despite section 17-5 (which is about net amounts).

112 Subsection 129-5(2)

Omit “does not exceed”, substitute “exceeds”.

113 Section 135-1

Omit “of input taxed supplies (if any) that will be made in running the concern”, substitute “(if any) of supplies that will be made in running the concern and that will not be taxable supplies or GST-free supplies”.

114 Paragraph 135-5(1)(b)

Omit “*input taxed”, substitute “neither *taxable supplies nor *GST-free supplies”.

115 Subsection 135-5(2)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (2) The amount of the increasing adjustment is as follows:

$$\frac{1}{10} \times \text{Supply price} \times \frac{\text{Proportion of non-creditable use}}{\text{Proportion of non-creditable use}}$$

where:

proportion of non-creditable use is the proportion of all the supplies made through the *enterprise that you intend will be supplies that are neither *taxable supplies nor *GST-free supplies, expressed as a percentage worked out on the basis of the *prices of those supplies.

supply price means the *price of the supply in relation to which the increasing adjustment arises.

116 Paragraph 135-10(1)(a)

Omit “*input taxed”, substitute “neither *taxable supplies nor *GST-free supplies”.

117 Paragraph 135-10(1)(b)

Omit “*input taxed”, substitute “neither taxable supplies nor GST-free supplies”.

118 At the end of Division 147

Add:

147-25 Tax periods of representatives

- (1) If a *representative of an *incapacitated entity is required to be registered in that capacity, the tax periods applying to the representative in that capacity are the same tax periods that apply to the incapacitated entity.
- (2) This section has effect despite Division 27 (which is about how to work out the tax periods that apply).

119 Subsection 156-15(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) If:
 - (a) a *taxable supply is made for a period or on a progressive basis; and
 - (b) the supply is made for *consideration that is to be provided on a progressive or periodic basis; and

(c) the whole of a progressive or periodic component of the supply would not be *connected with Australia if it were a separate supply;
that component is treated as if it were a separate supply that is not connected with Australia.

120 After section 156-20

Insert:

156-22 Leases etc. treated as being on a progressive or periodic basis

For the purposes of this Division, a supply or acquisition by way of lease, hire or similar arrangement is to be treated as a supply or acquisition that is made on a progressive or periodic basis, for the period of the lease, hire or arrangement.

121 Section 156-25

After “This Division”, insert “(other than section 156-15)”.

122 Subsection 171-5(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) An amount of GST on a *taxable importation of goods is not payable if:
- (a) a security or undertaking described in section 162 of the Customs Act 1901 has been given; and
 - (b) the provisions of the regulations mentioned in paragraph 162(3)(a) of that Act are complied with; and
 - (c) the goods are exported within the relevant period mentioned in paragraph 162(3)(b) of that Act.

Note: Section 162 of the Customs Act 1901 allows delivery of imported goods if the importer gives a security or undertaking to pay any customs duty, GST and luxury car tax relating to the importation.

- (1A) An amount of GST on a *taxable importation of goods is not payable if:
- (a) a security or undertaking described in section 162A of the Customs Act 1901 has been given; and
 - (b) the goods are not dealt with in contravention of regulations made for the purposes of that section; and

(c) either:

- (i) the goods are exported within the relevant period mentioned in paragraph 162A(5)(b) of that Act; or

Insert:

Division 16—GST groups and GST joint ventures

16-1 What this Division is about

The representative member of a GST group deals with all of the luxury car tax liabilities and entitlements of the group. The joint venture operator of a GST joint venture deals with the luxury car tax liabilities and entitlements arising from the operator's dealings on behalf of the other participants in the joint venture.

Subdivision 16-A—Members of GST groups

16-5 Who is liable for luxury car tax

- (1) Luxury car tax payable on a *taxable supply of a luxury car, or a *taxable importation of a luxury car, for which a *member of a *GST group would (apart from this section) be liable:
 - (a) is payable by the *representative member; and
 - (b) is not payable by the member that would otherwise be liable (unless the member is the representative member).
- (2) However, if the member is not the *representative member of the *GST group, this section only applies to luxury car tax payable on a *taxable importation of a luxury car if the tax is payable at a time when luxury car tax on *taxable supplies of luxury cars is normally payable by the representative member.
- (3) This section has effect despite sections 5-5 and 7-5 (which are about liability for luxury car tax).

16-10 Luxury car tax adjustments

- (1) Any *luxury car tax adjustment that a *member of a *GST group has is to be treated as if:
 - (a) that member did not have the adjustment (unless that member is the *representative member); and
 - (b) the representative member had the adjustment.
- (2) This section has effect despite section 13-10 (which is about the effect of luxury car tax adjustments on net amounts).

Subdivision 16-B—Participants in GST joint ventures

16-15 Who is liable for luxury car tax

- (1) Luxury car tax payable on a *taxable supply of a luxury car, or a *taxable importation of a luxury car, that the *joint venture operator of a *GST joint venture makes, on behalf of another *participant in the joint venture, in the course of activities for which the joint venture was entered into:
 - (a) is payable by the joint venture operator; and
 - (b) is not payable by the other participant.
- (2) This section has effect despite sections 5-5 and 7-5 (which are about liability for luxury car tax).

16-20 Luxury car tax adjustments

- (1) Any *luxury car tax adjustment relating to any supply or *importation that the *joint venture operator of a *GST joint venture makes, on behalf of another *participant in the joint venture, in the course of activities for which the joint venture was entered into is to be treated as if:
 - (a) the other participant did not have the adjustment; and
 - (b) the joint venture operator had the adjustment.
- (2) This section has effect despite section 13-10 (which is about the effect of *luxury car tax adjustments on net amounts).

16-25 Additional net amounts relating to GST joint ventures

The additional net amount relating to a *GST joint venture in section 51-45 of the *GST Act:

- (a) is increased by the amount of any luxury car tax on *taxable supplies of luxury cars for which the *joint venture operator is liable because of section 16-15; and
- (b) is increased or decreased (as the case requires) by the amount of any *luxury car tax adjustments that are adjustments of the joint venture operator because of section 16-20.

31-1 Meaning of wine

- (1) Wine means any of these:
- (a) *grape wine;
 - (b) *grape wine products;
 - (c) *fruit or vegetable wine;
 - (d) *cider or perry;
 - (e) *mead;
 - (f) *sake.
- (2) However, wine does not include beverages that do not contain more than 1.15% by volume of ethyl alcohol.

31-2 Meaning of grape wine

- (1) Grape wine is a beverage that:
- (a) is the product of the complete or partial fermentation of fresh grapes or products derived solely from fresh grapes; and
 - (b) complies with any requirements of the regulations, made for the purposes of section 31-8, relating to grape wine.
- (2) A beverage does not cease to be the product of the complete or partial fermentation of fresh grapes or products derived solely from fresh grapes merely because grape spirit, brandy, or both grape spirit and brandy, have been added to it.

Note: The concept of grape wine is used in Subdivision 9-B to work out the taxable value of retail transactions involving wine produced from grapes. In the case of grape wine, you can choose to use the average wholesale price method of working out taxable values.

31-3 Meaning of grape wine product

Grape wine product is a beverage that:

- (a) contains at least 700 millilitres of *grape wine per litre; and
- (b) has not had added to it, at any time, any ethyl alcohol from any other source, except:
 - (i) grape spirit; or
 - (ii) alcohol used in preparing vegetable extracts (including spices, herbs and grasses); and
- (c) contains at least 8% by volume of ethyl alcohol, but not more than 22% by volume of ethyl alcohol; and
- (d) complies with any requirements of the regulations, made for the purposes of section 31-8, relating to grape wine products.

31-4 Meaning of fruit or vegetable wine

Fruit or vegetable wine is a beverage that:

- (a) is the product of the complete or partial fermentation of the juice or must of:
 - (i) fruit or vegetables; or
 - (ii) products derived solely from fruit or vegetables; and
- (b) has not had added to it, at any time, any ethyl alcohol from any other source, except as specified in the regulations; and
- (c) has not had added to it, at any time, any liquor or substance that gives colour or flavour, except as specified in the regulations; and
- (d) contains at least 8% by volume of ethyl alcohol, but not more than 22% by volume of ethyl alcohol; and
- (e) complies with any requirements of the regulations, made for the purposes of section 31-8, relating to fruit or vegetable wine.

31-8 Requirements for types of wine

- (1) The regulations may specify requirements for these types of wine:
 - (a) *grape wine;
 - (b) *grape wine products;
 - (c) *fruit or vegetable wine;
 - (d) *cider or perry;
 - (e) *mead;
 - (f) *sake.

- (2) The requirements for a particular type of wine may relate to any of the following:
 - (a) the substances that may be added to that type of wine;
 - (b) the quantities in which those substances may be added to that type of wine;
 - (c) the substances that must not be added to that type of wine;
 - (d) the substances that may be used in the production of that type of wine;
 - (e) the quantities in which those substances may be used in the production of that type of wine;
 - (f) the substances that must not be used in the production of that type of wine;
 - (g) the composition of that type of wine.

31-9 Measuring alcoholic content

For the purposes of this Subdivision, the volume of ethyl alcohol in beverages is to be measured at 20°C and is to be calculated on the basis that the specific gravity of ethyl alcohol is 0.79067 (at 20°C in a vacuum).

9 Saving of regulations

Regulations that were made for the purposes of subsection 162A(1) of the Customs Act 1901 and in force immediately before the amendment of that subsection by this Part continue in force as if they had been made for the purposes of that subsection as amended by this Part. This does not prevent amendment or repeal of the regulations.

10 Subsection 162A(2)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (2) The CEO may accept a security given by a person for the payment of, or an undertaking by a person to pay, all of the following in relation to specified goods that are described in regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1) and that may be imported after a particular date or during a particular period:
- (a) the duty, if any, that may become payable on the goods;
 - (b) the GST that may become payable on the taxable importation (as defined in the GST Act), if any, that is associated with the import of the goods;
 - (c) if a taxable importation of a luxury car (as defined in the Luxury Car Tax Act) is associated with the import of the goods—the luxury car tax that may become payable on that taxable importation.

If the CEO accepts the security or undertaking, a Collector may grant to a person who imports some or all of the specified goods permission to take delivery of the goods without payment of duty, GST or luxury car tax.

11 Saving of permissions

A permission granted under subsection 162A(2) of the Customs Act 1901 and in force immediately before the commencement of the amendments of section 162A of that Act by this Part continues in force as if the permission had been granted under that section as amended by this Part.

12 At the end of subsection 162A(5)

Add:

Note: GST and luxury car tax are not payable if duty is not payable because of subsection (5) (or would not be payable because of that subsection if it were otherwise payable). See section 171-5 of the GST Act and section 13-25 of the Luxury Car Tax Act.

13 Subsection 162A(7)

Omit all the words from and including “until” to and including “imported”, substitute:

until:

- (a) no duty is, or may become, payable on goods to which the security relates that have been imported; and
- (b) no GST is, or may become, payable on the taxable importation (as defined in the GST Act), if any, that is associated with the import of the goods; and
- (c) no luxury car tax is, or may become, payable on the taxable importation of a luxury car (as defined the Luxury Car Tax Act), if any, that is associated with the import of the goods.

14 Subsection 162A(8)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (8) If the circumstances described in paragraph (5)(a) or (b) or (5A)(a) or (b) exist in relation to the goods:
 - (a) a security relating to the goods may be enforced; and
 - (b) if an undertaking has been given to pay the amount of the duty (if any), GST (if any) and luxury car tax (if any) associated with the import of the goods—the amount may be recovered at any time in a court of competent jurisdiction by proceedings in the name of:
 - (i) the CEO; or
 - (ii) the Regional Director for a State or Territory.

15 Application

Insert:

Division 17—Effect of GST etc. on assessable income

Guide to Division 17

17-1 What this Division is about

This Division sets out the effect of the GST in working out assessable income. Generally speaking, GST, input tax credits and adjustments under the GST Act are disregarded.

Table of sections

17-5	GST and increasing adjustments
17-10	Certain decreasing adjustments
17-15	Elements in calculation of amounts
17-20	GST groups and GST joint ventures

[This is the end of the Guide.]

17-5 GST and increasing adjustments

An amount is not assessable income, and is not *exempt income, to the extent that it includes an amount relating to:

- (a) *GST payable on a *taxable supply; or
- (b) an *increasing adjustment that relates to a *supply; or
- (c) an *increasing adjustment that:
 - (i) relates to an *acquisition; and
 - (ii) arises in circumstances that also give rise to an *assessable recoupment.

17-10 Certain decreasing adjustments

An amount of a *decreasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the *GST Act is assessable income, unless the entity that has the adjustment is an *exempt entity.

12 At the end of section 20-115

Add:

- (3) However, if the disposal of the *car is a *taxable supply, the consideration receivable does not include an amount equal to the *GST payable on the supply.

14 After Division 26

Insert:

Division 27—Effect of input tax credits etc. on deductions

Guide to Division 27

27-1 What this Division is about

This Division sets out the effect of the GST in working out deductions. Generally speaking, input tax credits, GST and adjustments under the GST Act are disregarded.

Table of sections

27-5	Input tax credits and decreasing adjustments
27-10	Certain increasing adjustments
27-15	GST payments
27-20	Elements in calculation of amounts
27-25	GST groups and GST joint ventures

[This is the end of the Guide.]

27-5 Input tax credits and decreasing adjustments

You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing you incur, to the extent that the loss or outgoing includes an amount relating to an *input tax credit to which you are entitled or a *decreasing adjustment that you have.

27-10 Certain increasing adjustments

- (1) You can deduct an amount of an *increasing adjustment that arises under Division 129 or 132 of the *GST Act.
- (2) However, you cannot deduct the amount to the extent (if any) that the adjustment arises from an increase in the extent to which the activity giving rise to the adjustment is of a private or domestic nature.
- (3) If:
 - (a) you have an *increasing adjustment under Division 138 of the *GST Act in respect of an asset as a result of the cancellation of your *registration; and
 - (b) immediately after the cancellation, you held the asset for the purpose of gaining or producing assessable income;you can deduct the amount of the increasing adjustment.

27-15 GST payments

- (1) You cannot deduct under this Act a loss or outgoing consisting of a payment under Division 33 of the *GST Act.
- (2) This section does not apply to the payment:
 - (a) to the extent (if any) that the *net amount to which the payment relates was increased under section 21-5 of the A New Tax System (Wine Equalisation Tax) Act 1999 (which allows for such increases to take account of wine equalisation tax); and
 - (b) to the extent (if any) that the *net amount was increased under section 13-5 of the A New Tax System (Luxury Car Tax) Act 1999 (which allows for such increases to take account of luxury car tax); and
 - (c) to the extent (if any) that the *net amount was increased under paragraph 13-10(1)(a) of the A New Tax System (Luxury Car Tax) Act 1999 (which allows for such alterations to take account of increasing luxury car tax adjustments under that Act).
- (3) This section does not apply to the payment of *GST (under section 33-15 of the *GST Act) on a *taxable importation that:

- (a) was not a *creditable importation; or
 - (b) was *partly creditable;
- but only to the extent that that payment of GST exceeds the *input tax credit (if any) to which you are entitled for that importation.

27-20 Elements in calculation of amounts

In calculating an amount that you may be able to deduct:

- (a) an element in the calculation that is an amount paid or payable is treated as not including an amount equal to any *input tax credit for an *acquisition related to the amount paid or payable, or any *decreasing adjustment related to that amount; and
- (b) an element in the calculation that is an amount received or receivable is treated as not including an amount equal to any *GST payable on a *taxable supply related to the amount received or receivable, or any *increasing adjustment related to that amount.

27-25 GST groups and GST joint ventures

- (1) A *member of a *GST group is to be treated, for the purposes of this Division, as if Subdivision 48-B of the *GST Act (other than subsections 48-45(3) and (4)) did not apply to that member.
- (2) A *participant in a *GST joint venture is to be treated, for the purposes of this Division, as if Subdivision 51-B of the *GST Act did not apply to that participant.

[The next Division is Division 30.]

Omit “market values”, substitute “*GST inclusive market values (as reduced under subsection (3) if that subsection applies)”.

16 Subsection 30-15(2) (table items 4, 5 and 6)

Omit “sale price”, substitute “proceeds of the sale”.

17 At the end of section 30-15

Add:

After “property”, insert “, reduced by the amount of any *input tax credit to which you are or were entitled for your *acquisitions to the extent that they were made for the purpose of creating or producing the property”.

26 Subsection 30-215(3) (table item 3, 3rd column)

Omit “market value” (wherever occurring), substitute “*GST inclusive market value (as reduced under subsection (4) if that subsection applies)”.

27 Subsection 30-215(3) (table item 4, 3rd column)

Omit “market value” (wherever occurring), substitute “*GST inclusive market value (as reduced under subsection (4) if that subsection applies)”.

28 At the end of section 30-215

Add:

- (4) For the purposes of items 3 and 4 of the table in subsection (3), the *GST inclusive market values of the property in question are reduced by $\frac{1}{11}$ if you would have been entitled to an *input tax credit if:
- (a) you had *acquired the property at the time you made the gift;
and
 - (b) your acquisition had been for a *creditable purpose.

29 Subsection 30-220(2)

Omit “market value”, substitute “*GST inclusive market value”.

30 Subsection 42-205(1) (at the end of the method statement)

Add:

Note: Subsection (3) excludes GST from the termination value.

31 Subsection 42-205(1) (table items 1 and 2)

Omit “a specific price”, substitute “a specific amount”.

32 Subsection 42-205(1) (table items 1, 2 and 3)

Omit “sale price”, substitute “proceeds of the sale”.

33 At the end of section 42-205

Add:

- (3) If the *balancing adjustment event relating to the *plant is a *taxable supply, the termination value of the plant does not include an amount equal to the *GST payable on the supply.

34 Paragraph 70-45(1)(c)

Omit “price”, substitute “value”.

35 After subsection 70-45(1)

Insert:

- (1A) In working out the *cost, market selling value or replacement value of an item of *trading stock (other than an item the *supply of which cannot be a *taxable supply) at the end of an income year, disregard an amount equal to the amount of the *input tax credit (if any) to which you would be entitled if:
- (a) you had *acquired the item at that time; and
 - (b) the acquisition had been solely for a *creditable purpose; and

Note: Some assets, such as shares, cannot be the subject of a taxable supply.

36 Subsections 70-120(2) and (3)

Omit “an amount for the price”, substitute “the amount”.

37 Subsection 70-120(4)

Omit “price”, substitute “amount”.

38 After subsection 110-45(3)

Insert:

Input tax credits

- (3A) The first, second and third elements of the cost base are reduced as follows:
- (a) for the first element—by the amount of your *input tax credit (if any) for *acquisition or *importation of the *CGT asset in question;

- (b) for the second element—by the amount of your *input tax credit (if any) for your *incidental costs referred to in subsection 110-25(3);
- (c) for the third element—by the amount of your *input tax credit (if any) for your non-capital costs referred to in subsection 110-25(4).

39 After subsection 110-50(3)

Insert:

Input tax credits

- (3A) The first, second and third elements of the cost base are reduced as follows:
- (a) for the first element—by the amount of your *input tax credit (if any) for *acquisition or *importation of the *CGT asset in question;
 - (b) for the second element—by the amount of your *input tax credit (if any) for your *incidental costs referred to in subsection 110-25(3);
 - (c) for the third element—by the amount of your *input tax credit (if any) for your non-capital costs referred to in subsection 110-25(4).

40 At the end of section 116-20

Add:

- (5) In working out the proceeds of a *CGT event that is a *supply, disregard the amount of your *net GST (if any) on the supply.

41 At the end of subsection 118-10(1)

Add “(excluding the amount of your *net input tax credit (if any) for the *acquisition)”.

42 At the end of subsection 118-10(3)

Add “(excluding the amount of your *net input tax credit (if any) for the *acquisition)”.

43 At the end of subsection 132-10(3)

(3) If:

- (a) the sale or disposal of the *forestry road or *timber mill building is a *taxable supply; or
- (b) receipt under an insurance policy of the amount or value in respect of the loss or destruction of the road or building is or would be a taxable supply;

the termination value of the road or building does not include an amount equal to the *GST payable on the supply.

- (a) the quality, performance or characteristics of the goods or service; or
- (b) the provision of services that are or may at any time be required in respect of the goods or service; or
- (c) the supply of parts that are or may at any time be required for the goods;

- (a) second-hand goods, unless:
 - (i) you imported them; and
 - (ii) nobody was entitled to quote under the Sales Tax Assessment Act 1992 for the importation; and
 - (iii) you did not hold the goods, at any time prior to 1 July 2000, for a purpose other than for sale or exchange in the ordinary course of business.

9 After subsection 16(4)

Insert:

- (4A) The special credit is treated as though it were an input tax credit for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (see Division 27 and sections 110-45 and 110-50).

10 After section 19

Insert:

19A Sales of motor vehicles held under operating leases since 2 December 1998

- (1) If, in relation to a supply of a motor vehicle, all of the following conditions are met, the supplier of the vehicle is entitled to a special credit equal to $\frac{1}{11}$ of the price of the supply:
 - (a) the supply is the first sale of the motor vehicle to take place on or after 1 July 2000;
 - (b) the supplier was, immediately before the sale, the lessor of the motor vehicle under an operating lease;
 - (c) the supplier bought the motor vehicle before 2 December 1998 for the purpose of leasing it under an operating lease;
 - (d) the motor vehicle has been the subject of sales tax.
- (2) The special credit is treated as though it were an input tax credit attributable to any one tax period of your choice.
- (3) In this section:

operating lease means a lease under which the lessor effectively retains substantially all risks and benefits incidental to the ownership of the motor vehicle.

11 After subsection 20(3)

Insert:

(3A) If:

- (a) you are a member of a GST group; and
- (b) you make an acquisition from another member of that group; and
- (c) your entitlement to an input tax credit on the acquisition is affected by subsection (2) or (3); paragraph 48-40(2)(a) of the GST Act does not apply to the supply to which the acquisition relates.

Note: Paragraph 48-40(2)(a) of the GST Act prevents supplies between members of a GST group being treated as taxable supplies.

12 Section 23

Repeal the section, substitute:

23 Input tax credits for insurance premiums

- (1) You are not entitled to an input tax credit for a premium paid on an insurance policy before 1 July 2003 unless:
 - (a) you are registered; and
 - (b) you have notified the Commissioner, in the approved form, that you intend to claim all input tax credits for which you are entitled for payments of the premiums on insurance policies before 1 July 2003; and
 - (c) the policy commences on or after the day on which your notification takes effect.
- (2) You may only notify the Commissioner once, and you may not revoke your notification.
- (3) You may only notify the Commissioner:
 - (a) before you become registered; or
 - (b) at the time that you lodge a GST return.
- (4) Your notification takes effect on:
 - (a) if you notified the Commissioner before you became registered—the date of effect of your registration; or

- (b) if you notified the Commissioner at the time that you lodged a GST return—the day after the day on which you lodged the GST return.

A New Tax System (Wine Equalisation Tax and Luxury Car Tax Transition) Act 1999

13 Subsections 3(2) and (3)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

- (2) However, this section:
- (a) does not apply if you have borne sales tax in respect of the wine at a rate that is less than 20%; and
 - (b) does not apply to second-hand goods.
- (3) If you have borne sales tax in respect of the wine at a rate of more than 26%, the amount of the special credit is equal to ¹²/₄₁ of the amount of sales tax that you have borne in respect of the wine.
- (3A) If you have borne sales tax in respect of the wine at a rate of not more than 26% but at least 20%, the amount of the special credit is as follows:

$$\text{Sales tax amount} \times \frac{\text{Sales tax rate} - 14\%}{\text{Sales tax rate}}$$

where:

sales tax amount is the amount of sales tax that you have borne in respect of the wine.

sales tax rate is the rate at which you have borne sales tax in respect of the wine.

14 Subsection 3(6)

Insert:

sales tax means any tax imposed under the name of sales tax by any Act.

Schedule 7—Amendments relating to the Tradex Scheme

Part 1—Amendments commencing before 1 July 2000

Sales Tax Assessment Act 1992

1 Section 5 (definition of Australian-used goods)

Omit “and 10”, substitute “, 10 and 10A”.

2 Section 5

Insert:

tradex order has the meaning given by section 4 of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999.

3 Section 5

Insert:

tradex scheme goods means imported goods that:

- (a) are nominated goods (within the meaning of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999) in relation to a tradex order; and
- (b) were covered by exemption Item 185A at the time of their local entry.

However, the goods cease to be tradex scheme goods if:

- (c) any of the circumstances referred to in subsection 21(1) of that Act occur in respect of any of the goods; or
- (d) the goods are exported.

4 After section 10

Insert:

10A Tradex scheme goods: affects meaning of Australian-used goods

- (1) This section applies to goods if they were tradex scheme goods and are no longer tradex scheme goods.

- (2) In applying the sales tax law at or after the time such a circumstance occurs, or the goods are exported, the goods are not taken to be Australian-used goods only because of an AOU of the goods that happened during the period:
- (a) starting when the goods became tradex scheme goods; and
 - (b) ending when the goods ceased to be tradex scheme goods.

5 Schedule 1 (at the end of Table 2)

Add:

LE15	the goods were tradex scheme goods and ceased to be tradex scheme goods because any of the circumstances referred to in subsection 21(1) of that Act have occurred in respect of any of the goods	holder (within the meaning of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999) of the tradex order relating to the goods	the earliest occasion on which any of those circumstances occurs in respect of any of the goods

12 Subsection 42-5(1)

After “21,”, insert “21A,”.

13 At the end of Part 4-4

Add:

Division 141—Tradex scheme goods

141-1 What this Division is about

The holder of a tradex order has an increasing adjustment if goods relating to that order are dealt with contrary to the Tradex Scheme.

Note: GST would not have been payable on importation of the goods under the Tradex Scheme: see section 42-5.

141-5 Adjustments for applying goods contrary to the Tradex Scheme

- (1) You have an increasing adjustment if:
- (a) you import *tradex scheme goods; and
 - (b) you are the holder (within the meaning of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999) of the *tradex order relating to the goods; and
 - (c) the importation would have been a *taxable importation if the goods had not been covered by item 21A of Schedule 4 to the Customs Tariff Act 1995 at the time of their entry for home consumption under the Customs Act 1901; and
 - (d) any of the circumstances referred to in subsection 21(1) of that Act occur in respect of any of the goods.

However, the increasing adjustment only arises in relation to the first occurrence of such a circumstance following an importation of the goods.

- (2) The amount of the *increasing adjustment is the difference between:
- (a) the amount of GST that would have been payable on the importation if the importation had been a *taxable importation; and
 - (b) the amount (if any) of the input tax credit to which you would have been entitled for the importation if the importation had been a taxable importation.

141-10 Meaning of tradex scheme goods etc.

- (1) Tradex scheme goods are imported goods that:
- (a) are nominated goods (within the meaning of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999) in relation to a *tradex order; and
 - (b) were covered by item 21A in Schedule 4 to the Customs Tariff Act 1995 at the time of their entry for home consumption under the Customs Act 1901.
- (2) Tradex order has the meaning given by section 4 of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999.

LE14A the wine is *tradex scheme goods, and any of the circumstances referred to in subsection 21(1) of that Act have occurred in respect of any of the wine holder (within the meaning of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999) of the *tradex order relating to the wine

18 Subsection 7-15(1)

After “21,”, insert “21A,”.

19 Section 33-1

Insert:

tradex order has the meaning given by section 4 of the Tradex Scheme Act 1999.

20 Section 33-1

Insert:

tradex scheme goods has the meaning given by subsection 141-10(1) of the *GST Act.

Part VIII—Offences Relating to Goods and Services Tax18 Application of Parts I and II in relation to goods and services tax

- (1) Without prejudice to their effect apart from this section, subsection 3(3), paragraph 3(4)(e) and the provisions of Part II (other than section 8 and subsection 10(3)) also have the effect they would have if:
 - (a) a reference in any of those provisions to sales tax were a reference to GST; and
 - (b) a reference in any of those provisions to future sales tax were a reference to future GST; and
 - (c) a reference in any of those provisions to some one or other of the Sales Tax Assessment Acts were a reference to the GST law; and

- (d) a reference in any of those provisions, in relation to a company or trustee, to sales tax moneys, were a reference to GST moneys.
- (2) In applying the provisions of Part II (other than section 8 and subsection 10(3)) in accordance with subsection (1):
- (a) a reference in any of those provisions to the GST payable by a company or trustee, in relation to the purpose, or a purpose, of a person's entering into, or a person's knowledge or belief concerning, an arrangement or transaction is to be read as a reference to some or all of the GST due and payable by the company or the trustee at the time when the arrangement or transaction was entered into; and
 - (b) a reference in any of those provisions to future GST payable by a company or trustee, in relation to the purpose, or a purpose, of a person's entering into, or a person's knowledge or belief concerning, an arrangement or transaction is to be read as a reference to some or all of the GST that may reasonably be expected by that person to become payable by the company or trustee after the arrangement or transaction is entered into; and
 - (c) a reference in any of those provisions (other than subsections 10(1) and (2)), in relation to a company or trustee, to GST moneys is to be read as a reference to:
 - (i) GST payable by the company or trustee; and
 - (ii) costs ordered by a court against a company or trustee in a proceeding for the recovery of GST; and
 - (d) a reference in subsections 10(1) and (2) to GST moneys is to be read as a reference to GST payable under the GST Act.
- (3) In applying subsection 10(2) and sections 11 and 12 in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the liability of a company or trustee in respect of GST moneys that have been assessed is not to be taken not to be finally determined merely because of the possibility of the Commissioner's amending the assessment (otherwise than as a result of allowing an objection or to give effect to a decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court).

- (c) a reference in any of those provisions (other than subsections 10(1) and (2)), in relation to a company or trustee, to wine tax moneys is to be read as a reference to:
 - (i) wine tax payable by the company or trustee; and
 - (ii) costs ordered by a court against a company or trustee in a proceeding for the recovery of wine tax; and
 - (d) a reference in subsections 10(1) and (2) to wine tax moneys is to be read as a reference to wine tax payable under the Wine Equalisation Tax Act.
- (3) In applying subsection 10(2) and sections 11 and 12 in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the liability of a company or trustee in respect of wine tax moneys that have been assessed is not to be taken not to be finally determined merely because of the possibility of the Commissioner's amending the assessment (otherwise than as a result of allowing an objection or to give effect to a decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court).

Part X—Offences Relating to Luxury Car Tax

20 Application of Parts I and II in relation to luxury car tax

- (1) Without prejudice to their effect apart from this section, subsection 3(3), paragraph 3(4)(e) and the provisions of Part II (other than section 8 and subsection 10(3)) also have the effect they would have if:
 - (a) a reference in any of those provisions to sales tax were a reference to luxury car tax; and
 - (b) a reference in any of those provisions to future sales tax were a reference to future luxury car tax; and
 - (c) a reference in any of those provisions to some one or other of the Sales Tax Assessment Acts were a reference to the luxury car tax law; and
 - (d) a reference in any of those provisions, in relation to a company or trustee, to sales tax moneys, were a reference to luxury car tax moneys.
 - (2) In applying the provisions of Part II (other than section 8 and subsection 10(3)) in accordance with subsection (1):

- (a) a reference in any of those provisions to the luxury car tax payable by a company or trustee, in relation to the purpose, or a purpose, of a person's entering into, or a person's knowledge or belief concerning, an arrangement or transaction is to be read as a reference to some or all of the luxury car tax due and payable by the company or the trustee at the time when the arrangement or transaction was entered into; and
- (b) a reference in any of those provisions to future luxury car tax payable by a company or trustee, in relation to the purpose, or a purpose, of a person's entering into, or a person's knowledge or belief concerning, an arrangement or transaction is to be read as a reference to some or all of the luxury car tax that may reasonably be expected by that person to become payable by the company or trustee after the arrangement or transaction is entered into; and
- (c) a reference in any of those provisions (other than subsections 10(1) and (2)), in relation to a company or trustee, to luxury car tax moneys is to be read as a reference to:
- (i) luxury car tax payable by the company or trustee; and
 - (ii) costs ordered by a court against a company or trustee in a proceeding for the recovery of luxury car tax; and
- (d) a reference in subsections 10(1) and (2) to luxury car tax moneys is to be read as a reference to luxury car tax payable under the Luxury Car Tax Act.
- (3) In applying subsection 10(2) and sections 11 and 12 in accordance with subsections (1) and (2), the liability of a company or trustee in respect of luxury car tax moneys that have been assessed is not to be taken not to be finally determined merely because of the possibility of the Commissioner's amending the assessment (otherwise than as a result of allowing an objection or to give effect to a decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal or a court).
