Tax Laws Amendment (2005 Measures No. 2) Act 2005

No. 78, 2005

An Act to amend the law relating to taxation, and for related purposes

[Assented to 29 June 2005]

The Parliament of Australia enacts:

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Tax Laws Amendment (2005 Measures No. 2) Act 2005.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the day on which it receives the Royal Assent.

3 Schedule(s)

Each Act that is specified in a Schedule to this Act is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule concerned, and any other item in a Schedule to this Act has effect according to its terms.

Schedule 1—Simplified imputation system

Income Tax Assessment Act 1997

1 Subsection 205-70(2) (steps 1 and 2 of the method statement)

After “Then”, insert “, subject to subsection (5) (which relates to a *private company’s first year of tax liability),”.

2 At the end of section 205-70

Add:

30% reduction will generally not apply to private company’s first year of tax liability

- (5) The 30% reductions in steps 1 and 2 of the method statement in subsection (2) do not apply in working out the amount of the *tax offset to which the entity is entitled for the relevant year if:
- (a) the entity is a *private company for the relevant year; and
 - (b) if the company did not have the tax offset (but had all its other tax offsets) it would have had an income tax liability for the relevant year; and
 - (c) the company has not had an income tax liability for any income year before the relevant year; and
 - (d) the amount of the liability referred to in paragraph (b) is at least 90% of the amount of the *deficit in the company’s *franking account at the end of the relevant year.

3 Application

The amendments made by this Schedule apply to assessments for the income year in which the amendments commence and later income years.

Schedule 2—CGT roll-over for transfer of assets to superannuation funds with licensed trustees

Income Tax Assessment Act 1997

1 Section 112-150 (at the end of the table)

Add:

- 9 Transfer of CGT assets between 30 June 2004 and Subdivision 126-F
1 July 2006 from a superannuation fund whose trustee is not licensed to one or more superannuation funds whose trustees are or will be licensed

2 At the end of Division 126

Add:

Subdivision 126-F—Transfer of assets of superannuation funds to meet licensing requirements

Guide to Subdivision 126-F

126-200 What this Subdivision is about

There is a roll-over for the transfer of assets of a superannuation fund to one or more other superannuation funds that is made between 30 June 2004 and 1 July 2006 because the trustee of the first fund will not be licensed by 1 July 2006 and the other funds have or will have licensed trustees.

Operative provisions

- 126-205 Object of this Subdivision
126-210 When there is a roll-over and what its effects are

Operative provisions

126-205 Object of this Subdivision

The object of this Subdivision is to encourage compliance with the requirements of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 for the licensing of trustees of registrable superannuation entities.

126-210 When there is a roll-over and what its effects are

When there is a roll-over

- (1) There is a roll-over if:
- (a) after 30 June 2004 and before 1 July 2006, one or more *CGT events happen because the trustee (the first RSE trustee) of a registrable superannuation entity, as defined in section 10 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, ceases to hold all its *CGT assets; and
 - (b) because of the cessation, CGT assets (the identical assets) that, together, are identical to all the first RSE trustee's CGT assets just before the CGT events start to be held after 30 June 2004 and before 1 July 2006 by:
 - (i) the trustee (the successor RSE trustee) of another such registrable superannuation entity; or
 - (ii) the trustees (each of whom is a successor RSE trustee) of 2 or more other such registrable superannuation entities;(whether or not all the identical assets were the first RSE trustee's assets just before the CGT events); and
 - (c) the cessation and starting occur because:
 - (i) it is reasonable to assume that the first RSE trustee will not have an RSE licence under Part 2A of that Act by 1 July 2006; and
 - (ii) each successor RSE trustee has such an RSE licence, or it is reasonable to assume that each successor RSE trustee will have such an RSE licence by 1 July 2006.

Note: Under section 10 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, registrable superannuation entity is defined as covering certain kinds of superannuation funds, approved deposit funds and pooled superannuation trusts.

Effects of the roll-over

- (2) A *capital gain or *capital loss the first RSE trustee makes from each of the *CGT events is disregarded.
- (3) For a successor RSE trustee, the first element of the *cost base of each of the identical assets the successor RSE trustee holds is the cost base of the corresponding asset for the first RSE trustee at the time of the relevant *CGT event.
- (4) For a successor RSE trustee, the first element of the *reduced cost base of each of the identical assets the successor RSE trustee holds is the reduced cost base of the corresponding asset for the first RSE trustee at the time of the relevant *CGT event.

Example: There is a roll-over if the first RSE trustee had a block of land and 10,000 units in a unit trust and the following events happen on 30 June 2006 because the first RSE trustee does not have an RSE licence but each of the 2 successor RSE trustees (successor RSE trustee A and successor RSE trustee B) does:

- (a) the first RSE trustee transfers the block to successor RSE trustee A;
- (b) the first RSE trustee's units in the unit trust are cancelled at the first RSE trustee's request;
- (c) 10,000 identical units in the unit trust are issued to successor RSE trustee B because of the cancellation.

The first RSE trustee disregards any capital gain or capital loss from the transfer of the block or the cancellation of the units.

The first element of successor RSE trustee A's cost base and reduced cost base for the block is the same as the first RSE trustee's cost base and reduced cost base respectively for the block at the time of the transfer.

The first element of successor RSE trustee B's cost base and reduced cost base for the units issued to successor RSE trustee B is the same as the first RSE trustee's cost base and reduced cost base respectively for its units at the time they were cancelled.

- (5) A successor RSE trustee that starts to hold one of the identical assets because of the cessation is taken to have *acquired the asset before 20 September 1985 if the first RSE trustee acquired the corresponding asset before that day.

Note 1: A capital gain or loss you make from a CGT asset you acquired before 20 September 1985 is generally disregarded: see Division 104. This exemption is removed in some situations: see Division 149.

Note 2: Subsection (5) cannot apply if the first RSE trustee was the trustee of a complying superannuation fund, complying approved deposit fund or pooled superannuation trust. This is because section 306 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 treats such a trustee as having acquired on 30 June 1988 any assets it owned on that day.

No roll-over if successor RSE trustee not licensed

- (6) A roll-over under this section is taken never to have happened if each successor RSE trustee does not have an RSE licence under Part 2A of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 by 1 July 2006.

Schedule 3—Deducting expenditure on telecommunications rights

Part 1—IRUs

Income Tax Assessment Act 1997

1 Subsections 40-45(3) and (4)

Repeal the subsections.

2 Subsection 40-95(9)

Omit “international telecommunications submarine”, substitute “telecommunications”.

3 Subsection 995-1(1) (definition of IRU)

Omit “an international telecommunications submarine”, substitute “a telecommunications”.

Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997

4 After section 40-45

Insert:

40-47 IRUs

- (1) Division 40 of the new Act does not apply to an IRU to the extent to which expenditure on the IRU was incurred at or before 11.45 am, by legal time in the Australian Capital Territory, on 21 September 1999 (the IRU time).
- (2) Division 40 of the new Act does not apply to an IRU over an international telecommunications submarine cable system if the system had been used for telecommunications purposes at or before the IRU time.

5 Application of amendments

- (1) The amendments made by items 2 and 3 apply in relation to expenditure incurred on or after 12 May 2004.

- (2) Those amendments do not apply to expenditure incurred by an entity to acquire an IRU if:
- (a) the IRU was acquired by the entity before 12 May 2004; and
 - (b) the entity becomes a member of a consolidated group or MEC group on or after that day; and
 - (c) because of subsection 701-55(2) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, the IRU is taken to have been acquired on or after that day.
- (3) However, if:
- (a) an entity incurs expenditure on or after 12 May 2004 relating to an IRU (the new right) granted to the entity on or after that day for a cable system; and
 - (b) before that day, the entity had another IRU (the earlier right) to use that cable system;

then, to the extent (if any) that the new right covers the level of capacity over that cable system that the earlier right covered, the amendments made by items 2 and 3 do not apply to so much of the expenditure as is reasonably attributable to that level of capacity.

Part 2—Rights of access to telecommunications sites

Income Tax Assessment Act 1997

6 Section 12-5 (table item headed “capital allowances”)

Before:

trading ships, special depreciation 57AM

insert:

telecommunications site access rights Subdivision 40-B

7 Section 12-5 (after the table item headed “tax related expenses”)

Insert:

telecommunications site access rights

see capital allowances

8 At the end of subsection 40-30(2)

Add:

; (h) *telecommunications site access rights.

9 At the end of subsection 40-70(2)

Add:

; or (e) a *telecommunications site access right.

10 Subsection 40-95(7) (at the end of the table)

Add:

14 *Telecommunications site access The term of the right right

11 Subsection 995-1(1)

Insert:

telecommunications site access right means a right (except an *IRU) of a carrier (as defined in the Telecommunications Act 1997):

- (a) to share a facility (as defined in section 7 of that Act); or
- (b) to install such a facility at a particular location or on a particular structure; or
- (c) to enter or cross premises for the purposes of installing or maintaining such a facility that is on the premises, or is at a location, or on a structure, that is accessible by way of the premises.

12 Application of amendments

- (1) The amendments made by this Part apply in relation to expenditure incurred on or after 12 May 2004.
- (2) Those amendments do not apply to expenditure incurred by an entity to acquire a right if:
 - (a) the right was acquired by the entity before 12 May 2004; and
 - (b) the entity becomes a member of a consolidated group or MEC group on or after that day; and
 - (c) because of subsection 701-55(2) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, the right is taken to have been acquired on or after that day.
- (3) However, if:
 - (a) an entity incurs expenditure on or after 12 May 2004 relating to telecommunications site access rights (the new rights) granted to the entity on or after that day in relation to a facility; and
 - (b) before that day, the entity had other telecommunications site access rights (the earlier rights) of the same kind in relation to the same facility; and
 - (c) the earlier rights end before they would ordinarily have ended under the contract under which they were granted;

then, to the extent (if any) that the new rights provide the same ability to share the facility, install the facility or enter or cross the premises as the earlier rights, the amendments made by this Part do not apply to so much of the expenditure as is reasonably attributable to the extent of that ability.

Schedule 4—Changing from annual to quarterly payment of PAYG instalments

Taxation Administration Act 1953

1 Subsection 45-50(3) in Schedule 1 (note)

Repeal the note.

2 Paragraph 45-125(2)(b) in Schedule 1

Repeal the paragraph.

4 Section 45-150 in Schedule 1

Repeal the section, substitute:

- (b) you must pay an instalment for each instalment quarter in the next income year for which subsection 45-50(1) or (2) requires you to do so.
- (3) You may again become an *annual payer if:

by this Schedule, that paragraph and section, as in force immediately before the repeal, continue to apply in relation to income years starting before the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

 - (c) granting or selling a *long-term lease;
- if you and the *recipient of the supply have agreed in writing that the margin scheme is to apply.

(1A) The agreement must be made:

- (a) on or before the making of the supply; or
- (b) within such further period as the Commissioner allows.

Note: Refusing to allow, or allowing, a further period within which to make an agreement is a reviewable GST decision (see Division 7 of Part VI of the Taxation Administration Act 1953).

11 Subsection 75-5(2)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

(2) However, the *margin scheme does not apply if you acquired the entire freehold interest, *stratum unit or *long-term lease through a supply that was *ineligible for the margin scheme.

- (a) it is a *taxable supply on which the GST was worked out without applying the *margin scheme; or
- (b) it is a supply of a thing you acquired by *inheriting it from a deceased person, and the deceased person had acquired all of it through a supply that was ineligible for the margin scheme; or

- (a) that was ineligible for the margin scheme because of one or more previous applications of subsection (3); or
 - (b) that would have been ineligible for the margin scheme for that reason if subsection (3) had been in force at all relevant times.

Insert:

75-11 Margins for supplies of real property in particular circumstances

Margin for supply of real property acquired from fellow member of GST group

- (1) If:
- (a) you acquired the interest, unit or lease in question at a time when both you and the entity from whom you acquired it were *members of the same *GST group; and
 - (b) on or after 1 July 2000, there has been a supply (an earlier supply) of the interest, unit or lease that occurred at a time when the supplier was not a member of the GST group; and
 - (ba) the *recipient was at that time, or subsequently became, a member of the GST group;

the margin for the supply you make is the amount by which the *consideration for the supply exceeds:

- (c) the consideration for the last such earlier supply, if the supplier and the recipient were not *associates at that time; or
- (d) the *GST inclusive market value of the interest, unit or lease at that time, if the 2 entities were associates at that time.

(2) If:

- (a) you acquired the interest, unit or lease in question at a time when both you and the entity from whom you acquired it were *members of the same *GST group; and
- (b) subsection (1) does not apply;

the margin for the supply you make is the amount by which the *consideration for the supply exceeds an *approved valuation of the interest, unit or lease as at 1 July 2000.

Margin for supply of real property acquired from joint venture operator of a GST joint venture

(2A) If:

- (a) you acquired the interest, unit or lease in question at a time when you were a *participant in a *GST joint venture and the entity from whom you acquired it was the *joint venture operator of the joint venture; and
- (b) you acquired the interest, unit or lease for consumption, use or supply in the course of activities for which the joint venture was entered into; and
- (c) on or after 1 July 2000, there has been a supply (an earlier supply) of the interest, unit or lease to the entity from whom you acquired it (whether or not that entity was the joint venture operator of the joint venture at the time of that acquisition);

the margin for the supply you make is the amount by which the *consideration for the supply exceeds:

- (d) the consideration for the last such earlier supply, if the supplier and the *recipient were not *associates at the time of the earlier supply; or
- (e) the *GST inclusive market value of interest, unit or lease at that time, if the 2 entities were associates at that time.

(2B) If:

- (a) you acquired the interest, unit or lease in question at a time when you were a *participant in a *GST joint venture and the entity from whom you acquired it was the *joint venture operator of the joint venture; and
- (b) you acquired the interest, unit or lease for consumption, use or supply in the course of activities for which the joint venture was entered into; and
- (c) subsection (2A) does not apply;

the margin for the supply you make is the amount by which the *consideration for the supply exceeds an *approved valuation of the interest, unit or lease as at 1 July 2000.

Margin for supply of real property acquired from deceased estate

(3) If:

- (a) you acquired the interest, unit or lease in question by *inheriting it; and
- (b) none of subsections (1) to (2B) applies; and
- (c) the entity from whom you inherited the interest, unit or lease (the deceased) acquired it before 1 July 2000;

the margin for the supply you make is the amount by which the *consideration for the supply exceeds:

- (ca) if you know what was the consideration for the supply of the interest, unit or lease to the deceased and you choose to use that consideration to work out the margin for the supply—that consideration; or
- (d) if paragraph (ca) does not apply and, immediately before the time at which you inherited the interest, unit or lease, the deceased was neither *registered nor *required to be registered—an *approved valuation of the interest, unit or lease as at the latest of:
 - (i) 1 July 2000; or
 - (ii) the day on which you inherited the interest, unit or lease; or
 - (iii) the first day on which you registered or were required to be registered; or
- (e) if paragraph (ca) does not apply and, immediately before the time at which you inherited the interest, unit or lease, the deceased was registered or required to be registered—an approved valuation of the interest, unit or lease as at the later of:

- (i) 1 July 2000; or
- (ii) the first day on which the deceased registered or was required to be registered.

(4) If:

- (a) you acquired the interest, unit or lease in question by *inheriting it; and
- (b) none of subsections (1) to (2B) applies; and
- (c) the entity from whom you inherited the interest, unit or lease (the deceased) acquired it on or after 1 July 2000;

the margin for the supply you make is the amount by which the *consideration for the supply exceeds:

- (d) if you know what was the consideration for the supply of the interest, unit or lease to the deceased and you choose to use that consideration to work out the margin for the supply—that consideration; or
- (e) if paragraph (d) does not apply—an *approved valuation of the interest, unit or lease as at the day on which the deceased acquired it.

Margin for supply of real property acquired from associate

(7) If:

- (a) you acquired the interest, unit or lease in question from an entity who was your *associate at the time of the acquisition; and

- (b) none of the other subsections of this section apply;

the margin for the supply you make is the amount by which the *consideration for the supply exceeds:

- (c) if your acquisition was made before 1 July 2000—an *approved valuation of the interest, unit or lease as at 1 July 2000; or
- (d) if your acquisition was made on or after 1 July 2000—the *GST inclusive market value of the interest, unit or lease at the time of the acquisition.

(8) Subsection (7) applies to an acquisition through a supply made by:

- (a) a *GST branch; or

- (b) a *non-profit sub-entity; or
- (c) a *government entity of a kind referred to in section 72-95 or 72-100;

75-12 Working out margins to take into account failure to pay full consideration

In working out the *margin for a *taxable supply of *real property you make (the later supply), if:

- (a) you had acquired the interest, unit or lease in question through a supply (the earlier supply); and
- (b) the *consideration for:
 - (i) if your acquisition was not an acquisition from a *member of a *GST group of which you were also a member at the time of the acquisition—the earlier supply; or
 - (ii) if your acquisition was such an acquisition—the last supply of the interest, unit or lease at a time when the supplier of that last supply was not, but the *recipient of that last supply was, a member of the GST group; had not been paid in full at the time of the later supply; treat the amount of the consideration as having been reduced by the amount of unpaid consideration referred to in paragraph (b).

Note: If you subsequently pay more of the consideration for the earlier supply, you may have a decreasing adjustment: see section 75-27.

75-13 Working out margins to take into account supplies to associates

In working out the *margin for a *taxable supply of *real property you make to an entity who is your *associate at the time of the supply, treat the *consideration for the supply as if it were the same as the *GST inclusive market value of the interest, unit or lease at the time of the supply.

75-14 Consideration for acquisition of real property not to include cost of improvements etc.

- (1) To avoid doubt, in working out the *consideration for an acquisition for the purposes of applying the *margin scheme to a *taxable supply of *real property, disregard:
 - (a) the cost or value of any other acquisitions that have been made by you, or any work that has been performed, in relation to the real property; and
 - (b) the cost or value of any other acquisitions that are intended to be made by you, or any work that is intended to be performed, in relation to the real property after its acquisition; including acquisitions or work connected with bringing into existence the interest, unit or lease supplied.
- (2) This section does not affect what constitutes *consideration for a purpose not connected with applying the *margin scheme.
