4 Amendment of assessments

Section 170 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 does not prevent the amendment of an assessment if:

- (a) the assessment was made before the commencement of this section; and
- (b) the amendment is made within 4 years after that commencement; and
- (c) the amendment is made for the purpose of giving effect to Schedule 2.

Schedule 1—Marriage breakdown roll-over

Income Tax Assessment Act 1997

1 At the end of Subdivision 118-A

Add:

118-75 Marriage breakdown settlements

- (1) A *capital gain or *capital loss you make as a result of *CGT event C2 happening is disregarded if:
 - (a) you make the gain or loss in relation to a right that directly relates to the breakdown of a marriage or de facto marriage; and
 - (b) at the time of the CGT event:
 - (i) you and your *spouse or former spouse are separated; and
 - (ii) there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed.

Example: Maude receives an amount from Claude by way of a settlement directly related to the breakdown of their marriage. CGT event C2 would happen to Maude on satisfaction of her legally enforceable right to the amount. Any capital gain or loss that Maude makes in these circumstances is disregarded.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, the question whether *spouses or former spouses have separated is to be determined in the same way as it is for the purposes of section 48 of the Family Law Act 1975 (as affected by sections 49 and 50 of that Act).

2 Before section 118-180

Insert:

Roll-overs under Subdivision 126-A

118-178 Previous roll-over under Subdivision 126-A

- (1) This section applies to you if:

- (a) you *acquired an *ownership interest in a *dwelling from another person (your former partner) as a result of a *CGT event (the earlier event); and
 - (b) your former partner acquired the ownership interest on or after 20 September 1985; and
 - (c) there was a roll-over under Subdivision 126-A (marriage breakdown roll-over) for the earlier event; and
 - (d) a CGT event (the later event) happens in relation to the ownership interest.
- (2) This Subdivision applies to the later event in the way that it would if:
- (a) your *ownership interest had commenced when your former partner's ownership interest commenced (the acquisition time); and
 - (b) from the acquisition time until the time your former partner's ownership interest ended:
 - (i) you had used the *dwelling in the same way that your former partner used it; and
 - (ii) the dwelling had been your main residence for the same number of days as it was your former partner's main residence.

Example 1: Peter (the transferor spouse) is the 100% owner of a dwelling that he uses only as a main residence before transferring it to Susan (the transferee spouse). Susan uses the dwelling only as a rental property. Susan will be eligible for a partial main residence exemption having regard to how both Peter and Susan used the dwelling.

Example 2: Caroline (the transferor spouse) is the 100% owner of a dwelling that she uses only as a rental property before transferring it to David (the transferee spouse). David uses the dwelling only as a main residence. David will be eligible for only a partial main residence exemption having regard to how both Caroline and David used the dwelling.

3 At the end of subsection 126-5(1)

Add:

; or (d) something done under:

- (i) a financial agreement made under Part VIIIA of the Family Law Act 1975 that is binding because of section 90G of that Act; or

- (ii) a corresponding written agreement that is binding because of a corresponding foreign law; or
- (e) something done under:
 - (i) an award made in an arbitration referred to in section 13H of the Family Law Act 1975; or
 - (ii) a corresponding award made in an arbitration under a corresponding State law, Territory law or foreign law; or
- (f) something done under a written agreement:
 - (i) that is binding because of a State law, Territory law or foreign law relating to de facto marriage breakdowns; and
 - (ii) that, because of such a law, cannot be overridden by an order of a court (except to avoid injustice).

4 After subsection 126-5(3)

Insert:

- (3A) There is no roll-over because of paragraph (1)(d) or (f) unless the conditions set out in section 126-25 are met.

5 Subsection 126-5(5) (note)

Omit “Note”, substitute “Note 1”.

6 At the end of subsection 126-5(5)

Add:

- Note 2: A roll-over under this Subdivision may have an effect on the transferee’s main residence exemption: see sections 118-178 and 118-180.

7 At the end of subsection 126-15(1)

Add:

- ; or (d) something done under:

- (f) something done under a written agreement:
 - (i) that is binding because of a State law, Territory law or foreign law relating to de facto marriage breakdowns; and
 - (ii) that, because of such a law, cannot be overridden by an order of a court (except to avoid injustice).

8 At the end of section 126-15

Add:

- (5) There is no roll-over because of paragraph (1)(d) or (f) unless the conditions set out in section 126-25 are met.

9 At the end of Subdivision 126-A

Add:

126-25 Conditions for the purposes of subsections 126-5(3A) and 126-15(5)

- (1) The conditions referred to in subsections 126-5(3A) and 126-15(5) are that:
 - (a) at the time of the trigger event:
 - (i) the *spouses, or former spouses, involved are separated; and
 - (ii) there is no reasonable likelihood of cohabitation being resumed; and
 - (b) the trigger event happened because of reasons directly connected with the breakdown of the marriage or de facto marriage.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the question whether *spouses or former spouses have separated is to be determined in the same way as it is for the purposes of section 48 of the Family Law Act 1975 (as affected by sections 49 and 50 of that Act).

10 Application

- (1) The amendment made by item 1 of this Schedule applies to CGT events that happen after the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

After “in relation to an asset”, insert “(the roll-over asset)”.

3 Paragraph 701-35(1)(b)

Omit “that asset”, substitute “the roll-over asset”.

4 Paragraph 701-35(1)(b)

Omit “the roll-over had not occurred or there had been no such roll-over relief”, substitute “the act, transaction or event that gave rise to the CGT event had not occurred in relation to the roll-over asset”.

5 Subsection 701-35(1)

Omit “CGT event had not happened”, substitute “act, transaction or event had not occurred in relation to the roll-over asset”.

6 After subsection 701-35(2)

Division 855—Capital gains and foreign residents

Table of Subdivisions

Guide to Division 855

855-A Disregarding a capital gain or loss by foreign residents

855-B Becoming an Australian resident

Guide to Division 855

855-1 What this Division is about

A foreign resident can disregard a capital gain or loss unless the relevant CGT asset is a direct or indirect interest in Australian real property, or relates to a business carried on by the foreign resident through a permanent establishment in Australia.

Special rules apply for individuals who were Australian residents but have become foreign residents (see also Subdivision 104-I) and for foreign resident beneficiaries of fixed trusts.

There are also rules dealing with what happens when a foreign resident becomes an Australian resident.

Subdivision 855-A—Disregarding a capital gain or loss by foreign residents

Table of sections

855-5	Objects of this Subdivision
855-10	Disregarding a capital gain or loss from CGT events
855-15	When an asset is taxable Australian property
855-20	Taxable Australian real property
855-25	Indirect Australian real property interests
855-30	Principal asset test
855-35	Reducing a capital gain or loss from a business asset—Australian permanent establishments
855-40	Capital gains and losses of foreign residents through fixed trusts

855-5 Objects of this Subdivision

- (1) The objects of this Subdivision are to improve:
 - (a) Australia's status as an attractive place for business and investment; and
 - (b) the integrity of Australia's capital gains tax base.
- (2) This is achieved by:
 - (a) aligning Australia's tax laws with international practice; and
 - (b) ensuring interests in an entity remain subject to Australia's capital gains tax laws if the entity's underlying value is principally derived from Australian real property.

855-10 Disregarding a capital gain or loss from CGT events

- (1) Disregard a *capital gain or *capital loss from a *CGT event if:
 - (a) you are a foreign resident, or the trustee of a *foreign trust for CGT purposes, just before the CGT event happens; and
 - (b) the CGT event happens in relation to a *CGT asset that is not *taxable Australian property.

Note: A capital gain or capital loss from a CGT asset you have used at any time in carrying on a business through a permanent establishment in Australia may be reduced under section 855-35.

- (2) The *CGT asset in relation to which a *CGT event happens includes the following:

Schedule 4 CGT and foreign residents
Part 1 Main amendments

- (a) for CGT event D1 (about creating contractual or other rights)—the CGT asset that is the subject of the creation of the contractual or other rights;

Example: You grant an easement over land in Australia. The land is the subject of the creation of the rights in the easement. Therefore, the CGT event happens in relation to the land.

- (b) for CGT event D2 (about granting an option)—the CGT asset that is the subject of the option;
- (c) for CGT event F1 (about granting a lease)—the CGT asset that is the subject of the lease;
- (d) for CGT event J1 (about a company ceasing to be a member of wholly-owned group after roll-over)—the roll-over asset.

855-15 When an asset is taxable Australian property

There are 5 categories of *CGT assets that are taxable Australian property. They are set out in this table.

CGT assets that are taxable Australian property
Item	Description
1	*Taxable Australian real property (see section 855-20)
2	A *CGT asset that: (a) is an *indirect Australian real property interest (see section 855-25); and (b) is not covered by item 5 of this table
3	A *CGT asset that: (a) you have used at any time in carrying on a *business through a permanent establishment (within the meaning of section 23AH of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) in Australia; and (b) is not covered by item 1, 2 or 5 of this table
4	An option or right to *acquire a *CGT asset covered by item 1, 2 or 3 of this table
5	A *CGT asset that is covered by subsection 104-165(3) (choosing to disregard a gain or loss on ceasing to be an Australian resident)
	Note: An asset is also taxable Australian property if it was acquired by a company after 28 January 1988 and before 26 May 1988 from a foreign resident as a result of a disposal for which there was a roll-over under section 160ZZN or 160ZZO of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 : see section 136-25 of the Income Tax (Transitional Provisions) Act 1997 .

855-20 Taxable Australian real property

A *CGT asset is taxable Australian real property if it is:

- (a) real property situated in Australia; or
- (b) a *mining, quarrying or prospecting right (to the extent that the right is not real property), if the minerals, *petroleum or quarry materials are situated in Australia.

855-25 Indirect Australian real property interests

- (1) A *membership interest held by an entity (the holding entity) in another entity (the test entity) at a time is an indirect Australian real property interest at that time if:
 - (a) the interest passes the *non-portfolio interest test (see section 960-195):
 - (i) at that time; or
 - (ii) throughout a 12 month period that began no earlier than 24 months before that time and ended no later than that time; and
 - (b) the interest passes the principal asset test in section 855-30 at that time.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), in working out whether the interest passes the *non-portfolio interest test and the principal asset test in section 855-30:
 - (a) apply section 350 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 as if the words “, or is entitled to acquire,” (wherever occurring) were omitted; and
 - (b) apply section 351 of that Act as if:
 - (i) the words “, or that the beneficiary is entitled to acquire” (wherever occurring) were omitted; and
 - (ii) the words “, or that the entity is entitled to acquire” in paragraph 351(2)(d) were omitted.
- (3) The first element of the *cost base and *reduced cost base of a *CGT asset on 10 May 2005 is the *market value of the asset on that day if, on that day:
 - (a) the CGT asset was a *membership interest you held in another entity; and
 - (b) you were a foreign resident, or the trustee of a trust that was not a *resident trust for CGT purposes; and

- (c) the CGT asset was a *post-CGT asset; and
 - (d) the CGT asset did not have the necessary connection with Australia (within the meaning of this Act as in force on that day) disregarding the operation of paragraph (b) of item 5 and paragraph (b) of item 6 of the table in section 136-25 (as in force on that day).
- (4) Also, Parts 3-1 and 3-3 apply to the asset as if you had *acquired it on that day.

855-30 Principal asset test

- (1) The purpose of this section is to define when an entity's underlying value is principally derived from Australian real property (see paragraph 855-5(2)(b)).
- (2) A *membership interest held by an entity (the holding entity) in another entity (the test entity) passes the principal asset test if the sum of the *market values of the test entity's assets that are *taxable Australian real property exceeds the sum of the *market values of its assets that are not taxable Australian real property.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), treat an asset of an entity (the first entity) that is a *membership interest in another entity (the other entity) as if it were instead the following 2 assets:
 - (a) an asset that is *taxable Australian real property (the TARP asset);
 - (b) an asset that is not taxable Australian real property (the non-TARP asset).
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2), treat the *market value of the TARP asset and the non-TARP asset according to the following table.

Market value of the TARP asset and the non-TARP asset

Item	If:	the market value of the TARP asset is:	the market value of the non-TARP asset is:
1	(a) the first entity's *direct participation interest in the other entity is less than 10%; or (b) the holding entity's *total participation interest in the other entity is less than 10%	zero	the *market value of the *membership interest mentioned in subsection (3)
2	item 1 does not apply	the product of: (a) the sum of the *market values of all the assets of the other entity that are *taxable Australian real property; and (b) the first entity's *direct participation interest in the other entity	the product of: (a) the sum of the market values of all the assets of the other entity that are not taxable Australian real property; and (b) the first entity's direct participation interest in the other entity

Note: For the purposes of item 2 of the table, it is necessary to work out the market value of any TARP assets and non-TARP assets in relation to any membership interests held by the other entity before working out the value of the TARP asset and non-TARP asset held by the first entity.

- (5) For the purposes of this section, disregard the *market value of any asset acquired by the test entity, or by any other entity, if the *acquisition was done for a purpose (other than an incidental purpose) that included ensuring that a *membership interest in any entity would not pass the principal asset test in this section.

855-35 Reducing a capital gain or loss from a business asset—
Australian permanent establishments

- (1) This section applies to a *CGT asset that is *taxable Australian property under item 3 of the table in section 855-15 because you have used it at any time in carrying on a *business through a permanent establishment (within the meaning of section 23AH of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936) in Australia.
- (2) The *capital gain or *capital loss you make from a *CGT event in relation to the asset is reduced if you used it in this way for only part of the period from when you *acquired it to when the CGT event happened.
- (3) The gain or loss is reduced by this fraction:

$$\frac{\text{Number of days the asset was not used in the way described in subsection (1)}}{\text{Number of days in that period}}$$

855-40 Capital gains and losses of foreign residents through fixed trusts

- (1) The purpose of this section is to provide comparable taxation treatment as between direct ownership, and indirect ownership through a *fixed trust, by foreign residents of *CGT assets that are not *taxable Australian property.
- (2) A *capital gain you make in respect of your interest in a *fixed trust is disregarded if:
 - (a) you are a foreign resident when you make the gain; and
 - (b) the gain is attributable to a *CGT event happening to a *CGT asset of a trust (the CGT event trust) that is:
 - (i) the fixed trust; or
 - (ii) another fixed trust in which that trust has an interest (directly, or indirectly through a *chain of fixed trusts); and
 - (c) either:
 - (i) the asset is not *taxable Australian property for the CGT event trust at the time of the CGT event; or

- (ii) the asset is an interest in a fixed trust and the conditions in subsections (5), (6), (7) and (8) are satisfied.

Note: Section 115-215 treats a portion of a trust's capital gain as a capital gain made by a beneficiary, and applies the CGT discount to that portion as if the gain were made directly by the beneficiary.

- (3) You are not liable to pay tax as a trustee of a *fixed trust in respect of an amount to the extent that:
- (a) the amount gives rise to a *capital gain that is disregarded for a beneficiary under subsection (2); or
 - (b) the amount gives rise to a deduction for a beneficiary under subsection (9).
- (4) To avoid doubt, subsection (3) does not affect the operation of subsection 98A(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (about taxing beneficiaries who are foreign residents at the end of an income year).

Conditions

- (5) The conditions in subsections (6), (7) and (8) must be satisfied if the relevant *CGT event happens to an interest in a *fixed trust (the first trust) and the interest is *taxable Australian property at the time of the CGT event.
- (6) At least 90% (by *market value) of the *CGT assets of:
- (a) the first trust; or
 - (b) a *fixed trust in which the first trust has an interest (directly, or indirectly through a *chain of fixed trusts);
- must not be *taxable Australian property at the time of the relevant *CGT event.
- (7) If the condition in subsection (6) is not satisfied for the first trust (but is satisfied for a trust covered by paragraph (6)(b)), the condition in subsection (8) must be satisfied for the first trust, and for each other trust in the *chain of trusts between the first trust and the trust that satisfied the condition in subsection (6).
- (8) The condition is that, assuming any interest in a *fixed trust in that *chain not to be *taxable Australian property, at least 90% (by *market value) of the *CGT assets of the trust must not be taxable Australian property.

Foreign resident companies

- (9) If a company's assessable income for an income year includes an amount under subsection 98A(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 because it is a beneficiary described in subsection 98(3) of that Act, the company can deduct for the income year the amount of a *capital gain that would be disregarded for it under this section for that year had section 115-215 of this Act applied to it for that year.

Note 1: Section 98A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 deals with taxing beneficiaries who are foreign residents at the end of an income year.

Note 2: Subsection 98(3) of that Act makes the trustee liable for tax on the share of the income of the trust to which a foreign resident company is presently entitled.

Note 3: Section 115-215 treats a portion of a trust's capital gain as a capital gain made by a beneficiary, and applies the CGT discount to that portion as if the gain were made directly by the beneficiary.

Subdivision 855-B—Becoming an Australian resident

Table of sections

855-45	Individual or company becomes an Australian resident
855-50	Trust becomes a resident trust
855-55	CFC becomes an Australian resident

855-45 Individual or company becomes an Australian resident

 - (b) that you *acquired before 20 September 1985.

Note: This section has effect subject to section 768-950 (individuals who become Australian residents and are temporary residents immediately after they become Australian residents).

- (2) The first element of the *cost base and *reduced cost base of the asset (at the time you become an Australian resident) is its *market value at that time.
- (3) Also, Parts 3-1 and 3-3 apply to the asset as if you had *acquired it at the time you became an Australian resident.

- (4) This section does not apply to a *share or right if:
- (a) it is a *qualifying share or a *qualifying right; and
 - (b) you have not made an election under section 139E of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 covering the share or right; and
 - (c) the *cessation time for the share or right has not occurred.

855-50 Trust becomes a resident trust

- (1) If a trust becomes a *resident trust for CGT purposes, there are rules relevant to each *CGT asset that the trustee owned just before the trust became a resident trust for CGT purposes, except one:

 - (b) that the trustee *acquired before 20 September 1985.
- (2) The first element of the *cost base and *reduced cost base of the asset (at the time the trust becomes a *resident trust for CGT purposes) is its *market value at that time.
