1 Subparagraph 64AA(3)(a)(i)

Omit “Sunday or holiday”, substitute “Saturday, Sunday or holiday”.

2 Subparagraph 64AAA(3)(a)(i)

Omit “Sunday or holiday”, substitute “Saturday, Sunday or holiday”.

3 Application provision

The amendments made by items 1 and 2 of this Schedule apply to arrivals at a port in Australia less than 24 hours before, or at or after, the commencement of those items.

Schedule 2—Infringement notices

Customs Act 1901

1 After paragraph 243Z(1)(f)

Insert:

(fa) state that, if the person pays to the CEO, before the end of the period referred to in paragraph (f):

(i) the penalty; and

(ii) in the case of an alleged offence against section 243T—any unpaid duty or any unrepaid refund or drawback of duty;

the person cannot be prosecuted for the alleged offence and will not be regarded as having been convicted of the offence;
and

Schedule 3—Cargo reports

Customs Act 1901

1 After subsection 64AB(14)

Insert:

- (14A) A cargo reporter who is required to make a cargo report in respect of particular goods is not liable to be prosecuted for, and cannot be served with an infringement notice under Division 5 of Part XIII for, an offence against this section if:
- (a) the cargo reporter made a cargo report, but contravened subsection (8) because the report was not made before the start of a certain period; and
 - (b) the time (the actual time of arrival) at which the ship or aircraft in question arrived at the first port or airport in Australia since it last departed from a port or airport outside Australia was later than the estimated time of arrival referred to in subsection (8); and
 - (c) the cargo reporter would not have contravened subsection (8) if the estimated time of arrival of the ship or aircraft had been its actual time of arrival.

Schedule 4—Missing goods and goods delivered without authority

Customs Act 1901

1 At the end of paragraphs 35A(1)(b), (1A)(c) and (1B)(b)

Add “in accordance with section 37”.

Note: The heading to section 35A is replaced by the heading “Amount payable for failure to keep dutiable goods safely etc.”.

2 After section 35A

Insert:

36 Offences for failure to keep goods safely or failure to account for goods

Offences for failure to keep goods safely

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) goods are subject to the control of the Customs; and
 - (b) the person has, or has been entrusted with, the possession, custody or control of the goods; and

50 Subsections 184B(1) and (2)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

Generally, a foreign ship may be chased if it may be boarded and an order to stop is given

- (1) To enable the boarding of a foreign ship under section 184A (apart from subsection 184A(9)), the commander of a Commonwealth ship or Commonwealth aircraft may use it to chase, or continue the chase of, the foreign ship to any place outside the territorial sea of a foreign country if:
- (a) a visual or auditory signal:
 - (i) to bring the foreign ship to a position to enable boarding; or
 - (ii) to stop the foreign ship;has been given (whether by the commander of the Commonwealth ship or Commonwealth aircraft or otherwise); and
 - (b) the signal was given in such a way that it could be seen or heard (as the case may be) by the foreign ship; and
 - (c) at the time the signal was given, the foreign ship was in a maritime zone in which it could be boarded under section 184A (regardless of the location of the Commonwealth ship or Commonwealth aircraft).

Note: Subsection 184A(9) is about boarding ships without nationality that are on the high seas. Section 185A allows those ships to be boarded, even though the master of the ship has not facilitated the boarding of his or her ship.

Signal made even if not seen or heard by foreign ship

- (1A) To avoid doubt, a visual or auditory signal mentioned in subsection (1) is still made even if no person on board the foreign ship saw, heard or understood the signal.

Using different Commonwealth ships or aircraft

- (2) To avoid doubt, a Commonwealth ship or Commonwealth aircraft may be used in the chase:
- (a) whether or not it was a Commonwealth ship or Commonwealth aircraft referred to in section 184A in relation to the boarding of the foreign ship under that section; and
 - (b) whether or not the visual or auditory signal referred to in subsection (1) was given from the ship or aircraft.

51 Subsection 184B(3)

Omit “the commander could have made a request to board the foreign ship”, substitute “the foreign ship could have been boarded”.

52 Paragraph 185(1)(a)

Omit “a request to board the ship has been made”, substitute “the ship may be boarded”.

53 Subsection 185(1)

Omit “a request to board the ship has been made”, substitute “the ship may be boarded”.

54 Subsection 185(1) (note)

Repeal the note, substitute:

Note: Section 185A gives further powers relating to ships that may be boarded under subsection 184A(8) or (9).

55 Subparagraph 185(2)(d)(i)

Omit “consistently with UNCLOS”, substitute “for the purposes of this Subdivision”.

56 Sub-subparagraph 185(2)(d)(ii)(A)

Omit “consistently with UNCLOS”, substitute “for the purposes of this Subdivision”.

57 Sub-subparagraph 185(2)(d)(ii)(B)

Omit “consistently with UNCLOS”, substitute “for the purposes of this Subdivision”.

58 After subsection 185(2)

Insert:

(2AA) If one or more officers (other than officers who are members of the Australian Defence Force) board a ship under this section, the most senior of those officers who is an officer of Customs must:

- (a) if requested to do so by the master of the ship; and
- (b) as soon as reasonably practicable after boarding;

produce, for inspection by the master, written evidence of the fact that the officer is an officer within the meaning of this section.

(2AB) If the officer fails to produce the evidence mentioned in subsection (2AA), no officer may remain on board the ship.

59 Paragraph 185(3)(a)

Omit “an Act prescribed consistently with UNCLOS”, substitute “an Act prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this Subdivision”.

60 Subparagraphs 185(3)(c)(i) and (ii)

Omit “an Act prescribed consistently with UNCLOS”, substitute “an Act prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this Subdivision”.

61 Subparagraph 185(5)(a)(i)

Repeal the subparagraph, substitute:

- (i) a Commonwealth ship or Commonwealth aircraft referred to in section 184A in relation to the boarding under that section of the ship to which this section applies; or
- (ia) the aircraft from which the relevant request under section 184D was made; or

62 Subsection 185A(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) This section applies to a ship if:
- (a) the ship may be boarded under subsection 184A(8) (boarding a ship of a country with which Australia has an agreement), and the ship is:
 - (i) outside the outer edge of the contiguous zone of Australia; and
 - (ii) outside the territorial sea of any country (including Australia); or
 - (b) the ship may be boarded under subsection 184A(9) (boarding a ship without nationality), and the ship is outside the territorial sea of a foreign country.

63 After subsection 185A(2)

Insert:

- (2A) If one or more officers (other than officers who are members of the Australian Defence Force) board a ship under this section, the most senior of those officers who is an officer of Customs must:
- (a) if requested to do so by the master of the ship; and
 - (b) as soon as reasonably practicable after boarding;
- produce, for inspection by the master, written evidence of the fact that the officer is an officer within the meaning of this section.
- (2B) If the officer fails to produce the evidence mentioned in subsection (2AA), no officer may remain on board the ship.

64 Subsection 185A(7)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (7) In this section:
- officer* has the meaning given by subsection 4(1), and includes:
- (a) any person who is in command, or a member of the crew, of:
 - (i) a Commonwealth ship or Commonwealth aircraft referred to in section 184A in relation to the boarding under that section of a ship; or
 - (ii) a ship that was used under section 184B to chase the ship in relation to which this section applies; and
 - (b) a police officer; and
 - (c) a member of the Australian Defence Force.

65 Subsection 228(1)

Omit “(1) The following”, substitute “The following”.

66 Paragraph 228(1)(2)

Omit “refused to permit his or her ship to be boarded following a request properly made of him or her”, substitute “failed to facilitate, by all reasonable means, the boarding of his or her ship”.

67 At the end of section 270

Add:

- (6) Regulations for the purposes of Subdivision B of Division 1 of Part XII must not prescribe an Act unless the Act deals with a subject matter in relation to which UNCLOS gives Australia jurisdiction.

Schedule 6—Impending arrival reports for pleasure craft

Part 1—Amendments

Customs Act 1901

1 Subsection 4(1)

Insert:

pleasure craft means a ship that from the time of its arrival at its first port of arrival in Australia from a place outside Australia until the time of its departure from its last port of departure in Australia is:

- (a) used or intended to be used wholly for recreational activities, sporting activities or both; and
- (b) not used or intended to be used for any commercial activity; and
- (c) not offered or intended to be offered for sale or disposal.

2 Subsection 64(5)

After “a ship”, insert “(other than a pleasure craft)”.

3 After subsection 64(5)

Insert:

- (5A) A report of the impending arrival of a pleasure craft must be made:
- (a) not earlier than the prescribed number of days before the time stated in the report to be the estimated time of arrival of the pleasure craft; and
 - (b) not later than:
 - (i) the start of the prescribed period before its estimated time of arrival; or
 - (ii) if the journey is of a kind described in regulations made for the purposes of this subparagraph—the start of the shorter period specified in those regulations before its estimated time of arrival.

4 Subsection 64(6)

After “paragraph (5)(b)”, insert “or (5A)(b)”.

Part 2—Application provision

5 Application

The amendments made by this Schedule apply in relation to a pleasure craft if the start of the period, referred to in subparagraph 64(5A)(b)(i) or (ii) (as the case requires) of the Customs Act 1901 as in force after the commencement of this Schedule, is on or after the day on which this Schedule commences.

Schedule 7—Use of devices to stop or impede a ship

Customs Act 1901

1 At the end of subsection 184B(6)

Add:

; and (c) where necessary, using a device designed to stop or impede a ship.

2 At the end of subsection 184C(3)

Add:

; and (c) where necessary, using a device designed to stop or impede a ship.

Schedule 8—Power to request aircraft to land

Customs Act 1901

1 At the end of subsection 184D(3)

Add:

; or (c) the commander reasonably suspects that the other aircraft is carrying goods satisfying either or both of the following subparagraphs:

- (i) the goods are connected, whether directly or indirectly, with the carrying out of a terrorist act, whether a terrorist act has occurred, is occurring or is likely to occur;
- (ii) the existence or the shipment of the goods prejudices, or is likely to prejudice, Australia's defence or security or international peace and security.

Schedule 9—Seizing unaccounted for goods and storing or taking custody of prohibited items

Customs Act 1901

1 Subsection 183UA(1) (definition of special forfeited goods)

Subdivision H—Arrest and related matters

210 Power of arrest without warrant

- (1) An officer of Customs or police may without warrant arrest a person if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that:
 - (a) the person has committed or is committing one or more of the following offences:
 - (i) an offence against subsection 33(1) or 33(5);
 - (ii) an offence against section 231 or 233;
 - (iii) an offence against subsection 233BAA(4) or (5), 233BAB(5) or (6), 233BABAB(1) or 233BABAC(1);
 - (iv) an offence against section 72.13 or Division 307 of the Criminal Code;
 - (v) an offence against section 308.2 of the Criminal Code where the substance involved in the offence is reasonably suspected of having been imported into Australia, or being intended for export from Australia, in contravention of this Act;
 - (vi) an offence against section 147.1, 147.2 or 149.1 of the Criminal Code in relation to an officer of Customs; and

- (b) proceedings by summons against the person would not achieve one or more of the following purposes:
 - (i) ensuring the appearance of the person before a court in respect of the offence;
 - (ii) preventing a repetition or continuation of the offence or the commission of another offence;
 - (iii) preventing the concealment, loss or destruction of evidence relating to the offence;
 - (iv) preventing harassment of, or interference with, a person who may be required to give evidence in proceedings in respect of the offence;
 - (v) preventing the fabrication of evidence in respect of the offence;
 - (vi) preserving the safety or welfare of the person.
- (2) A person commits an offence if the person resists, obstructs or prevents the arrest of any person under this section.
Penalty: 10 penalty units.
- (3) If:
 - (a) a person has been arrested for an offence under subsection (1); and
 - (b) before the person is charged with the offence, the officer of Customs or police in charge of the investigation ceases to believe on reasonable grounds:
 - (i) that the person committed the offence; or
 - (ii) that holding the person in custody is necessary to achieve a purpose referred to in paragraph (1)(b);the person must be released.
- (4) An officer of Customs or police may without warrant arrest a person whom he or she believes on reasonable grounds has escaped from lawful custody to which the person is still liable under this Subdivision.

210A Use of force in making arrest

- (1) An officer of Customs or police must not, in the course of arresting a person under section 210, use more force, or subject the person to greater indignity, than is necessary and reasonable to make the arrest or to prevent the escape of the person after the arrest.

- (2) Without limiting the operation of subsection (1), an officer of Customs or police must not, in the course of arresting a person under section 210, do anything that is likely to cause the death of, or grievous bodily harm to, the person unless:
- (a) the officer believes on reasonable grounds that doing that thing is necessary to protect life or to prevent serious injury to another person (including the officer); or
 - (b) if the person is attempting to escape arrest by fleeing:
 - (i) the officer believes on reasonable grounds that doing that thing is necessary to protect life or to prevent serious injury to another person (including the officer); and
 - (ii) the person has, if practicable, been called on to surrender and the officer believes on reasonable grounds that the person cannot be apprehended in any other manner.

210B Person to be informed of grounds of arrest

- (1) An officer of Customs or police who arrests a person under section 210 must inform the person, at the time of the arrest, of the offence for which the person is being arrested.
- (2) It is sufficient if the person is informed of the substance of the offence, and it is not necessary that this be done in language of a precise or technical nature.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the arrest of the person if:
- (a) the person should, in the circumstances, know the substance of the offence for which he or she is being arrested; or
 - (b) the person's actions make it impracticable for the officer to inform the person of the offence for which he or she is being arrested.

211 Power to conduct a frisk search of an arrested person

An officer of Customs or police who arrests a person under section 210, or who is present at such an arrest, may, if the officer suspects on reasonable grounds that it is prudent to do so in order to ascertain whether the person is carrying any seizable items:

- (a) conduct a frisk search of the person at or soon after the time of arrest; and
- (b) seize any seizable items found as a result of the search.

211A Power to conduct an ordinary search of an arrested person

An officer of Customs or police who arrests a person under section 210, or who is present at such an arrest, may, if the officer suspects on reasonable grounds that the person is carrying:

- (a) evidential material in relation to the offence for which the person is arrested or another offence; or
- (b) a seizable item;

conduct an ordinary search of the person at or soon after the time of arrest, and seize any such thing found as a result of the search.

212 How arrested person to be dealt with

An officer of Customs who arrests a person under section 210 must ensure that the person is either:

- (a) delivered into the custody of a police officer; or
- (b) taken before a magistrate or bail justice;

as soon as practicable to be dealt with according to law.

213 Requirement to provide name etc.

- (1) An officer of Customs or police may request a person arrested under section 210 to provide his or her name or address, or name and address, to the officer if the person's name or address is, or name and address are, unknown to the officer.
- (2) A person commits an offence if:
 - (a) an officer of Customs or police:
 - (i) has made a request of a person under subsection (1); and
 - (ii) has complied with any request that the person has made under paragraph (4)(b); and
 - (b) the person refuses or fails to comply with the request, or gives a name or address that is false in a material particular.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the person has a reasonable excuse.

Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (3) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).

- (4) An officer of Customs or police commits an offence if:
- (a) the officer makes a request of a person under subsection (1); and
 - (b) the person requests the officer to provide to the person:
 - (i) his or her name or the address of his or her place of duty; or
 - (ii) his or her name and that address; or
 - (iii) if he or she is not in uniform and it is practicable for the officer to provide the evidence—evidence that he or she is an officer; and
 - (c) the officer refuses or fails to comply with the request, or gives a name or address that is false in a material particular.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.
