Subdivision 48-A—Formation and membership of GST groups

3 Section 48-5

48-5 Formation of GST groups

- (1) Two or more entities may form a *GST group if:
 - (a) each of the entities *satisfies the membership requirements of the group; and
 - (b) each of the entities agrees in writing to the formation of the group; and
 - (c) one of those entities notifies the Commissioner, in the *approved form, of the formation of the group; and
 - (d) that entity is nominated, in that notice, to be the *representative member of the group; and

A group of entities that is so formed is a GST group.

- (2) If 2 or more entities would *satisfy the membership requirements for the *GST group, the group need not include all those entities.

is before, on or after the day on which the entities decided to form the group).

- (4) However, if the notice was given to the Commissioner after the day by which the entity nominated to be the *representative member of the group is required to give to the Commissioner a *GST return for the tax period in which the day specified in the notice occurs, the formation of the *GST group takes effect from the start of:
- (a) the day specified in the notice, if that day is approved by the Commissioner under section 48-71; and

48-7 Membership of GST groups

- (1) A member of a *GST group is an entity that:
- (a) formed the group under section 48-5, or was added to the group under section 48-70; and

- (a) left, or been removed from, the group under section 48-70; or
 - (b) ceased to *satisfy the membership requirements of the group.
- (3) The *representative member of a *GST group must notify the Commissioner, in the *approved form, if a *member of the group no longer *satisfies the membership requirements for the GST group.

Note: Section 286-75 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 provides an administrative penalty for breach of this subsection.

4 After subsection 48-10(2)

Insert:

- (2A) Paragraph (1)(d) does not apply in relation to a tax period that the Commissioner has determined under section 27-30 if the tax period:

- (a) ends at the same time as a tax period (a corresponding tax period) of each of the other *members of the *GST group;
and
- (b) is not longer than any corresponding tax period (other than a tax period that the Commissioner has determined under section 27-30).

5 Subdivision 48-B (heading)

8 After subsection 48-40(1)

Insert:

- (1A) GST that is payable on any *taxable importation an entity makes while the entity is a *member of a *GST group:
 - (a) is payable by the *representative member; and
 - (b) is not payable by the member that made it (unless the member is the representative member).

Note: However, each member may be jointly and severally liable to pay the GST that is payable by the representative member (see section 444-90 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953).

9 Subsection 48-45(1)

Omit “a *member of a *GST group makes a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation”, substitute “an entity makes a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation the input tax credit for which is attributable to a tax period during which the entity is a *member of a *GST group”.

14 After section 48-50

Insert:

48-51 Consequences of being a member of a GST group for part of a tax period

- (1) If you are a *member of a *GST group only for one or more parts of a tax period:
 - (a) section 48-40 does not apply to the GST payable on a *taxable supply that you make, to the extent that the GST would be attributable to a period to which subsection (2) applies if it were a tax period applying to you; and
 - (b) section 48-40 does not apply to the GST payable on a *taxable importation that you make during a period to which subsection (2) applies; and
 - (c) section 48-45 does not apply to the input tax credit for a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation that you make, to the extent that the input tax credit would be attributable to a period to which subsection (2) applies if it were a tax period applying to you; and
 - (d) section 48-50 does not apply to an *adjustment that you have that would be attributable to a period to which subsection (2) applies if it were a tax period applying to you.

- (2) This section applies to any period, during the tax period, during which you were not a *member of that *GST group or any other GST group.

48-52 Consequences for a representative member of membership change during a tax period

- (1) If an entity is a *member of a *GST group, of which you are the *representative member, only for one or more parts of a tax period:
- (a) section 48-40 only applies to the GST payable on a *taxable supply that the entity makes, to the extent that the GST would be attributable to a period to which subsection (2) applies if it were a tax period applying to the entity; and
 - (b) section 48-40 only applies to the GST payable on a *taxable importation that the entity makes during a period to which subsection (2) applies; and
 - (c) section 48-45 only applies to the input tax credit for a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation that the entity makes, to the extent that the input tax credit would be attributable to a period to which subsection (2) applies if it were a tax period applying to the entity; and
 - (d) section 48-50 only applies to an *adjustment that the entity has that would be attributable to a period to which subsection (2) applies if it were a tax period applying to the entity.
- (2) This section applies to any period, during the tax period, during which the entity was a *member of the *GST group of which you are the *representative member.
- (3) However, if you are the *representative member of the *GST group only for one or more parts of the tax period, this section has effect subject to section 48-53.
- (4) If an entity is a *member of different *GST groups during the same tax period, subsections (1) and (2) apply separately in relation to each of those groups.

48-53 Consequences of changing a representative member during a tax period

- (1) If you are the *representative member of a *GST group only for one or more parts of a tax period, then, in relation to your capacity as the representative member:
 - (a) section 48-40 only applies to the GST payable on a *taxable supply that an entity makes, to the extent that the GST would be attributable to a period to which subsection (2) applies if it were a tax period applying to you; and
 - (b) section 48-40 only applies to the GST payable on a *taxable importation that an entity makes during a period to which subsection (2) applies; and
 - (c) section 48-45 only applies to the input tax credit for a *creditable acquisition or *creditable importation that an entity makes, to the extent that the input tax credit would be attributable to a period to which subsection (2) applies if it were a tax period applying to you; and
 - (d) section 48-50 only applies to an *adjustment that an entity has that would be attributable to a period to which subsection (2) applies if it were a tax period applying to you.
- (2) This section applies to any period, during the tax period, during which you were the *representative member of the *GST group.

15 At the end of subsection 48-60(1)

Add:

Note: If you were not a member of a GST group during the whole of a tax period, you are still obliged to give a GST return for the tax period, and (because of section 48-51) your net amount for the tax period will take into account your liabilities and entitlements relating to the one or more parts of the tax period during which you were not a member.

16 Section 48-70

Repeal the section, substitute:

48-70 Changing the membership etc. of GST groups

- (1) The following actions may be taken, in accordance with subsection (2), in relation to a *GST group:

- (a) the *representative member of the group may, with the written agreement of an entity that *satisfies the membership requirements of the GST group, add the entity to the group;
 - (b) the representative member may leave the group; or
 - (c) another *member of the group, nominated by the members, who is an *Australian resident may become the new representative member; or
 - (d) the representative member may remove from the group any other member of the group; or
 - (e) if a member of the group is an *incapacitated entity—the entity’s *representative may remove the entity from the group; or
 - (f) the representative member may dissolve the group.
- (2) The action is to be taken by notice given to the Commissioner, in the *approved form, by:
- (a) if paragraph (1)(a), (d) or (f) applies—the *representative member; or
 - (b) if paragraph (1)(b) or (c) applies—the new representative member of the group; or
 - (c) if paragraph (1)(e) applies—the *representative of the *incapacitated entity.
- (3) The action takes effect from the start of the day specified in the notice (whether that day is before, on or after the day on which the notice was given to the Commissioner).
- (4) However, if the notice was given to the Commissioner after the day by which the *representative member of the group, or the entity nominated to be the new representative member of the group, is required to give to the Commissioner a *GST return for the tax period in which the day specified in the notice occurs, the action takes effect from the start of:
- (a) the day specified in the notice, if that day is approved by the Commissioner under section 48-71; and
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—such other day as the Commissioner approves under that section.
- (5) Despite subsections (3) and (4), action taken under paragraph (1)(e) cannot take effect earlier than the day on which the *member of the group became an *incapacitated entity.

Schedule 3—Tax invoices

A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999

1 Subsection 29-70(1)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) A tax invoice is a document that complies with the following requirements:
- (a) it is issued by the supplier of the supply or supplies to which the document relates, unless it is a *recipient created tax invoice (in which case it is issued by the *recipient);
 - (b) it is in the *approved form;
 - (c) it contains enough information to enable the following to be clearly ascertained:
 - (i) the supplier's identity and the supplier's *ABN;
 - (ii) if the total *price of the supply or supplies is at least $1,000 or such higher amount as the regulations specify, or if the document was issued by the recipient—the recipient's identity or the recipient's ABN;
 - (iii) what is supplied, including the quantity (if applicable) and the price of what is supplied;
 - (iv) the extent to which each supply to which the document relates is a *taxable supply;
 - (v) the date the document is issued;
 - (vi) the amount of GST (if any) payable in relation to each supply to which the document relates;
 - (vii) if the document was issued by the recipient and GST is payable in relation to any supply—that the GST is payable by the supplier;
 - (viii) such other matters as the regulations specify;
 - (d) it can be clearly ascertained from the document that the document was intended to be a tax invoice or, if it was issued by the recipient, a recipient created tax invoice.

Note: If the recipient is a member of a GST group, section 48-57 may relax the requirements relating to the recipient's identity or the recipient's ABN.

(1A) A document issued by an entity to another entity may be treated by the other entity as a *tax invoice for the purposes of this Act if:

- (a) it would comply with the requirements for a tax invoice but for the fact that it does not contain certain information; and
- (b) all of that information can be clearly ascertained from other documents given by the entity to the other entity.

Note: The requirements for a tax invoices are primarily contained in subsection (1), but can be affected by sections 48-57 and 54-50.

(1B) However, the Commissioner may treat as a *tax invoice a particular document that would not, apart from this subsection, be a tax invoice.

Note: A request to the Commissioner, to which the Commissioner agrees, to treat a document as a tax invoice is taken to be a notification of your entitlement to the relevant input tax credit: see subsection 105-55(2A) in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953.

2 Section 29-99 (after table item 3)

Insert:

3A GST groups

Division 48

3 After section 48-55

Insert:

48-57 Tax invoices that are required to identify recipients

(1) A document issued for a supply is taken to be a tax invoice if:

- (a) it would not, but for this section, be a tax invoice because it does not contain enough information to enable the identity, or the *ABN, of the *recipient of the supply to be clearly ascertained; and
- (b) there is no other reason why it would not be a tax invoice; and
- (c) the *representative member of a *GST group is entitled under section 48-45 to an input tax credit for the *creditable acquisition relating to the supply; and
- (d) the document contains enough information to enable the identity of at least one of the following to be clearly ascertained:
 - (i) the GST group;

- (ii) the representative member;
- (iii) another entity that is or was a *member of the GST group, if the representative member would still have been entitled under section 48-45 to that input tax credit if that other entity had been the recipient of the supply.

Note: Subparagraph (d)(iii) ensures that a member of the GST group identified in the document was a member of the group at the relevant time for the supply in question.

- (2) However, any obligation that the supplier of a *taxable supply has under subsection 29-70(2) is an obligation to give to the *recipient of the supply a document that would be a *tax invoice for the supply even if subsection (1) of this section had not been enacted.

Note: This subsection ensures that a recipient's entitlement to a tax invoice, including (if subparagraph 29-70(1)(c)(ii) requires it) an entitlement to a tax invoice that enables the recipient's identity or the recipient's ABN to be clearly ascertained, is unaffected by this section.

- (3) This section has effect despite section 29-70 (which is about tax invoices).

4 Section 195-1 (definition of tax invoice)

Repeal the definition, substitute:

tax invoice has the meaning given by subsections 29-70(1) and 48-57(1), and includes a document that the Commissioner treats as a tax invoice under subsection 29-70(1B). However, it does not include a document that does not comply with the requirements of section 54-50 (if applicable).
