Note: Whether the provider is authorised to self-accredit courses of study depends on the provider's position under the State or Territory law (see Division 5).

- (4) This item applies to the registration instead of section 22 (about notifications) of the TEQSA Act.

Division 2—Pending review decisions about State registrations

4 Pending review decisions about State registrations

- (a) before the transition time:
 - (i) the provider has applied for review of a decision by a registration authority; or
 - (ii) the period for applying for review of a decision by a registration authority has not ended; and
 - (b) as a result of a review of that decision, a decision (the State review decision) is made:
 - (i) under a State or Territory law relating to higher education; and
 - (ii) after the transition time;
that would (ignoring the enactment of the TEQSA Act) result in the provider being registered under that law; and
 - (c) the provider notifies TEQSA, in the approved form, of the State review decision.

Note: This automatic registration means, for example, that the provider must comply with conditions imposed from time to time on the registration (see section 24 of that Act).

Schedule 3 Transitional provisions

Part 2 Transferring existing State registrations to TEQSA system etc.

- (2) If item 2 does not apply to the provider, the provider's registration is for the period:
- (a) starting at the transition time; and
 - (b) ending at the later of:
 - (i) the time the provider would cease to be registered under the relevant State or Territory law (ignoring the enactment of the TEQSA Act); and
 - (ii) the end of the period specified in the most recent notice (if any) given under section 37 (about renewals of registration) of the TEQSA Act in relation to the registration.

- (4) Subitem (2) applies to the registration instead of section 23 (about commencement and duration of registration) of the TEQSA Act.

5 Notice of provider category for TEQSA registration

- (2) TEQSA must give the notice in writing within 30 days after TEQSA is notified of the State review decision under paragraph 4(1)(c).
- (3) This item applies to the registration instead of section 22 (about notifications) of the TEQSA Act.

- (2) The provider's registration as a registered higher education provider because of item 2 (the automatic TEQSA registration) is suspended for 120 days starting at the transition time.
- (3) This suspension does not prevent TEQSA from doing anything under this Act, or the TEQSA Act, in relation to the registration.

Note: For example, the provider must still be notified under item 3 of its provider category and other details of its automatic TEQSA registration.

7 Automatic lifting of suspension if pending review of State suspension

- (1) The suspension of the provider's automatic TEQSA registration is lifted if:
 - (a) before the transition time:
 - (i) the provider has applied for review of a decision by a registration authority; or

 - (b) as a result of a review of that decision, a decision (the State review decision) is made:
 - (i) under a State or Territory law relating to higher education; and
 - (ii) after the transition time;
that would (ignoring the enactment of the TEQSA Act) result in the suspension of the provider's State registration being lifted; and
 - (c) within 60 days after the transition time, the provider notifies TEQSA, in the approved form, of the State review decision.
- (2) The suspension is lifted on the day the provider notifies TEQSA under paragraph (1)(c).

8 Lifting suspension if no pending review of State suspension

Schedule 3 Transitional provisions

 - (2) TEQSA must make its decision within 30 days after subitem (1) begins to apply.
 - (3) If under subitem (1) TEQSA decides to lift the suspension, TEQSA must, within 30 days, give the provider written notice of that decision.
- Note: TEQSA may impose conditions on the provider's automatic TEQSA registration in return for lifting the suspension (see section 32 of the TEQSA Act).
- (4) If under subitem (1) TEQSA decides not to lift the suspension:
 - (a) TEQSA must, within 30 days, give the provider written notice of that decision and its reasons for that decision; and

 - (b) immediately before the transition time, the provider is not required to be registered under a State or Territory law relating to higher education; and
 - (c) before the transition time, TEQSA receives from the provider a notice, in the approved form, requesting that the provider be taken to be a registered higher education provider because of this item.
 - (2) Division 3 of Part 3 of the TEQSA Act does not apply to this registration (the transitional registration).

Note: The provider cannot apply under the TEQSA Act to have this transitional registration renewed. Instead, it may apply under Division 1 of Part 3 of the TEQSA Act for registration under that Part.

10 Notice of provider category for transitional registration

Advance notice of likely provider category

- (1) If TEQSA receives the higher education provider's notice under paragraph 9(1)(c) at least 60 days before the transition time, the TEQSA must give the provider advance notice of:
 - (a) the likely provider category for the likely transitional registration; and
 - (b) whether the provider is likely to be able to self-accredit one or more courses of study.
- (2) TEQSA must give the notice in writing no later than 30 days after it receives the provider's notice under paragraph 9(1)(c).

- (3) If subitem (2) does not apply to the higher education provider, the provider's transitional registration is for the period:
 - (a) starting at the transition time; and

- (4) Paragraphs (2)(b) and (3)(b) have effect subject to Division 1 of Part 7 (about cancelling registration and other administrative sanctions).

Division 5—Transferring an authorisation to self-accredit courses of study

12 Transferring an authorisation to self-accredit courses of study

- (1) A registered higher education provider's registration arising under Division 1 includes the authority to self-accredit one or more courses of study if, immediately before the transition time, the provider's corresponding registration under a State or Territory law relating to higher education included a similar authority.
- (2) A registered higher education provider's registration arising under Division 2 includes the authority to self-accredit one or more courses of study if the State review decision (as described in paragraph 4(1)(b)) would (ignoring the enactment of the TEQSA Act) have resulted in the provider being authorised to self-accredit those courses of study.

Division 6—No inference that Standards met

13 No inference that Standards met

An inference that a higher education provider meets the Threshold Standards is not to be made only because the provider is taken to be a registered higher education provider under this Part.

Part 3—Pending applications for State registration or re-registration

If:

- (a) before the transition time, a higher education provider applies to a registration authority for registration, or re-registration, under a State or Territory law relating to higher education; and
- (b) the registration authority does not decide the application before the transition time; and

TEQSA must make a decision under section 21 of the TEQSA Act to grant or reject the application.

15 TEQSA Act operates in a modified way for TEQSA's consideration of the application

- (1) The TEQSA Act has effect in relation to the application with the changes described in this item.
- (2) The application is taken to be made under section 18 of the TEQSA Act if and when TEQSA receives from the provider:
 - (a) all information, documents and assistance about the application that TEQSA requests; and
 - (b) so much as TEQSA requires of the fee determined under the TEQSA Act for a preliminary assessment under Part 3 of that Act.
- (3) The TEQSA Act has effect as if the following changes were made:

- (1) If the application mentioned in paragraph 14(a) was for re-registration, the provider is taken to be a registered higher education provider for the purposes of the TEQSA Act.

- (2) The provider's registration is for the period:
- (a) starting at the transition time; and
 - (b) ending when TEQSA notifies the provider, under section 22 of the TEQSA Act, of TEQSA's decision to grant or reject the application.

- (2) The course of study is taken to be course accredited by TEQSA in relation to the provider for the purposes of the TEQSA Act.

Note 1: This means, for example, that the provider must comply with conditions imposed from time to time on the accreditation (see section 52 of that Act).

Note 2: This Division does not apply to those providers authorised to self-accredit courses of study. An authority to self-accredit under a State or Territory law is automatically transferred under item 12 (see also paragraph 1(2)(c)).

- (3) The accreditation of the course of study is for the period:

Note 1: This automatic accreditation means, for example, that the provider must comply with conditions imposed from time to time on the accreditation (see section 52 of that Act).

Note 1: If both item 18 and this item apply in relation to the course of study, its accreditation is for the period worked out under subitem 18(3).

Part 4 Transferring existing State accreditations to TEQSA system etc.

- (2) The course of study's accreditation because of item 18 in relation to the provider (the automatic TEQSA accreditation) is suspended for 120 days starting at the transition time.
- (3) This suspension does not prevent TEQSA from doing anything under this Act, or the TEQSA Act, in relation to the accreditation.

21 Automatic lifting of suspension if pending review of State suspension

- (1) The suspension of the course of study's automatic TEQSA accreditation is lifted if:
 - (a) before the transition time:
 - (i) the provider has applied for review of a decision by a registration authority; or
 - (ii) the period for applying for review of a decision by a registration authority has not ended; and
 - (b) as a result of a review of that decision, a decision (the State review decision) is made:
 - (i) under a State or Territory law relating to higher education; and
 - (ii) after the transition time;
that would (ignoring the enactment of the TEQSA Act) result in the suspension of the State accreditation being lifted; and
 - (c) within 60 days after the transition time, the provider notifies TEQSA, in the approved form, of the State review decision.
- (2) The suspension is lifted on the day the provider notifies TEQSA under paragraph (1)(c).

22 Lifting suspension if no pending review of State suspension

- (1) TEQSA must decide whether to lift the suspension of the course of study's automatic TEQSA accreditation if:
 - (a) the provider notifies TEQSA, in the approved form and within 60 days after the transition time, that item 21 cannot apply to the suspension; or
 - (b) the suspension is not lifted under item 21 within 60 days after the transition time.

- (2) TEQSA must make its decision within 30 days after subitem (1) begins to apply.
- (3) If under subitem (1) TEQSA decides to lift the suspension, TEQSA must, within 30 days, give the provider written notice of that decision.
- Note: TEQSA may impose conditions on the automatic TEQSA accreditation in return for lifting the suspension (see section 53 of the TEQSA Act).
- (4) If under subitem (1) TEQSA decides not to lift the suspension:
- (a) TEQSA must, within 30 days, give the provider written notice of that decision and its reasons for that decision; and
 - (b) the automatic TEQSA accreditation ends on the day specified in the notice given under paragraph (a) (which must be a day that occurs on or after the date of the notice).

Division 4—No inference that Standards met

23 No inference that Standards met

An inference that a course of study meets the Provider Course Accreditation Standards is not to be made only because the course of study is taken to be accredited because of this Part.

Part 5—Pending applications for State accreditation or re-accreditation

24 Deciding pending applications for State accreditation or re-accreditation

If:

- (a) before the transition time, a higher education provider applies to a registration authority for accreditation, or re-accreditation, of a course of study under a State or Territory law relating to higher education; and
- (b) the registration authority does not decide the application before the transition time; and
- (c) after the transition time, either the registration authority, or the provider in the approved form, notifies TEQSA of the undecided application;

TEQSA must make a decision under section 49 of the TEQSA Act to grant or reject the application.

25 TEQSA Act operates in a modified way for TEQSA's consideration of the application

- (1) The TEQSA Act has effect in relation to the application with the changes described in this item.
- (2) The application is taken to be made under section 46 of the TEQSA Act if and when TEQSA receives from the provider:
 - (a) all information, documents and assistance about the application that TEQSA requests; and
 - (b) so much as TEQSA requires of the fee determined under the TEQSA Act for a preliminary assessment under Part 4 of that Act.
- (3) The TEQSA Act has effect as if the following changes were made:

Changes to be made for the application

Item	In this provision ...	a reference to ...	is a reference to ...
1	subsection 47(2) of the TEQSA Act	the preliminary assessment application fee	the required payment described in paragraph (2)(b)
2	section 49 of the TEQSA Act	9 months	6 months

26 Automatic transitional TEQSA accreditation while TEQSA considers pending application for re-accreditation

- (1) If the application mentioned in paragraph 24(a) was for re-accreditation, the course of study is taken to be accredited by TEQSA, in relation to the provider, for the purposes of the TEQSA Act.

Note: This automatic accreditation means, for example, that the provider must comply with conditions imposed from time to time on the accreditation (see section 52 of that Act).

- (2) The accreditation is for the period:
- (a) starting at the transition time; and
 - (b) ending when TEQSA notifies the provider, under section 50 of the TEQSA Act, of TEQSA's decision to grant or reject the application.
- (3) Paragraph (2)(b) has effect subject to the following:
- (a) the accreditation ends immediately if the provider ceases to be registered as a registered higher education provider;
 - (b) Division 1 of Part 7 (about cancelling accreditation and other administrative sanctions) of the TEQSA Act.
- (4) Division 4 of Part 4 of the TEQSA Act does not apply to an accreditation that exists because of this item.

Note: The provider cannot apply under the TEQSA Act to have this transitional accreditation renewed.

- (5) This item applies to the accreditation instead of sections 50 and 51 of the TEQSA Act.

27 Consequences if fees already paid to registration authority

Schedule 3 Transitional provisions

Part 5 Pending applications for State accreditation or re-accreditation

If the provider has paid a fee to the registration authority for the application mentioned in paragraph 24(a), TEQSA may waive all or part of any fee payable under the TEQSA Act for the application.

Part 6—Making the first Threshold Standards

28 Relevant Threshold Standards

- (1) For each of the Threshold Standards described in subitem (2), this Part applies if:
 - (a) the Minister proposes to make standards of that kind under section 58 of the TEQSA Act; and
 - (b) standards of that kind have not previously been made under that section.
- (2) The relevant standards are as follows:
 - (a) the Provider Registration Standards;
 - (b) the Provider Category Standards;
 - (c) the Provider Course Accreditation Standards;
 - (d) the Qualification Standards.

29 Making the first of those Threshold Standards

- (1) Subsections 58(3) and (4) of the TEQSA Act do not apply in relation to the making of the proposed standards.

Note: Those subsections will apply each later time the Minister proposes to vary, revoke or remake those standards.

- (2) Before making the proposed standards, the Minister must:
 - (a) consult each of the following parties about the proposed standards:
 - (i) the Council consisting of the Ministers for the Commonwealth and each State and Territory responsible for higher education;
 - (ii) the Minister administering the Australian Research Council Act 2001;
 - (iii) TEQSA;
 - (iv) any other interested parties; and
 - (b) have regard to any representations received from those parties.
- (3) If the proposed standards are made, the Panel must start to review them within the first year of the Panel's operation.

Part 7—Audits

30 TEQSA is to complete AUQA audits etc.

- (1) For the purposes of the Higher Education Support Act 2003:
 - (a) TEQSA may complete an audit of a higher education provider that AUQA started before the time (the changeover time) section 3 of the TEQSA Act commences; and
 - (b) TEQSA may audit a higher education provider if AUQA had, before the changeover time, scheduled the audit to be carried out during 2011 or 2012.
- (2) Subitem (3) applies if, before the changeover time, a thing was done by, or in relation to, AUQA for an audit covered by subitem (1).
- (3) For the purposes of the Higher Education Support Act 2003, the thing is taken, after the changeover time, to have been done by, or in relation to, TEQSA.
- (4) The Minister may, by writing, determine that subitem (3) does not apply in relation to a specified thing done by, or in relation to, AUQA.
- (5) To avoid doubt, doing a thing includes making an instrument.
- (6) A determination under subitem (4) is not a legislative instrument.
- (7) To avoid doubt, TEQSA may carry out a quality assessment or compliance assessment of a registered higher education provider under the TEQSA Act at any time even if this item applies in relation to the provider.

Part 8—Review of decisions

31 Rights of review of certain decisions

The following decisions of TEQSA are taken to be reviewable decisions for the purposes of Part 10 of the TEQSA Act:

- (a) a decision under subitem 3(3), 5(1), 10(3) or 16(3) about the provider category in which a higher education provider will be registered;
- (b) a decision under subitem 8(1) not to lift a suspension of a higher education provider's registration;
- (c) a decision under subitem 10(3) or 16(3) that a higher education provider cannot self-accredit one or more courses of study;
- (d) a decision under item 17 or 27 to refuse to waive all or part of a fee;
- (e) a decision under subitem 22(1) not to lift a suspension of the accreditation of a course of study.

Note: Part 10 of the TEQSA Act also allows review of TEQSA's decisions under that Act that relate to this Schedule. For example, internal and AAT review could be sought of a decision under section 32 of that Act to impose a condition on an automatic registration arising under Part 2 of this Schedule.

Part 9—Transfer of records

32 Transferring records to TEQSA

- (1) This item applies to any records or documents:
 - (a) that relate to a higher education provider to whom this Schedule applies; and
 - (b) that are in the custody of a registration authority before or after the transition time.
- (2) TEQSA may request the registration authority to give it a copy of the records or documents.
- (3) The registration authority may comply with the request.

Part 10—Miscellaneous

33 Transitional regulations

The Governor-General may make regulations prescribing matters of a transitional nature (including prescribing any saving or application provisions) relating to:

- (a) the enactment of the TEQSA Act; or
 - (b) the amendments or repeals made by this Act.
