 - (d) in accordance with that arrangement and as a result of the demerger, the facility:
 - (i) becomes the owner of the roll-over interest (which is a new or replacement interest in the demerged entity); and the investor's proportion of the total capital proceeds of the CGT events (less expenses).

- (2) The facility is treated as not owning the roll-over interest at the deeming time.
- (3) This section applies for the purposes of:
 - (a) applying this Division in relation to the demerger; and
 - (b) item 2 of the table in subsection 115-30(1), to the extent that it relates to a roll-over under this Division that involves the demerger.

Object of this Subdivision

124-515 Object of this Subdivision

The object of this Subdivision is to ensure that CGT considerations for *members of a body incorporated under a law do not impede a change of incorporation involving converting the body to, or replacing it with, a company incorporated under:

- (a) the Corporations Act 2001 or a similar *foreign law; or
- (b) the Corporations (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) Act 2006.

 - (a) you are a *member of a body incorporated under a law described in column 1 of an item of the table; and
 - (b) the body is converted into a company incorporated under a law described in column 2 of the item, without creating a new legal entity; and
 - (c) it is reasonable to conclude that there is no significant difference:
 - (i) between the ownership of the body, and of rights relating to the body held by entities that owned the body, just before the conversion and the ownership of the company just after the conversion; or
 - (ii) between the mix of ownership of the body, and of rights relating to the body held by entities that owned the body, just before the conversion and the mix of ownership of the company just after the conversion.

Note: See section 124-20 if an entity uses a share or interest sale facility.

Application and object of this Subdivision

620-10 Application

This Subdivision applies to a body that is incorporated under one law and ceases to exist, and to a company incorporated under another law, if section 124-525 applies in relation to the body and the company.

Note: That section applies if the ownership of the company is not significantly different from the ownership of the body and rights relating to the body.

620-15 Object

The object of this Subdivision is to ensure tax-neutral consequences when the body ceases to hold an asset and also if the asset becomes held by the company.

CGT consequences

620-20 Disregard body's capital gains and losses from CGT assets

(1) This section applies if:

- (a) the body *disposes of a *CGT asset to the company because the body ceases to exist; or
 - (b) another *CGT event happens to a CGT asset of the body because the body ceases to exist.
- (2) A *capital gain or a *capital loss the body makes from the *CGT asset is disregarded.

620-25 Cost base and pre-CGT status of CGT asset for company

- (1) This section applies to a *CGT asset if the body *disposes of it to the company because the body ceases to exist.
- (2) The first element of the *CGT asset's *cost base for the company is equal to the asset's cost base for the body in connection with the *disposal.
- (3) The first element of the *CGT asset's *reduced cost base for the company is worked out similarly.
- (4) If the body *acquired the *CGT asset before 20 September 1985, the company is taken to have acquired the CGT asset before that day.

Consequences for depreciating assets

620-30 Roll-over relief for balancing adjustment events

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) there is a *balancing adjustment event because the body disposes of a *depreciating asset in an income year to the company because the body ceases to exist; and
 - (b) the disposal involves a *CGT event.
- (2) This Act applies as if:
 - (a) there were roll-over relief under subsection 40-340(1) for the *balancing adjustment event; and
 - (b) the body were the transferor mentioned in that subsection and subsection 328-243(1A); and
 - (c) the company were the transferee mentioned in that subsection and subsection 328-243(1A).

Note: Some effects of this are as follows:

- (a) the balancing adjustment event does not affect the body's assessable income or deductions (see subsection 40-345(1));
 - (b) the company can deduct for the decline in value of the asset on the same basis as the body did (see subsection 40-345(2));
 - (c) Division 45 (Disposal of leases and leased plant) applies to the company as if it had done the things the body did (see subsection 40-350(1)).
- (3) Disregard paragraph 328-243(1A)(c) in determining whether subsection 328-243(1A) applies.

Consequences for trading stock

620-40 Body taken to have sold trading stock to company

- (1) This subsection applies to each item of *trading stock that the body disposes of to the company because the body ceases to exist.
- (2) The body is taken to have sold, and the company is taken to have bought, the item (in the ordinary course of *business and dealing with each other at arm's length), at the time of the disposal (or just before that time if the disposal occurred when the body ceased to exist), for:
 - (a) the *cost of the item for the body; or
 - (b) if the body held the item as *trading stock at the start of the income year, the *value of the item for the body then.
- (3) The company is taken to have held the item as *trading stock when it bought the item.

Consequences for revenue assets

620-50 Body taken to have sold revenue assets to company

Disposal

- (1) Subsections (2) and (3) apply to a *CGT asset:
 - (a) that the body *disposes of to the company because the body ceases to exist; and
 - (b) that is a *revenue asset of the body just before the disposal.

Note: Trading stock and depreciating assets are not revenue assets. See section 977-50.

- (2) The body is taken to have disposed of the *revenue asset to the company for an amount such that the body would not make a profit or a loss on the disposal.
- (3) For the purpose of calculating any profit or loss on a future disposal of, cessation of owning, or other realisation of, the *revenue asset, the company is taken to have paid the body that amount for the disposal of the revenue asset to the company.

Ceasing to own or other realising

- (4) Subsection (5) applies to a *CGT asset:
 - (a) that the body ceases to own, or otherwise realises, because the body ceases to exist; and
 - (b) that is a *revenue asset of the body just before the cessation or realisation.

Note: Trading stock and depreciating assets are not revenue assets. See section 977-50.

- (5) The body is taken to have disposed of the *revenue asset for an amount such that the body would not make a profit or a loss on the disposal.
