Part 2—Encouraging responsible gambling

19 Encouraging responsible gambling

- (1) The Commonwealth recognises the importance of meaningful measures to encourage responsible gambling.
- (2) The Commonwealth supports voluntary pre-commitment on gaming machines.
- (3) Voluntary pre-commitment allows a player of a gaming machine to set a limit on the amount that the player is prepared to lose from playing gaming machines, and helps the player keep to the limit.

The player chooses whether to set a limit.

20 Developing and implementing voluntary pre-commitment measure

- (1) The Commonwealth will work with Governments of the States and Territories, the gaming industry, academics and the community sector:
 - (a) to develop and implement a voluntary pre-commitment scheme on gaming machines; and
 - (b) to develop a realistic timetable for implementing this measure.
- (2) The Commonwealth will work with Governments of the States and Territories and the gaming industry:
 - (a) to ensure that all gaming machines are capable of supporting a venue-based voluntary pre-commitment scheme; and
 - (aa) to ensure that a venue-based voluntary pre-commitment scheme operating in a State or Territory is capable of connecting to a State or Territory wide voluntary pre-commitment scheme that operates within the State or Territory; and
 - (b) to develop a realistic timetable for implementing these capabilities.

21 Administration of voluntary pre-commitment measure

The Commonwealth will work with Governments of the States and Territories on the most appropriate way of administering the voluntary pre-commitment measure referred to in subsection 20(1).

6 Application of amendments

- (1) Subject to this item, the amendments made by items 1 to 5 apply in relation to periods of absence from Australia starting on or after 1 July 2014.

Presence in Australia immediately before 1 July 2014

- (2) If:

(a) immediately before 1 July 2014 a person was receiving a pension referred to in section 1220A, 1220B or 1221 of the Social Security Act 1991; and

(b) immediately before 1 July 2014 the person was in Australia but was not residing in Australia; and

(c) the person leaves Australia on a day (the departure day) that is before the end of the period of 26 weeks beginning on 1 July 2014; and

(d) on the departure day the person is receiving that pension;

then, subject to subitem (5), the amendments made by items 1 to 5 do not apply in relation to the person's period of absence from Australia starting on the departure day.

(3) If:

(a) because of subitem (2), the amendments made by items 1 to 5 did not apply in relation to the person's period of absence from Australia starting on the departure day; and

(b) after the departure day the person returns to Australia; and

(c) immediately before returning to Australia the person is receiving that pension; and

(d) the person leaves Australia on a day (the relevant day) that is before the end of the period of 26 weeks beginning on the day the person returned to Australia; and

(e) on the relevant day the person is receiving that pension;

then, subject to subitem (5), the amendments made by items 1 to 5 do not apply in relation to the person's period of absence from Australia starting on the relevant day.

Presence outside Australia immediately before 1 July 2014

(4) If:

(a) immediately before 1 July 2014 a person was outside Australia and was receiving a pension referred to in section 1220A, 1220B or 1221 of the Social Security Act 1991; and

(b) on or after 1 July 2014 the person returns to Australia; and

(c) immediately before returning to Australia the person is receiving that pension; and

- (d) the person leaves Australia on a day (the departure day) that is before the end of the period of 26 weeks beginning on the day the person returned to Australia; and
 - (e) on the departure day the person is receiving that pension;
- then, subject to subitem (5), the amendments made by items 1 to 5 do not apply in relation to the person's period of absence from Australia starting on the departure day.

General rule

- (5) If none of subitems (2) to (4) have the effect that the amendments made by items 1 to 5 do not apply in relation to a person's period of absence from Australia starting on or after 1 July 2014, then, despite subitems (2) to (4), the amendments made by items 1 to 5 apply in relation to any other period of absence from Australia of the person starting on or after that day.

Social Security (International Agreements) Act 1999

Repeal the heading, substitute:

23 Residence factor: Australian working life residence of 35 years or more

10 Section 23

Omit "300 months (25 years)", substitute "420 months (35 years)".

11 Section 24 (heading)

Repeal the heading, substitute:

24 Residence factor: Australian working life residence of less than 35 years

12 Section 24

Omit “300 months (25 years)”, substitute “420 months (35 years)”.

13 Section 24 (formula)

Repeal the formula, substitute:

$$\frac{\text{Person's period of Australian working life residence}}{420}$$

14 Application of amendments

Periods of absence from Australia

- (1) Subject to this item, the amendments made by items 7 to 13 apply in relation to periods of absence from Australia starting on or after 1 July 2014.
- (2) If:
 - (a) immediately before 1 July 2014 a person was receiving a social security payment under a scheduled international social security agreement; and
 - (b) immediately before 1 July 2014 the person was in Australia but was not residing in Australia; and
 - (c) the person leaves Australia on a day (the departure day) that is before the end of the period of 26 weeks beginning on 1 July 2014; and
 - (d) on the departure day the person is receiving that payment;then, subject to subitems (5) and (6), the amendments made by items 7 to 13 do not apply in relation to the person's period of absence from Australia starting on the departure day.
- (3) If:
 - (a) because of subitem (2), the amendments made by items 7 to 13 did not apply in relation to the person's period of absence from Australia starting on the departure day; and
 - (b) after the departure day the person returns to Australia; and

(c) immediately before returning to Australia the person is receiving that payment; and
(d) the person leaves Australia on a day (the relevant day) that is before the end of the period of 26 weeks beginning on the day the person returned to Australia; and
(e) on the relevant day the person is receiving that payment;

then, subject to subitems (5) and (6), the amendments made by items 7 to 13 do not apply in relation to the person's period of absence from Australia starting on the relevant day.

(4) If:

- (a) immediately before 1 July 2014 a person was outside Australia and was receiving a social security payment under a scheduled international social security agreement at a rate worked out under Part 3 of the Social Security (International Agreements) Act 1999; and
- (b) on or after 1 July 2014 the person returns to Australia; and
- (c) immediately before returning to Australia the person is receiving that payment at that rate; and
- (d) the person leaves Australia on a day (the departure day) that is before the end of the period of 26 weeks beginning on the day the person returned to Australia; and
- (e) on the departure day the person is receiving that payment (regardless of how the rate of that payment is being worked out);

then, subject to subitems (5) and (6), the amendments made by items 7 to 13 do not apply in relation to the person's period of absence from Australia starting on the departure day.

(5) If none of subitems (2) to (4) have the effect that the amendments made by items 7 to 13 do not apply in relation to a person's period of absence from Australia starting on or after 1 July 2014, then, despite subitems (2) to (4), the amendments made by items 7 to 13 apply in relation to any other period of absence from Australia of the person starting on or after that day.

Existing recipients of wife pension or carer payment

(6) If:

- (a) immediately before 1 July 2014 a person was receiving a wife pension or a carer payment under a scheduled international social security agreement; and
- (b) immediately before 1 July 2014 the person's period of Australian working life residence exceeded the period of Australian working life residence of:
 - (i) if the person was receiving a wife pension—the person's partner; or
 - (ii) if the person was receiving a carer payment—the person for whom the person was providing care;

then the amendments made by items 7 and 8 apply in relation to working out the rate of that wife pension or carer payment on or after 1 July 2014.

New recipients of social security payments

(7) If:

- (a) a person is outside Australia on or after 1 July 2014 (regardless of when the absence began); and
- (b) the person's start day, in relation to a social security payment under a scheduled international social security agreement, is on or after 1 July 2014;

then the amendments made by items 7 to 13 apply in relation to working out the rate of that payment.

Schedule 8—Pension bonus scheme

Social Security Act 1991

1 Section 92A

Omit:

- A person who wants to get a pension bonus must register as a member of the pension bonus scheme.

substitute:

- A person who wants to get a pension bonus must register as a member of the pension bonus scheme. An application for registration cannot be made on or after 1 July 2014.

Add:

Extension of 56 week period in certain circumstances

- (7) The Secretary may extend the 56 week period (the initial period) referred to in subsection (1), (2), (4) or (5), to a period of no more than 3 years, if the Secretary is satisfied that the child mentioned in subsection (1) or (2), or the individual mentioned in subsection (4) or (5), (in each case, the person) is unable to return to Australia within the initial period because of any of the following events:
- (a) a serious accident involving the person or a family member of the person;
 - (b) a serious illness of the person or a family member of the person;
 - (c) the hospitalisation of the person or a family member of the person;
 - (d) the death of a family member of the person;
 - (e) the person’s involvement in custody proceedings in the country in which the person is located;

- (f) a legal requirement for the person to remain outside Australia in connection with criminal proceedings (other than criminal proceedings in respect of a crime alleged to have been committed by the person);
 - (g) robbery or serious crime committed against the person or a family member of the person;
 - (h) a natural disaster in the country in which the person is located;
 - (i) political or social unrest in the country in which the person is located;
 - (j) industrial action in the country in which the person is located;
 - (k) a war in the country in which the person is located.
- (8) The Secretary must not extend the initial period under subsection (7) unless:
- (a) the event occurred or began during the initial period; and
 - (b) if the event is political or social unrest, industrial action or war—the person is not willingly involved in, or willingly participating in the event.
- (9) The Secretary may extend the 56 week period referred to in subsection (1), (2), (4) or (5), to a period of no more than 3 years, if the Secretary is satisfied that, under the Medical Treatment Overseas Program administered by the Minister who administers the National Health Act 1953, financial assistance is payable in respect of the absence from Australia of the child mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) or the individual mentioned in subsection (4) or (5).
- (10) The Secretary may extend the 56 week period referred to in subsection (4) or (5), to a period of no more than 3 years, if the Secretary is satisfied that the individual mentioned in the subsection is unable to return to Australia within the 56 week period because the individual is:
- (a) deployed outside Australia as a member of the Defence Force, under conditions specified in a determination made under the Defence Act 1903 that relates to such deployment; or
 - (b) deployed outside Australia, for the purpose of capacity-building or peacekeeping functions, as:

- (i) a member or a special member of the Australian Federal Police; or
- (ii) a protective service officer within the meaning of the Australian Federal Police Act 1979.

Effect of a person's return to Australia after 56 weeks

13 At the end of section 46

Add:

Extension of 56 week period for Australian Defence Force and Australian Federal Police deployments

- (4) The Secretary may extend the 56 week period referred to in subsection (1) or (2), to a period of no more than 3 years, if the Secretary is satisfied that the person is unable to return to Australia within the 56 week period because the person is:
- (a) deployed outside Australia as a defence force member, under conditions specified in a determination made under the Defence Act 1903 that relates to such deployment; or
 - (b) deployed outside Australia, for the purpose of capacity-building or peacekeeping functions, as:
 - (i) a member or a special member of the Australian Federal Police; or
 - (ii) a protective service officer within the meaning of the Australian Federal Police Act 1979.

Extension of 56 week period for events or circumstances prescribed in the PPL rules

- (5) The Secretary may extend the 56 week period referred to in subsection (1) or (2), to a period of no more than 3 years, if the Secretary is satisfied that:
- (a) the person is unable to return to Australia within the 56 week period because of an event prescribed by the PPL rules; or
 - (b) a circumstance prescribed by the PPL rules applies.

14 Application provision

- (1) The amendments made by items 9 to 13 apply in relation to a person's eligibility for parental leave pay and dad and partner pay for a child born on or after 1 July 2014. For this purpose, it does not matter whether an absence from Australia began before, on or after 1 July 2014.
- (2) The following provisions of the Paid Parental Leave Act 2010 apply in relation to this item as if this item were a provision of that Act:

- (a) section 275 (which deals with how that Act applies to an adopted child);
- (b) section 276 (which deals with how that Act applies to claims made in exceptional circumstances);
- (c) section 277A (which deals with how that Act applies to claims for dad and partner pay made in prescribed circumstances).

A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act 1999

15 Subsection 10(2) (heading)

Repeal the heading, substitute:

Claim must relate to one income year and be made within a certain period

16 Sections 32C to 32H

Repeal the sections, substitute:

32C Relevant reconciliation time—first individual must lodge tax return

- (1) This section applies to the first individual for a same-rate benefit period if:
 - (a) the first individual is or was required to lodge an income tax return for the relevant income year; and
 - (b) clause 38L of Schedule 1 to the Family Assistance Act did not apply to the first individual at any time during the same-rate benefit period.
- (2) Disregard paragraph (1)(b) if the first individual was a member of a couple at any time during the same-rate benefit period.
- (3) The relevant reconciliation time is the time when an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the first individual's taxable income for the relevant income year, so long as the first individual's income tax return for the relevant income year was lodged before the end of:
 - (a) the first income year after the relevant income year; or
 - (b) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows, if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the first individual from lodging the return before the end of that first income year.

- (4) The further period under paragraph (3)(b) must end no later than the end of the second income year after the relevant income year.

32D Relevant reconciliation time—no separation of couple and partner must lodge tax return

- (1) This section applies to the first individual for a same-rate benefit period if:
- (a) the first individual was a member of a couple throughout that period; and
 - (b) the other member of the couple (the partner) is or was required to lodge an income tax return for the relevant income year; and
 - (c) the first individual continues to be a member of the couple until the end of:
 - (i) the first income year after the relevant income year; or
 - (ii) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows, if the Secretary is satisfied that there are special circumstances that prevented the partner from lodging the return before the end of that first income year.
- (2) The relevant reconciliation time is the time when an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the partner's taxable income for the relevant income year, so long as the partner's income tax return for the relevant income year was lodged before the end of:
- (a) the first income year after the relevant income year; or
 - (b) such further period (if any) as the Secretary allows under subparagraph (1)(c)(ii).
- (3) The further period under subparagraph (1)(c)(ii) must end no later than the end of the second income year after the relevant income year.

32E Relevant reconciliation time—couple separates during next income year and partner must lodge tax return

- (1) This section applies to the first individual for a same-rate benefit period if:
- (a) the first individual was a member of a couple throughout that period; and

- (b) the other member of the couple (the partner) is or was required to lodge an income tax return for the relevant income year; and
 - (c) the first individual ceased to be a member of the couple during the first income year after the relevant income year.
- (2) The relevant reconciliation time is:
- (a) if the partner lodged the return before the end of the first income year after the relevant income year—when an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the partner's taxable income for the relevant income year; or
 - (b) otherwise—the end of the first income year after the relevant income year.

32F Relevant reconciliation time—couple separates after end of next income year and partner must lodge tax return

- (1) This section applies to the first individual for a same-rate benefit period if:
- (a) the first individual was a member of a couple throughout that period; and
 - (b) the other member of the couple (the partner) is or was required to lodge an income tax return for the relevant income year; and
 - (c) the partner did not lodge the return before the end of the first income year after the relevant income year; and
 - (d) the Secretary allowed a further period for the partner to lodge the return because the Secretary was satisfied that there were special circumstances that prevented the partner from lodging the return before the end of that first income year; and
 - (e) the first individual ceased to be a member of the couple during the period beginning at the start of the second income year after the relevant income year and ending at the end of that further period allowed by the Secretary.
- (2) The relevant reconciliation time is:
- (a) if the partner lodged the return while the first individual and the partner were members of the same couple—when an assessment is made under the Income Tax Assessment Act

1936 of the partner's taxable income for the relevant income year; or

(b) otherwise—when the first individual ceased to be a member of the couple.

(3) The further period under paragraph (1)(d) must end no later than the end of the second income year after the relevant income year.

17 Section 32R

Repeal the section.

- (2) The amendments made by items 18 to 25 apply in relation to an income year referred to in paragraph 107(3)(d), 109D(4)(a) or 109E(3)(a) or subparagraph 109D(4)(b)(i) or 109E(3)(b)(i) of the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act 1999 that is the 2013-14 income year or a later income year.

Part 3—Protection of amounts under National Disability Insurance Scheme

National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013

27 At the end of Division 3 of Part 2 of Chapter 3

Add:

46A Protection of NDIS amounts

- (1) An NDIS amount is absolutely inalienable, whether by way of, or in consequence of, sale, assignment, charge, execution, bankruptcy or otherwise.
- (2) This section is subject to Part 1 of Chapter 7.

46B Garnishee orders

General rule

- (1) A court must not make an order in the nature of a garnishee order in respect of an account with a financial institution if:
 - (a) one or more NDIS amounts for a particular participant have been paid to the credit of the account; and
 - (b) the account has been kept solely for the purpose of managing the funding for supports under the participant's plan.

Exception

- (2) However, a court may make an order in the nature of a garnishee order in respect of the account if:
 - (a) the order is made in favour of a person in relation to a debt that arose because of the person providing goods or services in relation to the participant; and
 - (b) the goods or services are reasonable and necessary supports specified in the participant's plan.

28 Application provisions

- (1) Section 46A of the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013, as amended by this Act, applies in relation to NDIS amounts paid on or after the commencement of this item.
- (2) Section 46B of the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013, as amended by this Act, applies in relation to court orders made on or after the commencement of this item.

160A Use of tax file numbers

- (1) This section applies in relation to the tax file number of an individual that is provided to the Secretary under this Act for the purposes of this Act.

Assistance to the Secretary

- (2) The Secretary may:
 - (a) provide the tax file number referred to in subsection (1) to the Commissioner of Taxation; and
 - (b) require the Commissioner of Taxation to provide the Secretary with information about the individual (including the number the Commissioner of Taxation considers to be the individual's tax file number) that is requested by the Secretary.
- (3) Information provided to the Secretary under a requirement made under subsection (2) may be used only for the following purposes:
 - (a) to detect cases in which amounts of family assistance under the family assistance law have been paid when they should not have been paid;
 - (b) to verify, in respect of individuals who have made claims for family assistance under the family assistance law, the eligibility or entitlement of those individuals for family assistance;

- (c) to establish whether the rates at which family assistance under the family assistance law are being, or have been, paid are, or were, correct;
- (d) to assist in the recovery of a debt due to the Commonwealth under this Act.

Assistance to the Commissioner of Taxation

- (4) The Secretary may provide the tax file number referred to in subsection (1) to the Commissioner of Taxation for the following purposes:
 - (a) to assist the Commissioner act under section 87 (applying tax refund to family assistance debt) in relation to a debt owed by an individual;
 - (b) to assist the Commissioner act under section 93 (applying tax refund to another person's family assistance debt) in relation to a debt owed by an individual;
 - (c) to assist the payment of deductions to the Commissioner under section 225;
 - (d) to assist the Commissioner set off amounts under section 226.

31 Application and saving provisions

- (1) Subsection 160A(1) of the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act 1999, as inserted by this Act, applies in relation to a tax file number provided to the Secretary before, on or after the commencement of this item.
- (2) Despite the amendment made by item 29, sections 154A and 154B of the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act 1999, as in force immediately before the commencement of that item, continue to apply on and after that commencement in relation to a record provided under subsection 154A(2) or 154B(1) of that Act before that commencement.

Part 6—Other amendments

A New Tax System (Family Assistance) Act 1999

74 Subsection 36(2)

Omit “if on any day”, substitute “if in relation to any day”.

75 Subparagraphs 36(2)(a)(i) and (ii)

After “individual” (wherever occurring), insert “or the individual’s partner”.

76 Paragraph 36(2)(b)

After “individual’s”, insert “or the individual’s partner’s”.

77 After subsection 58AA(1)

Insert:

(1A) If:

- (a) under Division 1A of Part 5 of Schedule 1 an amount of newborn supplement is added for a day in relation to both members of a couple and an FTB child of both members of the couple; and
- (b) in relation to that day, a determination under section 28 or 29 is in force in relation to both members of the couple and that child; and
- (c) that day is the first day on which an amount of newborn supplement is added in relation to that child;

then, despite subsection (1) of this section, each member of the couple is entitled to be paid, as an amount of family tax benefit in respect of that child, an amount equal to $500 multiplied by the percentage applicable under that determination for that member on that day.

Note: The amount is to be paid as a single lump sum: see section 24A of the Family Assistance Administration Act.

78 Subsection 58AA(2)

Omit “Subsection (1)”, substitute “Subject to subsection (1A), subsection (1)”.

79 At the end of section 58AA

- (c) throughout that period there is no determination in force under section 28 or 29 in relation to both members of the couple and that child;

82 Paragraph 35B(1)(b) of Schedule 1

Omit “individual or the individual’s partner”, substitute “individual, or the individual’s partner, in the circumstances mentioned in paragraphs 35A(5)(b) and (c)”.

83 Subclause 35B(2) of Schedule 1

Repeal the subclause, substitute:

Multiple children cases

- (2) If 2 or more children are born during the same multiple birth (including any stillborn child) and subclause 35A(2) applies in relation to an individual and one or more of those children (each of whom is a qualifying child), the amount of newborn supplement for the individual in respect of each qualifying child is the amount worked out using the formula:

$$$1,501.50 \times \frac{365}{91}$$

84 Clause 2 of Schedule 4 (table item 7B)

Omit “subsection 58AA(1)”, substitute “subsections 58AA(1) and (1A)”.

A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act
1999

85 After section 28

Insert:

28AA Effect of section 28 on newborn upfront payment of family tax benefit

(1) If:

- (a) an individual is entitled to be paid an amount (the upfront amount) of family tax benefit under section 58AA of the Family Assistance Act because an amount of newborn supplement is added in relation to the individual under Division 1A of Part 5 of Schedule 1 to that Act for one or more days; and
- (b) a variation under subsection 28(2) or (6) of this Act has the effect that the individual never was entitled to family tax benefit for those days; then the individual is taken not to have been entitled to the upfront amount.

- (2) If a variation under subsection 28(3) or (4) of this Act has the effect that the individual is entitled to be paid family tax benefit for those days, then subsection (1) of this section ceases to apply to the individual.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent subsection (1) again applying to the individual.

86 At the end of Subdivision CA of Division 1 of Part 3

Add:

32AEA Effect of this Subdivision on newborn upfront payment of family tax benefit

If this Subdivision has the effect that:

- (a) the Secretary must not make a payment of family tax benefit (worked out on an estimated income basis) to an individual during a period; or

(b) an individual is not entitled to be paid family tax benefit (worked out on an estimated income basis) for a period; then the individual is not entitled to be paid an amount of family tax benefit under section 58AA of the Family Assistance Act during that period.

87 Subsection 39(2)

Omit “subsections (3) and (4)”, substitute “subsections (3), (3A) and (4)”.

88 After subsection 39(3)

Insert:

(3A) If:

- (a) in relation to any day during the period of 52 weeks mentioned in subsection (2), paragraphs 36(2)(a) and (b) of the Family Assistance Act apply in relation to the claimant or the claimant’s partner; and
- (b) after the end of, or during the last 13 weeks of, that 52-week period, the Secretary gives the claimant, or the claimant’s partner, a notice specifying that the claimant’s or the claimant’s partner’s rate of family tax benefit consists of or includes a Part A rate greater than nil;

subsection (2) of this section does not apply if the claim for payment of a stillborn baby payment is made within the period of 13 weeks after the day on which the notice is given.
