Add:

Note: See also subsection (1A).

2 Subsection 4(1) (after paragraph (a) of the definition of designated place)

Insert:

- (aa) a place to which a ship or aircraft has been brought because of stress of weather or other reasonable cause as mentioned in subsection 58(1), while that ship or aircraft remains at that place; or

3 Subsection 4(1) (paragraph (f) of the definition of designated place)

After “paragraph (a),”, insert “(aa),”.

4 After subsection 4(1)

Insert:

(1A) If:

- (a) the CEO gives an authorisation under the definition of authorised officer in subsection (1); and
- (b) the authorisation is for officers of Customs from time to time holding, occupying or performing the duties of specified offices or positions to exercise the powers or perform the functions of an authorised officer under specified sections of this Act;

then the authorisation extends to such an office or position that comes into existence after the authorisation is given.

5 Section 31

Repeal the section, substitute:

31 Goods on ships and aircraft subject to Customs control

All goods on board any ship or aircraft from a place outside Australia are subject to the control of the Customs while the ship or aircraft:

- (a) is within the limits of any port or airport in Australia; or
- (b) is at a place to which the ship or aircraft has been brought because of stress of weather or other reasonable cause as mentioned in subsection 58(1); or
- (c) is at a place that is the subject of a permission under subsection 58(2).

6 Subsection 64AA(3)

Omit “The report”, substitute “Subject to subsection (3A), the report”.

7 After subsection 64AA(3)

Insert:

- (3A) The CEO may, by legislative instrument, determine that reports for specified ships, or specified aircraft, in specified circumstances must be made before a specified time or before the occurrence of a specified event. Such reports must be made in accordance with the instrument.

8 Subsections 64AA(4) and (5)

Omit “the report of the arrival of the ship or aircraft”, substitute “a report mentioned in subsection (3) or (3A)”.

186AA General powers of examination of goods loaded onto or unloaded from ships or aircraft

- (1) This section applies in relation to the following:
 - (a) a ship or aircraft in respect of a voyage or flight to a place in Australia from a place outside Australia;
 - (b) a ship or aircraft in respect of a voyage or flight to a place outside Australia from a place in Australia.

Goods to be loaded onto the ship or aircraft

- (2) If:
 - (a) an officer has reason to believe that goods are to be loaded onto the ship or aircraft at an examinable place; and
 - (b) the goods are to be unloaded at another examinable place on the same voyage or flight;then:
 - (c) any officer may, subject to subsections (5) and (6), examine the goods while the goods are at the examinable place mentioned in paragraph (a); and
 - (d) the goods are subject to the control of the Customs while the goods are being so examined.

Goods unloaded from the ship or aircraft

- (3) If:
- (a) goods are loaded onto the ship or aircraft at an examinable place; and
 - (b) the goods are unloaded from the ship or aircraft at another examinable place on the same voyage or flight;
- then:
- (c) any officer may, subject to subsections (5) and (6), examine the goods while the goods are at the examinable place mentioned in paragraph (b); and
 - (d) the goods are subject to the control of the Customs while the goods are being so examined.

Rules relating to examination of goods

- (4) The expense of an examination referred to in subsection (2) or (3), including the cost of removal to the place of examination, is to be borne by the owner of the goods.
- (5) In the exercise of the power to examine goods, an officer may do, or arrange for another officer or other person having the necessary experience to do, whatever is reasonably necessary to permit the examination of the goods.
- (6) Without limiting subsection (5), examples of what may be done in the examination of goods include the following:
- (a) opening any package in which goods are or may be contained;
 - (b) using a device, such as an X-ray machine or ion scanning equipment, on the goods;
