3A Simplified outline of this Act

This Act provides for public access to Commonwealth Acts, legislative instruments and notifiable instruments. The Act also regulates other matters relating to legislative instruments and notifiable instruments.

Acts, legislative instruments and notifiable instruments, compilations and associated documents and information are registered on the Federal Register of Legislation. The public has online access (through an approved website) to authorised versions of registered Acts, instruments and compilations, and to associated documents and information.

The First Parliamentary Counsel maintains the Register and the approved website. The First Parliamentary Counsel is given the power to make editorial changes and some other changes to registered Acts and instruments in preparing compilations, if those changes do not change the effect of the Acts or instruments.

For legislative instruments and notifiable instruments, the Act deals with commencement, interpretation, incorporation of external material by reference and drafting standards.

Rule-makers for legislative instruments must undertake appropriate and reasonably practicable consultation before the instruments are made. Generally, legislative instruments must be tabled in both Houses of Parliament and are generally subject to disallowance by either House.

Legislative instruments and notifiable instruments (or provisions of those instruments) are automatically repealed after their commencement if they merely provide for the amendment, repeal or commencement of Acts or other instruments. Legislative instruments are generally repealed automatically (sunsetting) no more than 10 years after being registered.

Part 2—Key concepts for legislative instruments and notifiable instruments

7 Simplified outline of this Part

What are legislative instruments?

Generally, the following are legislative instruments:

- an instrument described or declared by a law (including this Act) to be a legislative instrument;
- an instrument registered on the Federal Register of Legislation as a legislative instrument;
- an instrument made under a power delegated by the Parliament that determines the law or alters its content.

However, an instrument is not a legislative instrument if an Act (or a regulation under this Act) so provides.

What are notifiable instruments?

Generally, the following are notifiable instruments:

- an instrument described or declared by a law (including this Act or a regulation under this Act) to be a notifiable instrument;
- a commencement instrument;
- an instrument (other than a legislative instrument) that is registered on the Federal Register of Legislation as a notifiable instrument.

Generally, unlike legislative instruments, notifiable instruments are not subject to parliamentary scrutiny, nor are they subject to automatic repeal 10 years after registration.

Other key concepts

A legislative instrument or notifiable instrument commences on the day after the instrument is registered, or on another day provided by the instrument. Generally, the instrument does not apply retrospectively if that would adversely affect rights or impose liabilities.

Generally, the same rules apply to the interpretation of legislative instruments and notifiable instruments as apply to the interpretation of Acts. Some special rules also apply to the construction of instruments.

There are restrictions on the extent to which legislative instruments or notifiable instruments can incorporate matters by reference to external documents.

8 Definition of legislative instrument

- (1) A legislative instrument is an instrument to which subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5) applies.

Schedule 1 Acts, legislative instruments and notifiable instruments

Part 1 Definitions and key concepts

Note: Instruments that can be legislative instruments may be described by their enabling legislation in different ways, for example as regulations, rules, ordinances or determinations.

Primary law provides for something to be done by legislative instrument

- (2) If a primary law gives power to do something by legislative instrument, then:
- (a) if the thing is done, it must be done by instrument; and
 - (b) that instrument is a legislative instrument.

Example 1: A primary law provides that “The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine licence conditions for the purposes of this section.”.

Example 2: A primary law provides as follows:

- “(1) The Chief Executive may, by instrument, determine licence conditions.
- (2) The Chief Executive may, by instrument, exempt a person from the requirement under this Act to hold a licence.
- (3) An instrument made by the Chief Executive under subsection (1) or (2) is a legislative instrument.”.

Instruments registered on the Federal Register of Legislation

- (3) An instrument made under a power delegated by the Parliament is a legislative instrument if it is registered as a legislative instrument.

Note: An instrument made under a power delegated by the Parliament may be a legislative instrument because it is registered as a legislative instrument, whether or not it is a legislative instrument because of another provision of this section.

Instruments that determine or alter the law etc.

- (4) An instrument is a legislative instrument if:
- (a) the instrument is made under a power delegated by the Parliament; and
 - (b) any provision of the instrument:
 - (i) determines the law or alters the content of the law, rather than determining particular cases or particular circumstances in which the law, as set out in an Act or another legislative instrument or provision, is to apply, or is not to apply; and

- (ii) has the direct or indirect effect of affecting a privilege or interest, imposing an obligation, creating a right, or varying or removing an obligation or right.

Instruments declared to be legislative instruments

- (5) An instrument is a legislative instrument if it is declared by section 10 or 57A to be a legislative instrument.

Note: Section 10 declares regulations and some other instruments to be legislative instruments. Section 57A declares some instruments to be legislative instruments that were made under a power delegated by the Parliament before 1 January 2005, when the substantive provisions of this Act commenced.

Instruments that are not legislative instruments

- (6) Despite subsections (4) and (5), an instrument is not a legislative instrument if it is:
 - (a) declared by an Act not to be a legislative instrument; or
 - (b) prescribed by regulation for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (7) However, subsection (6) does not apply to an instrument that is a legislative instrument under subsection (3) by registration.
- (8) Despite anything else in this section, the following are not legislative instruments, and cannot become legislative instruments under subsection (3) (by being registered as legislative instruments):
 - (a) an instrument that is a notifiable instrument because of subsection 11(1) (primary law gives power to do something by notifiable instrument);
 - (b) a commencement instrument;
 - (c) a compilation of a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument;
 - (d) rules of court, or a compilation of rules of court, for the High Court, the Federal Court of Australia, the Family Court of Australia or the Federal Circuit Court of Australia;
 - (e) an explanatory statement for a legislative instrument, or rules of court mentioned in paragraph (d).

Note: Rules of court are, however, registered under this Act, and are otherwise treated as if they were legislative instruments by their enabling legislation.

9 Inference of legislative character

No implication of legislative character (or otherwise)

- (1) The fact that an instrument is a legislative instrument because of subsection 8(2), (3) or (5) does not imply that the instrument is, or must be, of legislative character (within the ordinary meaning of that term).
- (2) The fact that an instrument is not a legislative instrument because of subsection 8(6) does not imply that the instrument is not, or must not be, of legislative character (within the ordinary meaning of that term).

No inference for other instruments

- (3) In determining whether an instrument made under a provision of a primary law is a legislative instrument under subsection 8(4), no inference may be drawn from the fact that an instrument made under another provision of that primary law, or any other primary law, is a legislative instrument, or is not a legislative instrument.

Example: In determining whether a Ministerial direction under a provision of a primary law is a legislative instrument, no inference may be drawn from the fact that a Ministerial direction under another provision of the primary law is described as a legislative instrument.

10 Instruments declared to be legislative instruments

- (1) For the purposes of subsection 8(5), each of the following is a legislative instrument:
 - (a) a regulation or Proclamation (other than a Proclamation that is a commencement instrument) made under a power delegated by the Parliament;
 - (b) a Territory Ordinance covered by subsection (2), or a regulation, rule or by-law under such an Ordinance;
 - (c) an instrument prescribed by regulation for the purposes of this paragraph;
 - (d) an instrument that includes a provision that amends or repeals another legislative instrument.

Note: Commencement instruments, which may be Proclamations, are notifiable instruments: see section 11.

- (2) The following Territory Ordinances are covered by this subsection:
- (a) an Ordinance made under a power delegated by the Parliament in an Act providing for the government of a non-self-governing Territory;
 - (b) an Ordinance made under subsection 12(1) of the Seat of Government (Administration) Act 1910 that has not become an enactment (as defined in the Australian Capital Territory (Self-Government) Act 1988);
 - (c) an Ordinance made under section 27 of the Norfolk Island Act 1979.

11 Definition of notifiable instrument

What is a notifiable instrument?

- (1) If a primary law gives power to do something by notifiable instrument, then:
- (a) if the thing is done, it must be done by instrument; and
 - (b) that instrument is a notifiable instrument.

Example 1: A primary law provides that “The Minister may, by notifiable instrument, approve a form for the purposes of this section.”

Example 2: A primary law provides as follows:

- “(1) The Chief Executive may, by instrument, appoint an inspector for the purposes of section [X].
- (2) The Chief Executive may, by instrument, approve a form for the purposes of section [Y].
- (3) An instrument made by the Chief Executive under subsection (1) or (2) is a notifiable instrument.”

- (2) Each of the following is a notifiable instrument:
- (a) a commencement instrument for an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, or for a provision of an Act or such an instrument;
 - (b) an instrument, other than a legislative instrument, prescribed by regulation for the purposes of this paragraph;
 - (c) an instrument, other than a legislative instrument, that is registered as a notifiable instrument, if the instrument is made under a power delegated by the Parliament or another power given by law;

- (d) an instrument, other than a legislative instrument, that includes a provision that amends or repeals another notifiable instrument.

Note: The effect of paragraph (c) is that an instrument (other than a legislative instrument) may be a notifiable instrument because it is registered as a notifiable instrument, even if it would not otherwise be a notifiable instrument because of this section. For a corresponding provision relating to legislative instruments, see subsection 8(3).

Modification of the operation of this Act

- (3) The enabling legislation for a notifiable instrument, or a regulation under this Act in relation to a notifiable instrument, may modify the operation of this Act in relation to the instrument.

Example: Such a regulation may provide that a provision of this Act about explanatory statements that is expressed to apply in relation to legislative instruments is also to apply to a particular class of notifiable instruments.

Registration to satisfy other publication or notification requirements

- (4) If an Act or an instrument requires an instrument (other than a legislative instrument), or the particulars of the instrument's making, to be published or notified in the Gazette or in any other way, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the requirement is taken to be satisfied if the instrument is registered as a notifiable instrument.

12 Commencement of legislative instruments and notifiable instruments

When do legislative instruments and notifiable instruments commence?

- (1) A legislative instrument or a notifiable instrument commences:
- (a) at the start of the day after the day the instrument is registered; or
 - (b) so far as the instrument provides otherwise—in accordance with such provision.

Note: The instrument may provide for its commencement by enabling a commencement instrument to be made: see subsection (5).

Retrospective application

- (2) A provision of a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument does not apply in relation to a person (other than the Commonwealth or an authority of the Commonwealth) if the provision commences before the day the instrument is registered, to the extent that as a result:
 - (a) the person's rights as at that day would be affected so as to disadvantage the person; or
 - (b) liabilities would be imposed on the person in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before that day.
- (3) However, subject to subsection (2), a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument may provide that a provision of the instrument commences before the day the instrument is registered.
- (4) The effect of subsection (2) or (3) in relation to an instrument is subject to any contrary provision in an Act.

Commencement instruments

- (5) Without limiting paragraph (1)(b), for the purposes of that paragraph, a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument may authorise the making of a commencement instrument in relation to the legislative instrument or notifiable instrument.

13 Subsection 13(1)

Omit "rule-maker the power to make a legislative instrument", substitute "person the power to make a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument".

14 Paragraphs 13(1)(a), (b) and (c)

15 Paragraph 13(1)(c)

Omit "rule-maker", substitute "person to make the instrument".

16 Subsection 13(2)

17 Subsection 13(3)

Omit “rule-maker the power to make a legislative instrument”, substitute “person the power to make a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument”.

18 Subsection 13(3)

Omit “rule-maker may identify”, substitute “person may identify”.

19 After subsection 13(4) (before the note)

Insert:

- (5) The amendment of a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument by an Act does not prevent the instrument, as so amended, from being amended or repealed by a person who is currently authorised under the enabling legislation for the instrument to make instruments of the same kind.

20 Section 13 (note)

Omit “that are not legislative instruments”, substitute “other than legislative instruments or notifiable instruments”.

21 Subsection 14(1)

Omit “in a legislative instrument, the legislative instrument”, substitute “by a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, the instrument”.

22 Paragraph 14(1)(a)

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

- (a) by applying, adopting or incorporating, with or without modification, any of the following, as in force at a particular time or as in force from time to time:
 - (i) the provisions of an Act;

- (ii) the provisions of a legislative instrument covered by subsection (3); or

23 Paragraph 14(1)(b)

Omit “first-mentioned legislative instrument takes effect”, substitute “first-mentioned instrument commences”.

24 Subsection 14(2)

After “legislative instrument”, insert “or notifiable instrument”.

25 After subsection 14(2) (before the note)

Insert:

- (3) The following legislative instruments are covered by this subsection:
- (a) disallowable legislative instruments;
 - (b) legislative instruments that were disallowable under the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 or any other Act at any time before 1 January 2005.

Note: The substantive provisions of this Act commenced on 1 January 2005.

Exception—forms

- (4) Despite subsections (1) to (3), a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument (the enabling instrument) may authorise or require a form (however described) to be used for the purposes of an Act, that instrument or another instrument if the enabling instrument provides that:
- (a) the form is a notifiable instrument; or
 - (b) the form is required to be publicly available in another specified way.

15 Simplified outline of this Part

The Federal Register of Legislation contains the following:

- Acts, legislative instruments and notifiable instruments as made, and explanatory statements for legislative instruments;
- compilations of Acts, legislative instruments and notifiable instruments;
- other relevant documents and information.

Rule-makers for legislative instruments and notifiable instruments are responsible for lodging the instruments for registration (together with explanatory statements for legislative instruments).

Legislative instruments are not enforceable unless registered.

Responsible persons for Acts, and rule-makers for legislative instruments or notifiable instruments, must notify the First Parliamentary Counsel of some events affecting the status of the Acts or instruments.

Division 2—Federal Register of Legislation

15A Federal Register of Legislation—establishment and maintenance

- (1) The First Parliamentary Counsel must establish and maintain a register of Acts, legislative instruments and notifiable instruments, to be known as the Federal Register of Legislation.

Note 1: The contents of the Federal Register of Legislation may be accessed on the approved website (see section 15C).

Note 2: The Federal Register of Legislation in its initial form consists of the following:

- (a) the contents of the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments established under this Act, when this Act was known as the Legislative Instruments Act 2003;
 - (b) the contents of the Acts database under the Acts Publication Act 1905 (which was repealed when this section commenced);
 - (c) other legislative material published on the whole-of-government legislation website known as ComLaw.
- (2) The Register must contain the following:
- (a) Acts as made that are registered under this Part;
 - (b) legislative instruments and notifiable instruments as made that are registered under this Part;
 - (c) compilations, registered under this Part, of Acts, legislative instruments and notifiable instruments;
 - (d) explanatory statements, registered under this Part, for legislative instruments;
 - (e) other documents registered under this Part.
- (3) The Register may contain additional documents if the First Parliamentary Counsel considers that the documents are likely to be useful to users of the Register, including the following (without limitation):
- (a) Acts as made (other than Acts registered under this Part);
 - (b) instruments as made (other than legislative instruments or notifiable instruments registered under this Part);
 - (c) Gazette notices;
 - (d) compilations of Acts or instruments (other than compilations registered under this Part);

- (e) documents that may be considered under section 15AB of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (and that section as applied by section 13 of this Act) in working out the meaning of an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, for example, an explanatory memorandum for an Act.
- (4) The First Parliamentary Counsel may include in the Register any information that he or she considers likely to be useful to users of the Register.
- (5) Without limiting subsection (1), the First Parliamentary Counsel may, subject to this Act and the rules, do anything he or she considers necessary or desirable to ensure that the Register is accurate and up-to-date, and contains material likely to be useful to users of the Register.

15B Federal Register of Legislation—complete record of registered laws

The Federal Register of Legislation is, for all purposes, taken to be a complete and accurate record of all registered Acts, legislative instruments and notifiable instruments.

Note: For authorised versions of Acts, legislative instruments, notifiable instruments and compilations, and judicial notice of authorised versions, see Part 3 of this Chapter.

15C Federal Register of Legislation—access to registered material on approved website

The First Parliamentary Counsel must ensure that registered Acts, legislative instruments, notifiable instruments and compilations, and other registered documents, are available to the public on a website (an approved website) prescribed by the rules.

15D Federal Register of Legislation—correction of errors

Registered Acts, instruments and compilations

- (1) If the First Parliamentary Counsel is satisfied that there is a mistake, omission or other error in the Federal Register of Legislation consisting of an error in the text of an Act, a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, or of a compilation of an Act or such an instrument, as registered, the First Parliamentary Counsel must:

- (a) correct the error in the Register as soon as possible; and
 - (b) include in the Register a statement that the correction has been made, and a brief outline of the correction in general terms.
- (2) The correction of the Register under subsection (1):
- (a) does not affect any right or privilege that was acquired, or that accrued, because of reliance on the registered text of the Act, instrument or compilation before the correction was made; and
 - (b) does not impose or increase any obligation or liability that was incurred before the correction was made.

Other errors in the Register

- (3) The First Parliamentary Counsel may correct any other mistake, omission or other error in the Register, subject to any requirements of the rules.

Section does not apply to errors in text of Acts or instruments as enacted or made, or as amended

- (4) This section does not apply to the correction of an error:
- (a) for a registered Act or instrument—in the text of the Act or instrument as originally enacted or made; or
 - (b) for a registered compilation of an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument—in the text of the Act or instrument as amended (if at all) and in force.

15E Federal Register of Legislation—keeping the Register

The rules may provide for, or in relation to, the following:

- (a) keeping the Federal Register of Legislation;
- (b) giving unique identifiers to registered Acts, legislative instruments, notifiable instruments and compilations, and other registered documents;
- (c) numbering for series of legislative instruments, notifiable instruments and other documents in the Register;

- (d) including additional documents in the Register and removing them from the Register;
- (e) including information in the Register, changing it and removing it from the Register.

Division 3—Registration on Federal Register of Legislation

15F Registration of Acts

The First Parliamentary Counsel must register an Act as soon as practicable after the Act is assented to.

15G Lodgement of legislative instruments and notifiable instruments, and other material

Legislative instruments and notifiable instruments

- (1) The rule-maker for a legislative instrument must lodge the instrument for registration as a legislative instrument as soon as practicable after the instrument is made.
- (2) The rule-maker for a notifiable instrument must lodge the instrument for registration as a notifiable instrument as soon as practicable after the instrument is made.
- (3) The rule-maker for an instrument made under a power delegated by the Parliament, other than a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, may lodge the instrument for registration as a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument.

Note: For instruments that become legislative instruments by registration, see subsection 8(3). For instruments that become notifiable instruments by registration, see paragraph 11(2)(c).

Explanatory statements for legislative instruments

- (4) The rule-maker for an instrument that is lodged for registration as a legislative instrument must:
 - (a) lodge an initial explanatory statement for the instrument for registration as soon as practicable after the instrument is lodged for registration; and

- (b) lodge any supplementary explanatory statement or replacement explanatory statement for the instrument for registration as soon as practicable after it is prepared.

Note: For explanatory statements and supplementary and replacement explanatory statements, see section 15J.

Other documents

- (5) The rule-maker for an instrument that is, or that is to be, registered as a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument may lodge a document that relates to the instrument for registration.

15H Registration of legislative instruments and notifiable instruments, and other documents

- (1) If an instrument is lodged for registration as a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument in accordance with section 15G and the rules, the First Parliamentary Counsel must register the instrument or document:
 - (a) if the instrument is lodged for registration as a legislative instrument—as a legislative instrument; or
 - (b) if the instrument is lodged for registration as a notifiable instrument—as a notifiable instrument.
- (2) If an instrument or document is lodged for registration otherwise than as a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, in accordance with section 15G and the rules, the First Parliamentary Counsel must register the instrument or document accordingly.
- (3) However, the First Parliamentary Counsel must not register an instrument or document if:
 - (a) for a document lodged for registration otherwise than as a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument—the First Parliamentary Counsel considers that:
 - (i) the document is not likely to be useful to users of the Register; or
 - (ii) it would otherwise be inappropriate to register the document; or
 - (b) before the instrument or document is registered, the person lodging the instrument or document (or another person acting on behalf of the responsible person for the instrument, or for the instrument to which the document relates) withdraws the lodgement.

- (4) If the First Parliamentary Counsel does not register an instrument or document because of paragraph (3)(a), he or she must give written notice to the person lodging the instrument or document.

15J Explanatory statements

Definition of explanatory statement

- (1) An explanatory statement for a legislative instrument is one of the following statements prepared for laying before each House of Parliament:
- (a) a statement (an initial explanatory statement) for the instrument that complies with subsection (2);
 - (b) a statement (a replacement explanatory statement) for the instrument that:
 - (i) replaces an explanatory statement for the instrument that has already been registered; and
 - (ii) complies with subsection (2);
 - (c) a statement (a supplementary explanatory statement) for the instrument that:
 - (i) amends an initial explanatory statement or a replacement explanatory statement; and
 - (ii) complies with subsection (3).

Requirements for initial and replacement explanatory statements

- (2) An initial explanatory statement, or a replacement explanatory statement, for a legislative instrument must:
- (a) be approved by the rule-maker; and
 - (b) explain the purpose and operation of the instrument; and
 - (c) if any documents are incorporated in the instrument by reference—contain a description of the incorporated documents and indicate how they may be obtained; and
 - (d) if consultation was undertaken under section 17 before the instrument was made—contain a description of the nature of that consultation; and

- (e) if no such consultation was undertaken—explain why no such consultation was undertaken; and
- (f) if the instrument is a disallowable legislative instrument—contain a statement of compatibility prepared under subsection 9(1) of the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011; and
- (g) contain such other information as is prescribed by regulation.

Requirements for supplementary explanatory statements

- (3) A supplementary explanatory statement for a legislative instrument must:
 - (a) be approved by the rule-maker; and
 - (b) contain such other information as is prescribed by regulation.

Single explanatory statements—one or more legislative instruments

- (4) A single explanatory statement may relate to one or more legislative instruments.

15K Registration—enforceability of legislative instruments

- (1) A legislative instrument is not enforceable by or against any person (including the Commonwealth) unless the instrument is registered as a legislative instrument.
- (2) A failure by the rule-maker to lodge an explanatory statement in relation to a legislative instrument for registration as required by subsection 15G(4) does not affect the validity or enforceability of the instrument.

15L Events affecting the currency or accuracy of the Register

- (1) The responsible person for a registered Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument must give notice to the First Parliamentary Counsel of the occurrence of any of the following events in relation to the Act or instrument:

 - (b) a discretionary compilation event for the Act or instrument;

- (c) an event resulting in the Act or instrument (or a provision of the Act or instrument) being repealed, lapsing, expiring or otherwise ceasing to be in force;

 - (i) an error in the Register to which subsection 15D(1) (correction of registration errors) may apply; or
 - (ii) any other error in the Register;
- (f) another event prescribed by the rules.

Example: If a registered legislative instrument is expressed to commence when a particular treaty comes into force for Australia, paragraph (1)(a) would require the responsible person for the instrument to notify the First Parliamentary Counsel when the treaty comes into force.

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not require the responsible person to give notice to the First Parliamentary Counsel of any of the following events in relation to a registered Act or instrument:
 - (a) the occurrence of a day or time specified in the Act or instrument, or the making of a commencement instrument, resulting in, or otherwise affecting, the commencement of the Act or instrument (or a provision of the Act or instrument);
 - (b) a required compilation event for the Act or instrument;

 - (d) for a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument—the amendment or repeal of the instrument by:
 - (i) the operation of Part 3 of Chapter 3 (repeal of spent instruments or provisions); or
 - (ii) the operation of Part 4 of Chapter 3 (sunsetting of legislative instruments);
 - (e) another event prescribed by the rules.

15M Rules for lodgement and registration

The rules may provide for, or in relation to, any of the following:

Part 2—Compilations

Division 1—Simplified outline of this Part

15N Simplified outline of this Part

A compilation shows the text of an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument as amended (if at all) and in force on the compilation date stated in the Act or instrument.

The First Parliamentary Counsel must generally register a compilation after a registered Act or instrument is amended, and in some other circumstances.

A rule-maker for a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument must lodge a compilation for registration if the instrument is amended, or in some circumstances on notice from the First Parliamentary Counsel.

The First Parliamentary Counsel may make editorial changes and some other changes in preparing a compilation of a registered Act or instrument, as long as they do not change the effect of the Act or instrument.

Division 2—Registration of compilations

15P Registered compilations—information requirements

- (1) Without limiting the information that a registered compilation of an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument (the principal law) may include, the registered compilation must include the following information:
 - (a) the compilation date;
 - (b) if any editorial changes are made in preparing the compilation—a statement that editorial changes have been made and a brief outline of the changes in general terms;
 - (c) details (including commencement details) of any Act or instrument that amends the principal law;
 - (d) the amendment history of provisions of the principal law;

- (e) any further information prescribed by the rules.
- (2) However, the information mentioned in any of paragraphs (1)(c) to (e) does not need to be included in the compilation if:
 - (a) the First Parliamentary Counsel is satisfied that the information mentioned in that paragraph is otherwise appropriately available on an approved website to users of the Federal Register of Legislation; and
 - (b) the compilation indicates in general terms how users of the Register may access that information on the approved website.

15Q Definitions of required compilation event and discretionary compilation event etc.

Definitions

- (1) A required compilation event occurs for an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument when:
 - (a) the Act or instrument is expressly amended (otherwise than under section 48C or 48D); or
 - (b) in the case of a disallowable legislative instrument:
 - (i) a provision of the instrument is disallowed under section 42; or
 - (ii) a provision of another disallowable legislative instrument has amended a provision of the instrument, but the amending instrument, or the amending provision, is disallowed under section 42; or
 - (c) a provision of the Act or instrument is repealed, lapses, expires or otherwise ceases to be in force under another Act or instrument (other than this Act), or because of the making of another Act or instrument; or
 - (d) something else happens that is prescribed by the rules for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (2) A discretionary compilation event occurs for an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument when:
 - (a) a provision of the Act or instrument commences; or
 - (b) in the case of a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument—the instrument is amended by section 48C or 48D; or

- (c) the Act or instrument is modified; or
- (d) the Act or instrument is impliedly amended; or
- (e) a provision of the Act or instrument is repealed, lapses, expires or otherwise ceases to be in force under another provision of that Act or instrument; or
- (f) if no compilation has been registered for the Act or instrument—the text of the Act or instrument as registered otherwise ceases to show the text of the Act or instrument as in force; or
- (g) if a compilation has been registered for the Act or instrument—the text of the latest registered compilation otherwise ceases to show the text of the Act or instrument as amended (if at all) and in force; or
- (h) something else happens that is prescribed by the rules for the purposes of this paragraph.

Note: Sections 48C and 48D provide for the automatic repeal of amending, repealing and commencement provisions of legislative instruments and notifiable instruments.

When an Act or instrument is amended

- (3) For the purposes of this Division, an Act or instrument is amended by an Act or instrument, or a provision of an Act or instrument, when the amending Act or provision commences.

15R Lodgement of compilations of instruments—required compilation events

Compilation required to be prepared and lodged

- (1) If a required compilation event occurs for a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, the rule-maker must prepare and lodge for registration a compilation of the instrument for registration.

Compilation date

- (2) The compilation date for the compilation must be the date of the required compilation event.

Time for lodgement

- (3) The rule-maker must lodge for registration the compilation required by subsection (1) within 28 days after the event occurs, or a longer period allowed by the First Parliamentary Counsel.

Exceptions

- (4) This section does not apply to legislative instruments or notifiable instruments, or in circumstances, prescribed by rules made for the purposes of this subsection.

Example: A circumstance prescribed by the rules may be if the First Parliamentary Counsel prepares and registers a compilation of a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument.

15S Lodgement of compilations of instruments—discretionary compilation events

Compilation required to be prepared and lodged if notice given

- (1) If a discretionary compilation event occurs for a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, the First Parliamentary Counsel may, by written notice given to the rule-maker, require the rule-maker, within a period stated in the notice, to prepare and lodge for registration a compilation of the instrument for registration.

Compilation date

- (2) The compilation date for the compilation must be the date of the discretionary compilation event.

Time for lodgement

- (3) If a notice is given under subsection (1) to a rule-maker for an instrument, the rule-maker must lodge for registration a compilation of the instrument within the period stated in the notice, or a longer period allowed by the First Parliamentary Counsel.

15T Registration of compilations

Required compilation events for Acts

- (1) If a required compilation event occurs for an Act, the First Parliamentary Counsel must prepare and register a compilation of the Act as soon as practicable afterwards.

Required compilation events for instruments

- (2) If a required compilation event occurs for a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, the First Parliamentary Counsel must register a compilation of the instrument:
 - (a) if a compilation is lodged for registration within 28 days after the event, or within a longer period allowed by the First Parliamentary Counsel—as soon as practicable after lodgement; or
 - (b) if a compilation is not lodged for registration within that period—as soon as practicable after the end of the period.
- (3) However, if a required compilation event occurs for a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, and section 15R does not apply because of subsection 15R(4), the First Parliamentary Counsel must prepare and register a compilation of the instrument as soon as practicable afterwards.

Discretionary compilation events for Acts and instruments

- (4) If a discretionary compilation event occurs for an Act or a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, the First Parliamentary Counsel may prepare and register a compilation of the Act or instrument.
- (5) If a discretionary compilation event occurs for a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument, and the First Parliamentary Counsel gives the rule-maker for the instrument a notice under section 15S, the First Parliamentary Counsel must register a compilation of the instrument:
 - (a) if a compilation is lodged for registration within the period stated in the notice, or within a longer period allowed by the First Parliamentary Counsel—as soon as practicable after lodgement; or

- (b) if a compilation is not lodged for registration within that period—as soon as practicable after the end of the period.

No required or discretionary compilation event for Act or instrument

- (6) The First Parliamentary Counsel may prepare and register a compilation of an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument even if neither a required compilation event nor a discretionary compilation event has occurred for the Act or instrument.

Repeal, disallowance, lapse or expiry of Act or instrument

- (7) The First Parliamentary Counsel must ensure that a registered compilation of an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument is no longer shown on the Register as a compilation currently in force as soon as practicable after:
 - (a) the Act or instrument is repealed, expires, lapses or otherwise ceases to be in force; or
 - (b) for a disallowable legislative instrument—the instrument is disallowed under section 42.

15U Compilations—rules

General

- (1) The rules may provide for, or in relation to, any of the following in relation to compilations of Acts, legislative instruments or notifiable instruments:
 - (a) the format, layout and printing style required for compilations, and any other presentational aspects of compilations;

- (iv) the certification of compilations;
- (v) other requirements to be satisfied for compilations;
- (e) the withdrawal of lodgement of compilations of instruments;
- (f) the registration of compilations of Acts and instruments;
- (g) the refusal of registration of compilations of instruments;
- (h) alternative arrangements for the registration of compilations of Acts, and for the lodgement and registration of compilations of instruments, in the event of technical difficulties;
- (i) any other matter relating to the lodgement or registration of compilations of Acts or instruments.

Compilations reflecting retrospective amendments

- (2) If an amendment of an Act, a legislative instrument or a notifiable instrument commences retrospectively, in addition to any other requirement or power under this Division in relation to the lodgement or registration of a compilation of the Act or instrument as a result of that amendment, the rules may provide for:
 - (a) in the case of the amendment of an Act—the registration of compilations of the Act with different specified compilation dates; and
 - (b) in the case of the amendment of an instrument—the lodgement and registration of compilations of the instrument with different specified compilation dates.

Note 1: In this situation, this Division may require the lodgement or registration of a compilation of an Act or instrument with a compilation date that is the date of retrospective commencement of the amendments.

Note 2: Rules under subsection (2) may also require or permit the lodgement or registration of an additional compilation or compilations (with different compilation dates) reflecting the retrospective effect of the amendments.

Division 3—Editorial changes and other changes

15V Power to make editorial changes and other changes

Editorial changes

- (1) In preparing a compilation of an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument for registration (including a compilation that has been lodged for registration), the First Parliamentary Counsel may make editorial changes to any text that is part of the Act or instrument.

Note 1: For what is an editorial change, see section 15X.

Note 2: For what text forms part of the Act or instrument, see section 13 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (which applies in relation to instruments under section 13 of this Act).

- (2) The First Parliamentary Counsel may make an editorial change to an Act or instrument under subsection (1) only if he or she considers the change to be desirable to:
- (a) bring the Act or instrument into line, or more closely into line, with legislative drafting practice being used by the Office of Parliamentary Counsel; or
 - (b) correct an error, or ensure that a misdescribed amendment of the Act or instrument is given effect to as intended.

Presentational changes

- (3) In preparing a compilation of an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument for registration (including a compilation that has been lodged for registration), the First Parliamentary Counsel may make changes to the Act or instrument that affect the format, layout or printing style of the Act or instrument, or any other presentational aspect of the Act or instrument.
- (4) The First Parliamentary Counsel may make a change to an Act or instrument under subsection (3) only if he or she considers the change to be desirable to bring the Act or instrument into line, or more closely into line, with legislative drafting practice being used by the Office of Parliamentary Counsel.

Text not part of an Act or instrument

- (5) In preparing a compilation of an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument (including a compilation that has been lodged for registration), the First Parliamentary Counsel may include, omit or change any text that is not part of the Act or instrument, including (without limitation) any of the following:
- (a) a table of contents or other provision that only describes the arrangement of the Act or instrument (or provisions of the Act or instrument) into groups of provisions;
 - (b) a reader's guide, simplified outline or similar text that only describes the nature or effect of the Act or instrument;
 - (c) text, known as alternative text (or "alt text"), that does not form part of the Act or instrument because of subsection 13(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (including that subsection as applied by section 13 of this Act);
 - (d) for an instrument—instrument-making words.

Note: For paragraph (c), alternative text may, for example, aurally indicate the effect of a graphic image in an Act or instrument to assist users of an approved website who have visual disabilities.

No change of effect

- (6) The First Parliamentary Counsel must not make a change to an Act or instrument under this section that would change the effect of the Act or instrument.
- (7) Subsection (6) does not prevent the First Parliamentary Counsel making a change to an Act or instrument mentioned in paragraph (2)(m) of the definition of editorial change in subsection 15X(2), or any editorial change consequential on such a change, as mentioned in paragraph (2)(q) of that definition.

Note: Such a change consists of the incorporation into an Act or instrument of an application, savings, transitional, validation or similar provision that is contained in an amending Act or instrument.

15W Editorial changes treated in the same way as amendments

If the First Parliamentary Counsel makes an editorial change to an Act or instrument under section 15V in preparing a compilation, then, after the registration of the compilation:

- (a) the Act or instrument has effect for all purposes as if the change had been made by an amendment of the Act or instrument that commenced on the day the compilation was registered; and
- (b) the Act or instrument may be further amended as if the change had been made by an amendment of the Act or instrument.

15X Definition of editorial change

- (1) This section describes the kinds of editorial changes that the First Parliamentary Counsel may make to an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument under section 15V in preparing a compilation of the Act or instrument.

- (2) An editorial change to an Act, legislative instrument or notifiable instrument is a change made by the First Parliamentary Counsel that:
- (a) goes only to a matter of spelling, punctuation, grammar or syntax, or the use of conjunctives and disjunctives; or

- (h) changes language that indicates gender or that could be taken to indicate gender; or
- (i) omits or changes a table of contents or other provision that only describes the arrangement of the Act or instrument (or provisions of the Act or instrument) into groups of provisions; or

Example: The heading to a section may be changed to reflect the effect of an amendment of the section.

- (o) if an amendment of the Act or instrument is misdescribed by an amending Act or instrument—gives effect to the misdescribed amendment as intended; or
- (p) corrects an error covered by subsection (4); or
- (q) is consequential on any other editorial change made to the Act or instrument or to another Act or instrument.

(3) This subsection covers the following laws:

- (1) A reference in a law of the Commonwealth in force immediately before the commencement of this Schedule to the Legislative Instruments Act 2003, or a provision of that Act, listed in the following table has effect, on and after the commencement of this Schedule, in accordance with the table.

References to the Legislative Instruments Act 2003

Item	A reference to ...	is a reference to ...
1	the Legislative Instruments Act 2003	the Legislation Act 2003 .
2	Part 5 of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003	Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Legislation Act 2003 .
3	Part 6 of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003	Part 4 of Chapter 3 of the Legislation Act 2003 .
4	Any other provision of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003	the provision of the Legislation Act 2003 that corresponds to the other provision (whether or not the provisions are identically numbered).

- (2) Subitem (1) does not limit the effect of section 10 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

Note 1: Part 1 of this Schedule amends the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 to change the short title of that Act to the Legislation Act 2003.

Note 2: Section 10 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 deals with references (in other Acts) to Acts whose short title is changed. That section applies to other Commonwealth laws (see section 46 of that Act and section 13 of the Legislation Act 2003).

Part 7—Application, savings and transitional

167 Application of amendments to instruments—general

Subject to this Part, the amendments of Acts made by this Schedule apply in relation to an instrument made before, on or after the commencement of this Schedule.

168 Savings—pre-commencement status of instruments and ongoing effect of existing exemptions

Status of legislative instruments

- (1) An instrument made before the commencement of this Schedule that was a legislative instrument under the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 is taken to continue to be a legislative instrument on and after that commencement despite the amendments of that Act made by Part 1 of this Schedule.

Status of non-legislative instruments

- (2) An instrument made before the commencement of this Schedule that was not a legislative instrument under the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 immediately before the commencement of this Schedule is taken to continue not to be a legislative instrument on and after that commencement despite the amendments of that Act made by Part 1 of this Schedule.
- (3) If, immediately before the commencement of this Schedule, a provision of a legislative instrument required or permitted an instrument described as not being a legislative instrument to be made, on and after that commencement an instrument made under that provision is not a legislative instrument.

Note: Before the commencement of this Schedule, subsection 15AE(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (which is repealed by Part 5 of this Schedule) provided that if a primary law (including an Act or a legislative instrument) provided for another instrument to be made that was described as not being a legislative instrument, the other instrument was not a legislative instrument.

The Legislation Act 2003, as that Act is amended by this Schedule, does not continue the effect of this provision in the case of a primary law that is a legislative instrument (see section 8 of that Act).

Instruments may become legislative instruments by registration

- (4) Subitems (2) and (3) do not prevent an instrument becoming a legislative instrument under subsection 8(3) of the Legislation Act 2003 by being registered as a legislative instrument after the commencement of this Schedule.

Note: The Legislative Instruments Act 2003 is renamed by this Act as the Legislation Act 2003.

169 Savings—displacement of subsection 12(2) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003

- (1) This item applies to a provision of an Act (the displacing provision) enacted before the commencement of this Schedule that, before that commencement, had the effect of displacing the operation of subsection 12(2) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 by enabling a legislative instrument to be made that would commence before the date of the registration of the instrument under that Act.

Example: Subsection 285(4) of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 provides that “Despite subsection 12(2) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003, regulations made for the purposes of this section may be expressed to take effect from a date before the regulations are registered under that Act.” This is a displacing provision.

- (2) On and after the commencement this Schedule, the displacing provision is to be read as if it provided that subsection 12(2) of the Legislation Act 2003 does not apply in relation to the legislative instrument.

Note 1: The Legislative Instruments Act 2003 is renamed by this Act as the Legislation Act 2003.

Note 2: Generally, subsection 12(2) of that Act as amended by Part 1 of this Schedule provides that a provision of a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument does not apply retrospectively to the extent that it would have an adverse effect.

170 Application of amendments—incorporation of material in instruments

The amendments of section 14 of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 made by Part 1 of this Schedule apply in relation to:

- (a) a legislative instrument or notifiable instrument made on or after the commencement of this Schedule that makes provision in relation to any matter by applying, adopting or incorporating the provisions of any document (an incorporated document); and

- (b) an incorporated document other than a form, whether the document was made, or has been amended, before, on or after that commencement; and
- (c) an incorporated document that is a form, if the document is made on or after that commencement.

171 Application of amendments to instruments—general

Paragraph 11(2)(a) of the Legislation Act 2003, as that Act is amended by this Schedule, applies in relation to a commencement instrument made on or after the commencement of this Schedule.

Note: Paragraph 11(2)(a) of that Act provides that commencement instruments are notifiable instruments. A Proclamation that provides solely for the commencement of an Act or a provision of an Act is an example of a “commencement instrument”.

Under paragraph 6(e) of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003, Proclamations made before the commencement of this Schedule were declared to be legislative instruments (though commencement Proclamations were not subject to disallowance: see the table in subsection 44(2) of that Act).

172 Transitional—lodgement of legislative instruments, compilations and explanatory statements for registration

- (1) If, immediately before the commencement of this Schedule, a legislative instrument, or a compilation of a legislative instrument, had been lodged for registration under the Legislative Instruments Act 2003, but had not been registered, that Act, as amended by Part 2 of this Schedule, applies in relation to the instrument or compilation as if it had been lodged for registration as a legislative instrument or compilation under that Act as so amended.
- (2) If, immediately before the commencement of this Schedule, an explanatory statement had been lodged for registration under the Legislative Instruments Act 2003, but had not been registered, that Act, as amended by Part 2 of this Schedule, applies in relation to the statement as if it had been lodged for registration as an explanatory statement for a legislative instrument under that Act as so amended.

173 Transitional—Federal Register of Legislation

Registration of Acts and compilations

- (1) An Act or a compilation of an Act in an Acts database under section 4 of the Acts Publication Act 1905 immediately before the commencement of this Schedule is taken to be registered on and after that commencement as an Act or a compilation of an Act on the Federal Register of Legislation.

Registration of legislative instruments, compilations, explanatory statements and other documents or information

- (2) A legislative instrument, a compilation of a legislative instrument or an explanatory statement that was registered on the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments under the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 immediately before the commencement of this Schedule is taken to be registered as follows:
- (a) for a legislative instrument or compilation—the instrument or compilation is taken to be registered on the Federal Register of Legislation as a legislative instrument or a compilation of a legislative instrument;
 - (b) for an explanatory statement for a legislative instrument—the explanatory statement is taken to be registered on the Federal Register of Legislation as an explanatory statement for the instrument.
- (3) A document relating to a legislative instrument containing information that was included in the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments under section 21 of the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 immediately before the commencement of this Schedule is taken to be registered on the Federal Register of Legislation on and after that commencement.

Note: Under section 21 of that Act, information relating to legislative instruments was able to be included in the Federal Register of Legislative Instruments. Subitem (3) would provide that documents containing such information are taken to be registered on the Federal Register of Legislation.

174 Application of amendments—gazettal and other publication requirements

Section 56 of the Legislation Act 2003, as that Act is amended by Part 3 of this Schedule, applies in relation to:

- (a) a primary law or enabling legislation whether the primary law or enabling legislation is enacted or made before, on or after the commencement of this Schedule; and
- (b) an instrument made on or after the commencement of this Schedule.

175 Saving—repeal of the Ordinances and Regulations (Notification) Act 1972

Despite the repeal of the Ordinances and Regulations (Notification) Act 1972 by Part 4 of this Schedule, that Act continues to apply in relation to the publication in the Gazette, before the commencement of that Act, of a form of words mentioned in subsection 3(1) of that Act.

176 Application of amendments of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901—definition of Proclamation

The definition of Proclamation in section 2B of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, as that Act is amended by Part 5 of this Schedule, is taken to include a Proclamation by the Governor-General that was published in the Gazette before the commencement of this Schedule.

177 Application of amendments of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901—citation of Acts and instruments

Subsection 40(1A) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, as that Act is amended by Part 5 of this Schedule, applies in relation to an Act, instrument or document (the citing Act, instrument or document) that cites an Act or legislative instrument:

- (a) whether the citing Act, instrument or document was enacted, made or executed before, on or after the commencement of this Schedule; and
- (b) whether the Act or legislative instrument cited was enacted or made before, on or after the commencement of this Schedule.

178 Application of amendments of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901—incorporation of material in non-legislative instruments

The amendments of section 46AA of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 made by Part 5 of this Schedule apply in relation to:

- (a) an instrument made on or after the commencement of this Schedule that makes provision in relation to any matter by applying, adopting or incorporating the provisions of any document (an incorporated document); and
- (b) an incorporated document other than a form, whether the document was made, or has been amended, before, on or after that commencement; and

- (c) an incorporated document that is a form, if the document is made on or after that commencement.

179 Saving and transitional—repeal of section 46B of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901

- (1) This item applies in relation to an instrument to which section 46B of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 applied that was in force immediately before the commencement of this Schedule.
- (2) Despite the repeal of section 46B of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 by Part 2 of this Schedule:
 - (a) that section, and the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 (as applied by that section), continue to apply in relation to the instrument as in force immediately before the commencement of this Schedule; and
 - (b) the instrument continues in force on and after that commencement, subject to:
 - (i) the Act under which the instrument was made; and
 - (ii) section 46B of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, as applied by paragraph (a).
- (3) The rule-maker for the instrument may lodge the instrument for registration as a legislative instrument under the Legislation Act 2003 on or after the commencement of this Schedule.
- (4) If the instrument is lodged for registration under subitem (3), the First Parliamentary Counsel must register the instrument under that Act as a legislative instrument.
- (5) If the instrument is registered under subitem (4):
 - (a) the requirements of Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the Legislation Act 2003 (which deals with parliamentary scrutiny) are taken to have been satisfied in relation to the instrument; and
 - (b) that Act otherwise applies to the instrument in the same way that it would in relation to any other legislative instrument registered at that time.

Note: Section 46B of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 provided a notice and parliamentary scrutiny regime for some instruments that were declared not to be legislative instruments.

19 References to Ministers in Acts

- (1) If a provision of an Act refers to a Minister, the following table provides which Minister the provision refers to in relation to a particular matter (the relevant matter) on a particular day (the relevant day).

References to Ministers in Acts
If the provision ...	then the Minister referred to is ...
1 refers to a Minister by using the expression “the Minister”, without identifying the Minister	the Minister, or any of the Ministers, administering the provision on the relevant day, in relation to the relevant matter.
2 refers to a Minister by reference to the fact that the Minister administers any of the following laws: (a) the Act, that provision or another provision of the Act; (b) another Act, or a provision of another Act	the Minister, or any of the Ministers, administering that law on the relevant day, in relation to the relevant matter.
3 refers to a Minister by title (for example, “the Attorney-General” or “the Minister for Industry”), even if that title no longer exists	(a) if, at the time the provision commenced, or the reference to the Minister was inserted, the Minister referred to by title administered the provision—the Minister, or any of the Ministers, identified by item 1; or (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the Minister currently identified by the title, or by a substituted reference order under section 19B; or (c) in any case—any other Minister administering the Department of State of the Commonwealth that deals with the matters for which the Minister mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) (as the case may be) is responsible on the relevant day.
4 refers to a Minister by describing a	the Minister, or any of the Ministers,

If the provision ...	then the Minister referred to is ...
matter for which the Minister is responsible (for example, “the Minister responsible for the environment”)	administering the Department of State of the Commonwealth that deals with the relevant matter on the relevant day.

- (2) Instruments including the following, as in force on the relevant day, or any earlier day, may be used to work out which Minister (or Ministers) is referred to under subsection (1):

- (a) an Administrative Arrangements Order;
- (b) a substituted reference order under section 19B.

Note: Substituted reference orders under section 19B may have effect in relation to days before the orders are made.

- (3) To avoid doubt, if, because of this section, a provision of an Act is taken to require anything to be done by or in relation to any one of 2 or more Ministers, the provision is not taken to require it to be done in any particular case by or in relation to more than one of those Ministers.

Acting Ministers

- (4) If a provision of an Act refers to a Minister, the reference is taken to include a reference to a Minister or member of the Executive Council for the time being acting for or on behalf of the Minister.

19A References to Departments in Acts

- (1) If a provision of an Act refers to a Department, the following table provides which Department the provision refers to in relation to a particular matter (the relevant matter) on a particular day (the relevant day).

References to Departments in Acts

Item	If the provision ...	then the Department is ...
1	refers to a Department by using the expression “the Department”, without identifying the Department	the Department of State of the Commonwealth that is administered by the Minister or Ministers administering that provision in relation to the relevant matter, and that deals with that matter.

References to Departments in Acts

2	refers to a Department by title (for example, “the Attorney-General’s Department” or “the Department of Industry”), even if that title no longer exists	(a) if, at the time the provision commenced, or the reference to the Department was inserted, the Department referred to by title was administered by the Minister or Ministers administering that provision in relation to the relevant matter—the Department identified by item 1; or (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the Department of State of the Commonwealth identified by the title, or by a substituted reference order under section 19B; or (c) in any case—any other Department of State of the Commonwealth that deals with the matters for which the Department mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) (as the case may be) is responsible on the relevant day.
3	refers to a Department by describing a matter for which the Department is responsible (for example, “the Department responsible for the environment”)	the Department of State of the Commonwealth that deals with the relevant matter on the relevant day.

Example: A provision of an Act refers to “the Secretary of the Department” but does not identify which Department is referred to. Under item 1, the reference is to the Secretary of the Department administered by the Minister who administers that provision in relation to the relevant matter, and that deals with that matter, as worked out under subsection (2).

- (2) Instruments including the following, as in force on the relevant day, or any earlier day, may be used to work out which Department is identified by the table in subsection (1):
- (a) an Administrative Arrangements Order;
 - (b) a substituted reference order under section 19B.

Note: Substituted reference orders under section 19B may have effect in relation to days before the orders are made.

19B Machinery of government—substituted reference orders

Scope

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a provision of an Act refers to an authority (see subsection (7)); and
 - (b) any of the following happens:
 - (i) the authority is abolished;
 - (ii) the name or title of the authority is changed;
 - (iii) there is a change in the matters dealt with by the authority because of the effect of an Administrative Arrangements Order;
 - (iv) the reference to the authority becomes no longer appropriate for any other reason.

Substituted reference orders—Ministers, Departments, Agencies and offices

- (2) The Governor-General may make a substituted reference order directing that the provision is to have effect for all purposes, on and after a day specified in the order:
 - (a) as if there were substituted, for the reference to the authority mentioned in subsection (1), a reference to another specified authority (or authorities); or
 - (b) as if, in so far as the provision applies in a particular respect specified in the order, there were substituted, for the reference to the authority mentioned in subsection (1), a reference to another specified authority (or authorities).

Note: A substituted reference order may be amended or revoked in the same way as it is made (see subsection 33(3)).

- (3) The day specified in the order (as the day on and after which the order is to have effect) may be a day before the order is made.
- (4) A substituted reference order has effect according to its terms.

Note: The order has effect for the purpose of the making of any subsequent order under this section.

- (5) A substituted reference order is a legislative instrument.

Authority abolished and another established with the same name

- (6) A substituted reference order must not be made only because an authority is abolished, and, immediately after its abolition, another authority of the same type, with the same name, is established.

Note: However, a substituted reference order may be made if either of the following happens in relation to the authority;

- (a) there is a change in the matters dealt with by the authority because of the effect of an Administrative Arrangements Order (see subparagraph (1)(b)(iii));
- (b) a reference to the authority becomes no longer appropriate for any other reason (see subparagraph (1)(b)(iv)).

Definition of authority

- (7) In this section:

authority means any of the following:

- (a) a Minister;
- (b) a Department of State of the Commonwealth;
- (c) any other Agency within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1999;

Note: Offices are offices in and for the Commonwealth (see section 21). An example is the office of Secretary of a Department of State.

19C Machinery of government—references to authorities in Commonwealth agreements

Scope

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a provision of an agreement entered into by or on behalf of the Commonwealth refers to an authority (see subsection (6)) in relation to a particular matter (the relevant matter); and
 - (b) any of the following happens after the agreement was entered into:
 - (i) the authority is abolished;
 - (ii) the name or title of the authority is changed;

- (iii) there is a change in the matters dealt with by the authority because of the effect of an Administrative Arrangements Order;
- (iv) the reference to the authority becomes no longer appropriate for any other reason.

References to authorities in Commonwealth agreements

- (2) The following table provides which authority the provision of the agreement is taken to refer to in relation to the relevant matter on a particular day (the relevant day) after the most recent event mentioned in paragraph (1)(b).

References to authorities in Commonwealth agreements
Item	If the provision refers to ...	then the provision is taken to refer to ...
1	a Minister	the Minister, or any of the Ministers, administering the Department of State of the Commonwealth that deals with the relevant matter on the relevant day.
2	a Department	the Department of State of the Commonwealth that deals with the relevant matter on the relevant day.
3	any other authority (the relevant authority)	an authority (including the relevant authority): (a) exercising the powers, or performing the functions, of the relevant authority on the relevant day; or (b) determined under subsection (4).

- (3) The following instruments, as in force on the relevant day, or any earlier day, may be used to work out which authority is taken to be referred to under subsection (2):
- (a) an Administrative Arrangements Order;
 - (b) a substituted reference order under section 19B.

Note: Substituted reference orders under section 19B may have effect in relation to days before the orders are made.

- (4) The Minister administering the Department of State of the Commonwealth that deals with the relevant matter may, by notifiable instrument, make a determination for the purposes of item 3 of the table in subsection (2).

Note 1: A determination may be amended or revoked in the same way as it is made (see subsection 33(3)).

Note 2: Notifiable instruments must be registered under the Legislation Act 2003, but they are not subject to parliamentary scrutiny or sunseting under that Act.

- (5) To avoid doubt, if, because of this section, a provision of an agreement entered into by or on behalf of the Commonwealth is taken to require anything to be done by or in relation to any one of 2 or more Ministers, the provision is not taken to require it to be done in any particular case by or in relation to more than one of those Ministers.

Definition of authority

- (6) In this section:

authority means any of the following:

- (a) a Minister;
- (b) a Department of State of the Commonwealth;
- (c) any other Agency within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1999;
- (d) an office (including an APS employee's office and any other appointment or position), or the holder of an office.

Note: Offices are offices in and for the Commonwealth (see section 21). An example is the office of Secretary of a Department of State.

19D Machinery of government changes—saving the validity of acts done by authorities

Saving the validity of acts done by authorities

- (1) The purported exercise or performance of a power, function or duty by or on behalf of an authority (see subsection (5)) is not invalid merely because, following a machinery of government change, the power, function or duty:
- (a) is conferred or imposed on another authority; or

- (b) is conferred or imposed on the same authority under another name or title; or
 - (c) is no longer conferred or imposed on any authority.
- (2) Subsection (1) only applies if the authority acted on the basis of a reasonable, but mistaken, belief about the occurrence, timing or nature of the machinery of government change.

Machinery of government change

- (3) For the purposes of this section, a machinery of government change occurs if any of the following applies in relation to an authority:
- (a) the authority is abolished;
 - (b) the name or title of the authority is changed;
 - (c) there is a change in the matters dealt with by the authority because of the effect of an Administrative Arrangements Order;
 - (d) the authority no longer exercises or performs the power, function or duty for any other reason.

Powers, functions and duties

- (4) This section applies in relation to a power, function or duty purportedly exercised or performed by or on behalf of an authority, whether before or after the machinery of government change, under any of the following:
- (a) an Act or legislative instrument;
 - (b) an agreement entered into by or on behalf of the Commonwealth;
 - (c) any other authorisation under a law of the Commonwealth.

Definition of authority

- (5) In this section:
- authority means any of the following persons or bodies:
- (a) a Minister;
 - (b) a Department of State of the Commonwealth;
 - (c) any other Agency within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1999;

- (d) an office (including an APS employee's office and any other appointment or position), or the holder of an office.

Note: Offices are offices in and for the Commonwealth (see section 21). An example is the office of Secretary of a Department of State.

20 References to holders of appointments, offices and positions in Acts and Commonwealth agreements

In a provision of an Act, or of an agreement entered into by or on behalf of the Commonwealth, a reference in general terms to the holder or occupier of an office, appointment or position includes all persons who for the time being:

- (a) hold or occupy the office, appointment or position; or
- (b) perform the duties of the office, appointment or position.

 - (a) that section continues to apply in relation to an agreement entered into by or on behalf of the Commonwealth before the commencement of this Schedule; and
 - (b) an order under subparagraph 19C(1)(c)(ii) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 that was in force immediately before that commencement in relation to such an agreement continues to apply on and after that commencement, subject to that section (as applied under paragraph (a) of this subitem).

Note: Section 19C of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, and new section 19C of that Act as amended by this Schedule, deal with references in Commonwealth agreements to a Department, Minister, officer or other body.

7 Application—new section 19D

Section 19D of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, as amended by this Schedule, applies:
