3 Schedules

Legislation that is specified in a Schedule to this Act is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule concerned, and any other item in a Schedule to this Act has effect according to its terms.

Schedule 1—Amendments

Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975

1 At the end of subsection 29AC(1)

Add:

- ; (c) any other person who is made a party to the review by the enactment that authorised the application.

2 Subsection 35(4)

Omit “another party or parties”, substitute “some or all of the parties”.

3 Subsection 39A(18)

Omit “a presidential member or senior member, on behalf of the Tribunal,”, substitute “the President or an authorised member”.

4 Subsections 42A(8) and (8A)

Repeal the subsections, substitute:

- (8) If the Tribunal is taken to have dismissed an application under subsection (1B), a party to the proceeding (other than the applicant) may, within the period referred to in subsection (8B), apply to the Tribunal for reinstatement of the application.
- (8A) If the Tribunal dismisses an application under subsection (2) (other than an application in respect of a proceeding in which an order has been made under subsection 41(2)), a party to the proceeding may, within the period referred to in subsection (8B), apply to the Tribunal for reinstatement of the application.
- (8B) For the purposes of subsections (8) and (8A), the period is:
 - (a) 28 days after the party receives notification that the application has been dismissed; or
 - (b) if the party requests an extension—such longer period as the Tribunal, in special circumstances, allows.

5 Section 68

Repeal the section, substitute:

68 Giving documents

- (1) A document or thing that is required or permitted by this Act or another enactment to be lodged with, or given to, the Tribunal must be lodged or given in accordance with:
 - (a) any direction under section 18B; or
 - (b) regulations made under this Act or the other enactment.
- (2) A document that is required or permitted by this Act or another enactment to be given to a person for the purposes of a proceeding before the Tribunal must be given to the person in accordance with:
 - (a) any direction under section 18B; or
 - (b) regulations made under this Act or the other enactment.
- (3) A direction given under section 18B for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) or (2)(a) must not be inconsistent with regulations in force for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b) or (2)(b).
- (4) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to the extent to which this Act or another enactment specifies how a document or thing is to be lodged with or given to the Tribunal, or given to a person, for the purposes of a proceeding before the Tribunal.

6 Savings provision

The amendment of section 68 of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 made by this Schedule does not affect a direction or regulation in force for the purposes of section 68 immediately before the commencement of the amendment.

Insert:

113A Making arrests under this Act or warrants*Application*

- (1) This section applies to any of the following persons (the arrestor) who is authorised by this Act, or a warrant issued under this Act or the Rules of Court, to arrest another person (the arrestee):
 - (a) the Sheriff of the Federal Circuit Court;
 - (b) a Deputy Sheriff of the Federal Circuit Court;
 - (c) the Sheriff of a court of a State or Territory;
 - (d) a Deputy Sheriff of a court of a State or Territory;
 - (e) a police officer.

Power to enter premises

- (2) If the arrestor reasonably believes the arrestee is on premises, the arrestor may enter the premises, using such force as is necessary and reasonable in the circumstances, at any time of the day or night for the purpose of searching the premises for the arrestee or arresting the arrestee.
- (3) However, the arrestor must not enter a dwelling house between 9 pm one day and 6 am the next day unless he or she reasonably believes that it would not be practicable to arrest the arrestee there or elsewhere at another time.

Use of force

- (4) In the course of arresting the arrestee, the arrestor:
 - (a) must not use more force, or subject the arrestee to greater indignity, than is necessary and reasonable to make the arrest or to prevent the arrestee's escape after the arrest; and
 - (b) must not do anything that is likely to cause the death of, or grievous bodily harm to, the arrestee unless the arrestor reasonably believes that doing that thing is necessary to protect life or prevent serious injury to another person (including the arrestor); and
 - (c) if the arrestee is attempting to escape arrest by fleeing—must not do a thing described in paragraph (b) unless:

- (i) the arrester reasonably believes that doing that thing is necessary to protect life or prevent serious injury to another person (including the arrester); and
- (ii) the arrestee has, if practicable, been called on to surrender and the arrester reasonably believes that the arrestee cannot be arrested in any other way.

Informing the arrestee of grounds for arrest

- (5) When arresting the arrestee, the arrester must inform the arrestee of the grounds for the arrest.
- (6) It is sufficient if the arrestee is informed of the substance of those grounds, not necessarily in precise or technical language.
- (7) Subsection (5) does not apply if:
 - (a) the arrestee should, in the circumstances, know the substance of the grounds for the arrest; or
 - (b) the arrestee's actions make it impracticable for the arrester to inform the arrestee of those grounds.

38 Application provision

Section 113A of the Federal Circuit Court of Australia Act 1999 applies in relation to arrests:

- (a) authorised by that Act after the commencement of that section; or
- (b) authorised by warrants issued under that Act after that commencement.

Repeal the subsection.

47 Paragraph 23EM(2)(a)

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

- (a) the jury is discharged under subsection 23EL(3) or (5) during the 3 month period starting on the day on which a jury is first empanelled for the trial under section 23DU; and

48 Subsection 23EM(3)

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (3) If the jury is discharged under subsection 23EL(3) or (5) during the 3 month period starting on the day on which a jury is first empanelled for the trial under section 23DU, the Court may:
 - (a) direct an officer of the Court to start the process for empanelling a new jury under section 23DU from the same jury panel; and
 - (b) give any other direction the Court thinks convenient to give in relation to that process.

Note: For example, the Court may direct the officer to make further enquiries as mentioned in section 23DN of persons on the panel or of the Commissioner of the Australian Federal Police.

49 Paragraph 23EM(5)(a)

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

- (a) the following persons cannot be empanelled on the new jury and remain discharged:
 - (i) any person previously empanelled as one of the jurors for the trial (including any person discharged otherwise than under subsection 23EJ(1) before the direction under paragraph (3)(a) was given);
 - (ii) any potential juror in the trial discharged before the direction under paragraph (3)(a) was given; and
