Part 3—Saving and transitional provisions

48 Transitional provision—Children’s e-Safety Commissioner

- (1) A thing done by, or in relation to, the Children’s e-Safety Commissioner under an Act before the commencement of this item has effect on and after that commencement as if it had been done by, or in relation to, the eSafety Commissioner.
- (2) This item does not limit the operation of subsection 25B(1) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901.

49 Saving provision—protection from criminal proceedings

Clause 112 of Schedule 7 to the Broadcasting Services Act 1992, as in force immediately before the commencement of this item, continues to apply on and after that commencement in relation to a person who was the Children’s e-Safety Commissioner at any time before that commencement.

50 Saving provision—agencies exempt in respect of particular documents

Despite the amendments of Division 1 of Part II of Schedule 2 to the Freedom of Information Act 1982 made by this Schedule, the item in that Division relating to the Children’s e-Safety Commissioner, being that item as in force immediately before the commencement of this item, continues in force on and after that commencement in relation to documents of that Commissioner.

51 Transitional rules

- (1) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, make rules prescribing matters of a transitional nature (including prescribing any saving or application provisions) relating to the amendments made by this Act.
- (2) However, to avoid doubt, the rules may not do the following:
 - (a) create an offence or civil penalty;
 - (b) provide powers of:
 - (i) arrest or detention; or
 - (ii) entry, search or seizure;
 - (c) impose a tax;

Schedule 1 Amendments

Part 3 Saving and transitional provisions

- (d) set an amount to be appropriated from the Consolidated Revenue Fund under an appropriation in this Act;
 - (e) directly amend the text of this Act.
 - (3) This Act (other than subitem (2)) does not limit the rules that may be made for the purposes of subitem (1).
