Subdivision 138-B—FHSS maximum release amount

Guide to Subdivision 138-B

138-20 What this Subdivision is about

Your FHSS maximum release amount comprises your eligible non-concessional contributions, 85% of your eligible concessional contributions, and your associated earnings.

There are limits on the amount of contributions that may be eligible for release.

Table of sections

Operative provisions

|--------|--------------------------------------|
| 138-25 | FHSS maximum release amount |
| 138-30 | FHSS releasable contributions amount |
| 138-35 | Eligible contributions |
| 138-40 | Associated earnings |

Operative provisions

138-25 FHSS maximum release amount

Your FHSS maximum release amount is the sum of:

- (a) your *FHSS releasable contributions amount worked out under section 138-30; and
- (b) your associated earnings worked out under section 138-40.

138-30 FHSS releasable contributions amount

- (1) Your FHSS releasable contributions amount is the sum of the following amounts for each *financial year that starts on 1 July 2017 or a later 1 July:
 - (a) your *FHSS eligible non-concessional contributions for the financial year;
 - (b) 85% of your *FHSS eligible concessional contributions for the financial year.

Order of counting contributions

- (2) In determining which contributions are to be counted towards your *FHSS releasable contributions amount, contributions are to be counted in the order in which they were made (from earliest to latest).
- (3) For subsection (2):
 - (a) if an *FHSS eligible concessional contribution, and an *FHSS eligible non-concessional contribution, is made in respect of you at the same time, the FHSS eligible non-concessional contribution is taken to have been made first; and
 - (b) if, for a particular *financial year, you personally made both *FHSS eligible concessional contributions and *FHSS eligible non-concessional contributions, the FHSS eligible non-concessional contributions are taken to have been made first.

Example: For paragraph (b), in the 2018-2019 financial year, you made voluntary contributions of $1,000 each fortnight, up to a total of $25,000. At the end of the financial year, you claim a deduction for $15,000 (leaving $10,000 of the contributions as non-concessional contributions).

If all of the non-concessional contributions are eligible to be released under section 138-35, the first 10 contributions made for the financial year are taken to have been the non-concessional contributions, and the later contributions are taken to be the concessional contributions.

138-35 Eligible contributions

Limits on amount of eligible contributions

- (1) For the purposes of this Subdivision:
 - (a) the maximum amount of contributions that may be eligible to be released is $30,000; and
 - (b) the maximum amount of contributions made in a particular *financial year that may be eligible to be released is $15,000.

Eligible contributions

- (2) A *concessional contribution, or *non-concessional contribution, for a *financial year is not eligible to be released unless it:

- (a) is made in respect of you in the financial year; and
 - (b) is:
 - (i) an employer contribution that is not a mandated employer contribution (within the meaning of Part 5 of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations 1994); or
 - (ii) a member contribution (within the meaning of that Part) that is made by you;
other than a contribution to the extent it is required to be made because of a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory, or the rules of the relevant *superannuation fund; and
 - (c) is not a contribution made in respect of a *defined benefit interest; and
 - (d) is not a contribution to a *constitutionally protected fund.
- (3) If:
- (a) you have *excess concessional contributions for a *financial year (your excess amount); and
 - (b) your excess amount is greater than your *concessional contributions for the financial year that are not eligible to be released under subsection (2) (your non-eligible contributions);
- concessional contributions that are equal to the difference between your excess amount and your non-eligible contributions are not eligible to be released.
- (4) If:
- (a) you have *non-concessional contributions for the *financial year that exceed your non-concessional contributions cap for the financial year (your excess amount); and
 - (b) your excess amount is greater than your non-concessional contributions for the financial year that are not eligible to be released under subsection (2) (your non-eligible contributions);
- non-concessional contributions that are equal to the difference between your excess amount and your non-eligible contributions are not eligible to be released.

- (5) For the purposes of this section, disregard paragraph 292-90(1)(b) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

Note: Under paragraph 292-90(1)(b) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, your non-concessional contributions for a financial year would include the amount of your excess concessional contributions (if any) for the financial year.

138-40 Associated earnings

- (1) You are taken to have associated earnings equal to the sum of the amounts worked out under subsection (2) for each contribution counted in your *FHSS releasable contributions amount.
- (2) The amount for a contribution is equal to the sum (rounded down to the nearest dollar) of the amounts worked out under the following formula for each of the days during the period mentioned in subsection (3).

$$\text{Shortfall interest charge rate} \times \left(\text{Amount of contribution} + \text{Sum of earlier daily proxy amounts} \right)$$ where:

amount of contribution means the amount of the contribution that is counted in your *FHSS releasable contributions amount.

shortfall interest charge rate means the rate, worked out under subsection 280-105(2), for the day.

sum of earlier daily proxy amounts means the sum of the amounts worked out for the contribution under the formula for each of the earlier days (if any) during the period for the contribution.

- (3) The period starts:
- (a) if the contribution is made in the *financial year starting on 1 July 2017—on 1 July 2017; and
 - (b) if the contribution is made in the financial year starting on 1 July 2018, or a later financial year—on the first day of the month in which the contribution is made or taken to have been made (see subsection 138-30(2));

Criteria for a downsizer contribution

- (1) A contribution is covered under this section if:
- (a) the contribution is made to a *complying superannuation plan in respect of you when you are aged 65 years or over; and
 - (b) the contribution is an amount equal to all or part of the *capital proceeds received from the *disposal of an *ownership interest (the old interest) in a *dwelling; and
 - (c) you or your *spouse held the old interest just before the disposal; and

- (d) any *capital gain or *capital loss from the disposal of the old interest:
 - (i) for the case where you held it just before the disposal—is wholly or partially disregarded under Subdivision 118-B (or would have been if you had *acquired it on or after 20 September 1985); or
 - (ii) otherwise—would have been wholly or partially disregarded under Subdivision 118-B had you held the old interest for a period before the disposal; and
- (e) the condition in subsection (2) is met for the disposal; and
- (f) the dwelling is located in *Australia, and is not a caravan, houseboat or other mobile home; and
- (g) the contribution is made within 90 days, or such longer period as the Commissioner allows, after the time the change of ownership occurs as a result of the disposal; and
- (h) you choose, in accordance with subsection (8), to apply this section to the contribution; and
- (i) there is not already a contribution covered under this section, and made to a complying superannuation plan in respect of you, from an earlier choice you made in relation to the disposal of:
 - (i) another ownership interest in the dwelling that was not a related spousal interest to the old interest; or
 - (ii) an ownership interest in another dwelling.

Note 1: Subparagraph (i)(i) does not prevent another contribution, made for you from the capital proceeds from the disposal of the same interest, from also being a contribution covered under this section.

Note 2: That subparagraph also does not prevent another contribution, made for you from the capital proceeds from the disposal of a related spousal interest, from being a contribution covered under this section.

10-year ownership condition

- (2) The condition in this subsection is met for the *disposal of the old interest if either or both of the following paragraphs applies:
 - (a) at all times during the 10 years ending just before the disposal:
 - (i) the old interest was held by you, your *spouse or your former spouse; or

- (ii) an *ownership interest in the land on which the *dwelling is situated was held by you, your spouse or your former spouse;
 - (b) if subsection 118-147(1):
 - (i) applies because the old interest was a substitute property interest (within the meaning of that subsection) for an old dwelling referred to in paragraph 118-147(1)(a); or
 - (ii) would have applied as described in subparagraph (i) if paragraph 118-147(1)(a) were modified to refer to a dwelling (the old dwelling) that was your main residence;
- you, your spouse or your former spouse *acquired an ownership interest in that old dwelling at least 10 years before the disposal.

Note: Section 118-147 deals with a dwelling replacing an earlier dwelling that was compulsorily acquired or destroyed etc.

Cap on the amount of a downsizer contribution

- (3) Despite subsection (1), the contribution is covered under this section only to the extent that it does not exceed the lesser of:
 - (a) $300,000, less any other contribution that is already covered under this section and made to a *complying superannuation plan in respect of you; and
 - (b) the sum of the *capital proceeds from the disposals of:
 - (i) the old interest; and
 - (ii) any *related spousal interest to the old interest;
- less the sum of all other contributions that are already covered under this section and made to complying superannuation plans in respect of you or your *spouse.

Meaning of related spousal interest

- (4) A related spousal interest, to an *ownership interest in a *dwelling, is another ownership interest in the dwelling if:
 - (a) both ownership interests are *disposed of under the same contract; and
 - (b) just before the disposal, you *held one of the ownership interests and your *spouse held the other.

When interest held by trustee of deceased estate

- (5) For the purposes of determining whether an individual held an interest at a particular time, if the interest was held at the particular time by the trustee of the deceased estate of an individual who was your *spouse when the individual died, the interest is taken to be held at the particular time by that individual.

Review of the period for making the contribution

- (6) If:
- (a) you requested the Commissioner to allow a longer period under paragraph (1)(g); and
 - (b) you are dissatisfied with:
 - (i) a decision under that paragraph allowing a longer period; or
 - (ii) a decision the Commissioner makes not to allow a longer period;
- you may object against the decision in the manner set out in Part IVC of the Taxation Administration Act 1953.
- (7) To avoid doubt:
- (a) subject to subsection 14ZVC(3) of the Taxation Administration Act 1953, you may also object, on the ground that you are dissatisfied with such a decision, relating to all or part of your contributions for a *financial year:
 - (i) under section 175A of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 against an assessment made in relation to you for the corresponding income year; or
 - (ii) under section 97-35 in Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 against an *excess non-concessional contributions determination made in relation to you for the financial year; and
 - (b) for the purposes of paragraph (e) of Schedule 1 to the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977, the making of a decision under paragraph (1)(g) of this section is a decision forming part of the process of making an assessment of tax, and making a calculation of charge, under this Act.

Requirements for choices

- (8) To make a choice for the purposes of paragraph (1)(h), you must:
- (a) make the choice in the *approved form; and
 - (b) give it to the *superannuation provider in relation to the *complying superannuation plan at or before the time when the contribution is made.

Commissioner to notify providers if contributions are not downsizer contributions

- (9) The Commissioner must, in writing, notify a *superannuation provider that all, or a specified part, of a contribution is not covered under this section if:
- (a) the Commissioner is aware that a choice referred to in subsection (8) has been given to the superannuation provider for the contribution; and
 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the contribution, or that part of the contribution, (as applicable) is not covered under this section.

The Commissioner may give a copy of the notification to *APRA.
