Schedule 1—Amendments

Part 1—Control orders and preventative detention orders

Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977

1 After paragraph (dab) of Schedule 1

Insert:

(daba) decisions of senior AFP members in relation to consent for the purposes of applications to vary interim control orders under section 104.11A of the Criminal Code;

Criminal Code Act 1995

2 Subsection 104.5(1A) of the *Criminal Code

Omit “72 hours”, substitute “7 days”.

3 After Subdivision C of Division 104 of the *Criminal Code

Insert:

Subdivision CA—Varying an interim control order

104.11A Varying an interim control order

(1) An application to vary an interim control order may be made to the issuing court by:

- (a) the person in relation to whom the order is made; or
- (b) a senior AFP member.

Note: For example, an application may be made to vary an interim control order to reflect a change in the mobile telephone number of the person in relation to whom the order is made.

(2) The issuing court may vary the interim control order, but only if the court is satisfied that:

- (a) written consent to the variation has been given by:
  - (i) if the application is made by the person in relation to whom the order is made—a senior AFP member; or

Schedule 1 Amendments

Part 1 Control orders and preventative detention orders

- (ii) if the application is made by a senior AFP member—the person in relation to whom the order is made; and
  - (b) the variation does not involve adding any obligations, prohibitions or restrictions to the order; and
  - (c) the variation is appropriate in the circumstances.
- (3) A variation begins to be in force when the order for the variation is made, or at a later time ordered by the issuing court.

4 Subsection 104.14(3) of the *Criminal Code

Omit “Before”, substitute “Subject to subsection (3A), before”.

5 After subsection 104.14(3) of the *Criminal Code

Insert:

- (3A) To avoid doubt, in proceedings under this section, the issuing court:
  - (a) must take judicial notice of the fact that the original request for the interim control order was made in particular terms; but
  - (b) may only take action on evidence adduced, and submissions made, under subsection (1) in relation to the confirmation of the order.

Note: The Evidence Act 1995 covers the admissibility of evidence adduced under subsection (1).

6 After section 104.28A of the *Criminal Code

Insert:

104.28AA Costs in control order proceedings

- (1) In proceedings in relation to a control order (including proceedings to vary or revoke a control order), an issuing court must not make an order for costs against the person in relation to whom the control order is sought (or has been made).
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to the extent that the court is satisfied that the person has acted unreasonably in the conduct of the proceedings.

7 Subsections 104.32(1) and (2) of the *Criminal Code

Omit “7 September 2018”, substitute “7 September 2021”.

8 At the end of subsection 105.8(8) of the *Criminal Code

Part 2—Foreign incursions and recruitment: declared areas

Criminal Code Act 1995

12 Paragraph 119.2(3)(e) of the *Criminal Code

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

(e) performing an official duty for:

- (i) the United Nations, or an agency of the United Nations;
or
- (ii) the International Committee of the Red Cross;

13 Subsection 119.2(6) of the *Criminal Code

Omit “7 September 2018”, substitute “7 September 2021”.

14 Subsection 119.3(6) of the *Criminal Code

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (5A) Even if paragraph (5)(b) does not apply in relation to a declaration, the Foreign Affairs Minister may revoke the declaration if that Minister considers it necessary or desirable to do so.
- (6) To avoid doubt, if a declaration of an area is revoked under subsection (5) or (5A), the revocation of the declaration does not prevent the area from being subsequently declared under subsection (1) if the Foreign Affairs Minister becomes, or remains, satisfied as mentioned in subsection (1).

15 Subsection 119.3(7) of the *Criminal Code

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (7) The Parliamentary Joint Committee on Intelligence and Security may:
  - (a) review a declaration; and
  - (b) report the Committee’s comments and recommendations to each House of the Parliament before the end of the applicable disallowance period for that House.

Note: A declaration may be disallowed by either House of Parliament under section 42 of the Legislation Act 2003.

- (8) In addition, at any time while a declaration is in effect, the Parliamentary Joint Committee on Intelligence and Security may:
- (a) review the declaration; and
  - (b) report the Committee's comments and recommendations to each House of the Parliament.
