If a national emergency declaration is in force:

- (a) the declaration is taken to be a Proclamation under section 219 for the purposes of this Act; and
- (b) the declaration is taken to have been published in the Gazette on the day on which the declaration commenced; and
- (c) the period of emergency is the period specified in the declaration for the purposes of subparagraph 11(4)(b)(iii) of the National Emergency Declaration Act 2020 or that period as extended or further extended under section 12 of that Act; and
- (d) subsection 219(3) does not apply to the declaration; and
- (e) the period of emergency is terminated on the day the declaration ceases to be in force.

Social Security Act 1991

47 Subsection 36(1)

Repeal the subsection (not including the note), substitute:

- (1) The Minister may determine in writing that an event is a major disaster if:
 - (a) the Minister is satisfied that the event is a disaster that has such a significant impact on individuals that a government response is required; or
 - (b) if a national emergency declaration (within the meaning of the National Emergency Declaration Act 2020) is in force—the event is an emergency to which the declaration relates.

48 Saving of existing declarations

Despite the repeal and substitution of subsection 36(1) of the Social Security Act 1991 by this Schedule, any declaration that was in force immediately before the commencement of this Schedule continues in force on and after commencement as if it were a declaration made under subsection 36(1) of that Act as in force after that commencement.

49 After subsection 36(1)

Insert:

- (1A) In deciding whether to make a determination under paragraph (1)(b), the Minister may have regard to the matter in paragraph (1)(a).

50 Paragraph 36A(1)(b)

Repeal the paragraph, substitute:

- (b) either:
 - (i) the event is of national significance; or
 - (ii) if a national emergency declaration (within the meaning of the National Emergency Declaration Act 2020) is in force—the event is an emergency to which the declaration relates.

51 After subsection 36A(1)

Insert:

- (1A) In deciding whether to make a determination under subparagraph (1)(b)(ii), the Minister may have regard to the matters in paragraph (1)(a) and subparagraph (1)(b)(i).

52 Paragraph 36A(2)(a)

Before “the extent”, insert “unless subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) applies—”.

Social Security (Administration) Act 1999

53 After subparagraph 124PJ(4)(a)(ii)

Insert:

- ; or (iii) if a national emergency declaration (within the meaning of the National Emergency Declaration Act 2020) is in force—an emergency to which the declaration relates.

Sydney Airport Curfew Act 1995

54 After paragraph 18(b)

Insert:

- ; or (c) if a national emergency declaration (within the meaning of the National Emergency Declaration Act 2020) is in force—the aircraft is being used for or in connection with the emergency to which the declaration relates.

55 After subsection 313(4)

Insert:

- (4A) A carrier or carriage service provider must, in connection with:
- (a) the operation by the carrier or provider of telecommunications networks or facilities; or
 - (b) the supply by the carrier or provider of carriage services;

give officers and authorities of the Commonwealth and of the States and Territories such help as is reasonably necessary for the following purposes:

- (c) if a national emergency declaration (within the meaning of the National Emergency Declaration Act 2020) is in force—preparing for, responding to or recovering from an emergency to which the declaration relates;
- (d) preparing for, responding to or recovering from a disaster or emergency that has been declared to be a disaster or a state of emergency (as the case may be) by or with the approval of a Minister of a State or Territory under the law of the State or Territory;
- (e) if a declaration made for the purpose of subsection (4D) is in force—preparing for, responding to or recovering from an emergency to which the declaration relates.

Note: Section 314 deals with the terms and conditions on which such help is to be provided.

(4B) A carriage service intermediary who arranges for the supply by a carriage service provider of carriage services must, in connection with:

- (a) the operation by the provider of telecommunications networks or facilities; or
- (b) the supply by the provider of carriage services;

give officers and authorities of the Commonwealth and of the States and Territories such help as is reasonably necessary for the following purposes:

- (c) if a national emergency declaration (within the meaning of the National Emergency Declaration Act 2020) is in force—preparing for, responding to or recovering from an emergency to which the declaration relates;
 - (d) preparing for, responding to or recovering from a disaster or emergency that has been declared to be a disaster or a state of emergency (as the case may be) by or with the approval of a Minister of a State or Territory under the law of the State or Territory;
 - (e) if a declaration made for the purpose of subsection (4D) is in force—preparing for, responding to or recovering from an emergency to which the declaration relates.

Note: Section 314 deals with the terms and conditions on which such help is to be provided.

- (4C) Subsections (4A) and (4B) do not limit subsection (3) or (4).
- (4D) The Minister may, in writing, declare that an emergency exists for the purposes of this subsection.
- (4E) The Minister must publish, by electronic or other means, a copy of the declaration made under subsection (4D) as soon as practicable after making the declaration.
- (4F) A declaration made under subsection (4D) is a legislative instrument, but section 42 (disallowance) of the Legislation Act 2003 does not apply to the declaration.
- (4G) In requiring help for the purposes of subsection (4A) or (4B), the officer or authority of the Commonwealth, State or Territory making the requirement must have regard to any guidelines in force under subsection (4H).
- (4H) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, formulate guidelines for the purposes of subsection (4G).
