 - (i) a failure by the insured to comply with the duty of disclosure; or

Note: For the value of the commission, see subsections (5) to (7).

Meaning of add-on risk product

ASIC may determine caps

- (3) ASIC may, by legislative instrument, determine a cap on the value of commissions provided in connection with an add-on risk product of a kind specified in the instrument.

 - (a) one single commission is provided that comprises all of those commissions; and

- (a) the consumer is a retail client; and
 - (b) the offer, request or invitation is made in the course of, or because of, an unsolicited contact with the consumer.

Note: Failure to comply with this subsection is an offence (see subsection 1311(1)).

Exceptions

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to:

 - (c) an offer, request or invitation of a kind prescribed by the regulations.

Note 1: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in this subsection. See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.

*Meaning of unsolicited contact

- (4) Contact by a person with the consumer, in connection with a financial product, is unsolicited contact with the consumer in connection with the product if:
- (a) the contact is wholly or partly in one or more of the following forms:
 - (i) a telephone call;

- (h) the consent was not withdrawn before the contact occurs.

For the purposes of this subsection, take into account any variations that the consumer makes to the consent before the contact occurs.

- (6) The consumer may vary or withdraw the consent at any time. The variation or withdrawal may take any form, regardless of the form of the consent.

 - (a) if the financial product is constituted by a legal relationship between the consumer and the issuer—by force of this section, that relationship is terminated, with effect from the time of the return, without penalty to the consumer; and
 - (b) by force of this section, any contract for the acquisition of the product by the consumer is terminated, with effect from the time of the return, without penalty to the consumer; and
 - (c) such additional consequences (which may include the imposition of additional obligations) apply as are specified in the regulations.
